ITALIAN AVIATORS FETED AT GOTHAM

Lindbergh Greeting Rivaled As 96 Fliers Parade; Mayor Praises

NEW YORK, July 21-(AP) -The narrow streets of the financial district rang today with shouts for General Italo Balbo as the Italian air minister and his companion aviators paraded up Broadway under a swirling mass of ticker tape and confetti-

The official civic reception for the 96 men of the air armada reached a peak of excitement almost equal to that exhibited over the return of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh from his flight to Paris.

From the battery to the city hall General Balbo and his men rode behind rows of khaki clad soldiers, blueiackets and marines to receive the formal acclaim of what Mayor John P. O'Brien described as the "largest Italian city in the world."

At a brief ceremony in the aldermanic chamber the mayor pinned on the breast of the youthful air minister the city's gold and platinum medal of valor. He presented other medals to the full company of aviators.

"I would like you to understand," said Balbo in a brief speech of appreciation, "that my mission would not be complete if
