

Out-door Affairs, Visitors and Convention Activities Keep Society Busy

Brilliant Garden Party Benefit Will Be Sponsored by Legion Auxiliary

Affair Will Be Given in Gardens of Mrs. Clifford Brown; Cards, Program and tea

PERHAPS the largest and one of the very smartest affairs of the whole summer season will be the brilliant garden tea and bridge which will be given by the American Legion auxiliary in the beautiful garden of Mrs. Clifford Brown.

The exact date has not yet been determined but it is expected that the affair will be given in the early part of August. Mrs. Walter Zosel is in general charge and all members of the auxiliary will take part in making the affair one of the outstanding social functions of the year.

Proceeds of the benefit will go toward the traveling fund of the Auxiliary trio for the contemplated trip which it will make to Chicago there to attend and compete in the national American Legion convention in September.

The trio has become nationally as well as state known because of its successful competitive work in the last national convention held in Portland. It has appeared many times in radio programs during the past winter and has done much to make Salem known for its music.

It is expected that the garden party planned to aid them will meet with support of large and enthusiastic proportions. Not less than 50 tables for cards are being anticipated.

Society Pets Are Picnics This Week

SOCIETY is out-door minded these days and with good reason—at last there are a few days warm enough to lure one from the four walls that have protected social affairs for these many months past.

Gardens are favorite haunts with cozy little tables set for four or more and tucked into clever corners where shrubs form a delightful protection and from where the true beauty of flowers may be observed as they grow.

Bridge, tea, breakfasts and luncheons find distinction in the green seclusion of gardens and parks and woods offer gay inducements to larger groups who would picnic from home.

Mrs. John Rand was hostess for a smart garden party Friday at her home with luncheon served at small tables set in the garden and later auction bridge in play at these same cozy tables.

Mrs. Percy Kelly entertained at her home Saturday afternoon in compliment to the annual picnic of the Past Matrons club of Salem with Past Matrons of Albany as guests.

A lovely color scheme of pink and white was carried out for the large luncheon table at which presided Mrs. Ida Miles. A lace cloth added to the beauty of the table appointments. Mrs. Guy Lowellling and Miss Dorothy Cornelius assisted Mrs. Kelly in serving.

This week the calendar is dotted with picnics. One that will attract a group of matrons Monday is that which has been planned by them in compliment to Mrs. Frank Jordan a visitor here from her home in Seattle.

These matrons who include Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, her hostess, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. R. F. Boise, Mrs. Frank Suedcor, Mrs. Charles Gray, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. John McNary, and Mrs. Milton Meyers, will motor to Battleground, Wash., for this affair.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will take advantage of the summer days and entertain with a garden party in the gardens of the Homer Goulet home Tuesday.

The garden of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Connor will be the meeting place for the Leslie Can Do class of Leslie Methodist church Wednesday afternoon. The group will meet at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Bates will assist Mrs. Connor.

Mrs. J. Vinton Scott has opened her garden for the meeting of the South Salem W. C. T. U. Thursday afternoon. She will speak concerning the liquor problem in China. Following the business and program meeting tea will be served in the garden.

The Salem Business and Professional Women will meet for a picnic Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock at Graber Cold Springs. This affair will be featured with an informal social evening.

This afternoon a large gathering of the officers of the Order of the Eastern Star from Salem and vicinity will enjoy a picnic in Silvertown park. Families of the officers are invited to this affair.

And so the story goes with more and more such out-door affairs to be enjoyed. Golf has been attracting more than ordinary attention during the past summery days. Luncheon at the Salem club Friday was largely attended and a successful day of play was reported.

Another feature has been introduced into Salem social life with the advent of the races at Gresham. Large numbers of people from here going in parties and individually are attending these sporting events.

Friday among those from Salem to attend the opening day were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Blade, Carl Gabrielson, Mr. and Mrs. James Linn, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet,

TO BE POPULAR—PLAY POPULAR MUSIC

Modern Harmony Waterman Method

Fox Trots Waltzes Waterman Method

"IT'S EASY TO PLAY THE WATERMAN WAY"

Lessons will be given every Fri. and Sat. of each week, starting July 23rd, in the Nelson Bldg. Not an ear method. It is not necessary that you play the piano now. If you can read notes, and will practice one hour a day, that is all that is required. At the end of 10 lessons, you will be able to play any popular song with swing bass and full harmony, and supply that intangible "something" so often lacking in pianists, by being able to add that syncopated touch.

Surprise Party Attractive Affair

A pretty surprise party of the week was that of Saturday night at which time a group of friends called to surprise Miss Georgia Byrn at the home of her sister, Les Detonia Byrn. An informal evening of music and conversation was enjoyed and at a late hour refreshments were served. A number of gifts were presented to Miss Byrn in compliment to her birthday anniversary.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christy, Mr. and Mrs. F. Eggleston, Mrs. William Ireland, Mrs. J. J. Miles, Mrs. Madeline Cannon, Mrs. C. D. Putman, John Powell and William Neskeil.

Robert Harkness, famed composer of sacred music, has accorded high compliment and set to music a poem by Edna Garfield. The poem entitled "World Unrest," is a three-stanza quatrain which has also been published in the Pasadena magazine, "The Musician." Mr. and Mrs. Harkness visited in Salem recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Thome and while here gave a much appreciated concert. They are now en route to Chicago by way of Canada. They will appear in program at the Century of Progress.

Miss Maude E. Covington has had as her guest during the past week Miss Marion Davey of Pittsburgh, Pa. Miss Davey stopped with Miss Covington on route to her home after a year spent in Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Lentz and daughter, Miss Berta of Edmonton, Canada, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Reese, who formerly resided in Canada.

Mrs. E. L. Baker and Mrs. J. A. Baker left Salem Saturday to spend the next month at their summer cottage at Seal Rocks.
