Today's Schedule
Schapp's at Salem.
Eugene at Bend.

Their pennant hopes fired by wins in three of their last four State league games, the Salem Senators resume their drive on Olinger field at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon against the smooth-fielding Schapp's team of Portland.

The Senators are now only one game behind Eugene and Bend, who are tied for the league leadership. Today one must fall. Since the Federal and Albany do not play today, Salem would move into a two-way tie for second place by a win.

Ranked by a 1 to 0 loss to Salem two weeks ago, Manager Harold Repp signed half a dozen new players to add hitting power to his already fine defensive team. Abbott, who is one of the leading hitters of the league, will be on first base again, and "Doc" Turple, a veteran of 16 years, will wear the mask.

It is probable that Hellner, who held the Solons to five hits here before, will be the starting chucker today, though Bill Hatch may get the call. Hatch shut Albany out with only two hits and is now being watched by Coast league scouts, as is Abbott.

Leonard Smith, one of Nig Borleske's prodigies from Whitman, will start on second base against a number of his old Willamette university rivals in the Solon lineup. Harold Repp and Roberts, the pair who got hits off Wilson here before, will start on short and third.

Two of the Portland City league's fastest outfielders, Belt and Russell, will be in the starting lineup along with Kohl, Olson or Plouff. Repp announces that his men have been facing southpaw pitchers in batting practice, and promises that Wilson will get by with no two-hit pitching again today.

Manager Frank "Burley" Bashor has kept step with other State league skippers in signing new players. Johnny Beck and Doby Wood have been added to the pitching staff the past week, and Ernie Garbarino was recently added as an infielder.

Beck pitched a fine game last Tuesday against the House of David, limiting the whiskered batsmen to nine hits, with Wilson's help in the last inning. The

Kemp, Hagemann, Staynor And Mountain in Running For Tennis Singles Title

Ray Staynor, Fred Hagemann and Norris Kemp of Salem and Tom Mountain of Eugene won their way to the men's singles semi-finals in the Salem Tennis association invitational tournament here Saturday. Hagemann and Kemp will play at 9 o'clock this morning, Staynor and Mountain at 10 o'clock. Both matches will be on the courts at the state hospital grounds.

In the men's doubles French Hagemann and John Creech, Fred Hagemann and Ray Staynor, will be the finalists and will play at 4 p.m. One semi-final match remains in the novice singles, Albert Alley vs. Eugene Beall at 9 a.m., with the finals, the winner against Ned Hale, at 12:30.

Outstanding performances were those of Kemp who upset one of the seeded players, Buck of Eugene, to advance to the finals, and Harold Beall who displayed an exceptional game to nose out Harmon and then give Fred Hagemann a tight battle.

Summary
Men's Singles
Mountain defeated Creech 4-6, 6-0, 6-3; Murdock defeated Sanders 6-4, 6-3; Staynor defeated Foster 4-6, 6-3, 7-5; J. Beall won by default; Fred Hagemann defeated Reider 6-4, 3-6, 6-2; H. Be-

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The Senators came from behind late to down Detroit 4 to 3 and take undisputed possession

House of David men got just twice that many hits off Murphy the next day at Bend, and touched three Klamath Falls pitchers for another 18 hits Friday.

"I wouldn't trade my pitching staff for any in the league," said Manager Bashor. "Furthermore Doby Wood may see plenty of action as a pinch hitter or even as a regular outfielder." Doby is a cousin of Carl Wood and goes at the hitting job in the same spirit as does the fiery shortstop, though from the opposite side of the plate.

The Senators have been playing great defensive ball the last few games. Their showing at Friday's practice indicates they will continue their fine fielding. Another workout was held Saturday.

JONES TO FACE TOUGH FOEMAN

Bunny Martin, Seattle man in Middleweight Class Chosen as Opponent

Plenty of competition, by way of determining whether his "comeback" after a long siege of illness has been 100 per cent, has been provided for Henry Jones in his match at the armory Tuesday night, an event which will revive the wrestling game here after one week's layoff due to the heat. Jones is billed to meet Bunny Martin of Seattle, a middleweight to whom the Provo wizard will have to give away about six pounds.

To make it still tougher, Martin is reported to be one of those lads who loves to rough it. He has defeated Des Anderson in straight falls, and won over Wildcat Pete. This will be Martin's first appearance here, and in fact each bout on the program features one wrestler whose capabilities and style are familiar to Salem fans, and an opponent who is a total stranger but comes highly recommended.

In the one-hour bout "Doc" Nelson of North Carolina will meet Neil Franklin of Salt Lake City, and in the warmup 30-minute affair Soldier Bob Anderson of Fort Lewis will oppose Nick LeFevre of Portland.

STRAIN TELLING ON SLUGGER DEMAGGIO

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 22.—A whistling single through Ray French which the Solon short stop reached for but failed to touch, credited Joe Demaggio with the 58th consecutive game in which he has hit safely. In a game in which the Seals were again nosed out, 8-7, but fairly free in hitting, Demaggio again failed to click with the assuredness of past performances. His hit today, off Pitcher Noonan, while a legit-

CURT COMMENTS

The golfers, as usual, will start the week's sports program bright and early at 9 o'clock sharp this morning, the Salem Golf club and Silverton Country club teams will commence hostilities on the Salem club course. This afternoon at 2:30 the Senators and Schapp's will attempt to throw off the handoffs which their respective hurlers had tightly locked on the rest of them two weeks ago. More or less all day, semi-final and final matches in the Salem Tennis association's invitational tournament will be under way on the courts at the state hospital grounds.

Monday marks the opening of the second round of the Salem Kiltball league series, with Parker's and Wait's Market playing at 8:30. Salem Linen Mills and Kay Woolen Mills at 9:30. Program for the rest of the week in this league includes, Wednesday, Elks vs. Pade's at 8:30, Parker's vs. Salem Linen at 9:30; Friday, Elks vs. Kay Mills at 8:30, Kingsley Ice vs. Pade's at 9:30. Also on Monday, starting sometime in the forenoon, an important team match will take place on the Salem Golf club course, the second contest between The Statesman and the club's caddies. There will be no admission charge.

Likewise on Monday the state junior golf tournament will get under way at Portland. A number of Salem boys had planned to enter, but the Hot

San Francisco, July 22.—(AP)—The Portland Ducks made merry at the expense of four Mission pitchers here this afternoon winning by a score of 15 to 8. The northern team batted around in the first inning when they scored six runs and again in the second when they scored 4. Lloyd Johnson, big left hander of the Missions, was put on exhibition for a couple of visiting Brooklyn scouts, but failed to survive the first inning. He was followed by Osborne, Chelini and Bonetti.

Art Jacobs, left hander for the Portland club, started off well but needed all the batting assistance his mates gave him early in the game in order to win. He was hit hard in the closing inning. Portland.....15 22 1
