Miss Thelma Davis Hostess for Dinner

A delightful Sunday evening dinner party was that for which Miss Thelma Davis was hostess at the R. C. Davis home. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock at a table delightfully attractive in candlelight and centered with sweet peas and pink lilies.

Covers were placed for Prof. and Mrs. Paul Petri, Miss Iris Gray, Miss Catherine Coshaw, and Miss Marie Orlando all of Corvallis, and for Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis and Miss Thelma Davis.

Following the dinner hour the evening was spent in music. Miss Davis is home for the summer from voice study in Philadelphia; Miss Iris Gray has only recently returned from the east where she was studying piano, and Prof. and Mrs. Petri are prominent musicians of the state. Prof. Petri is head of the vocal department of both the University of Oregon and Oregon State college.

Guild Bridge Tea Event of Today

A brilliant social event of today is the bridge tea benefit at the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet. Members of the Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church are hostesses for the affair.

Mrs. Goulet is chairman of the committee in charge and is being assisted by Mrs. Don Roberts, Mrs. John Brophy, and Mrs. George A. White.

There have been reserved 29 tables for the affair and indications are that it will be one of the largest parties of the summer.

Mrs. George Swift will cut ices and Mrs. Louis Lachmund will preside at the urns.

Friends and neighbors from the Silverton, Needy and Beaver creek districts met for an old time picnic Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Richter at Beaver creek. A picnic spread, reminiscent of the old days was enjoyed by all. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Swegle, Mr. and Mrs. John Yoder, Fred Mohr, Philip Mohr, of Needy; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner of Salem; Mr. Ernest Werner, Miss Mabel Werner of Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spagle of Hubbard, Charles Spagle of Fern Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Richter, Mary, Ernest and Marvin Richter of Beaver creek.

President and Mrs. Carl G. Doner have received word of the birth of a granddaughter Sunday morning. The little girl, who weighed seven pounds, 11 ounces, is the second child of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Doney of Chicago.

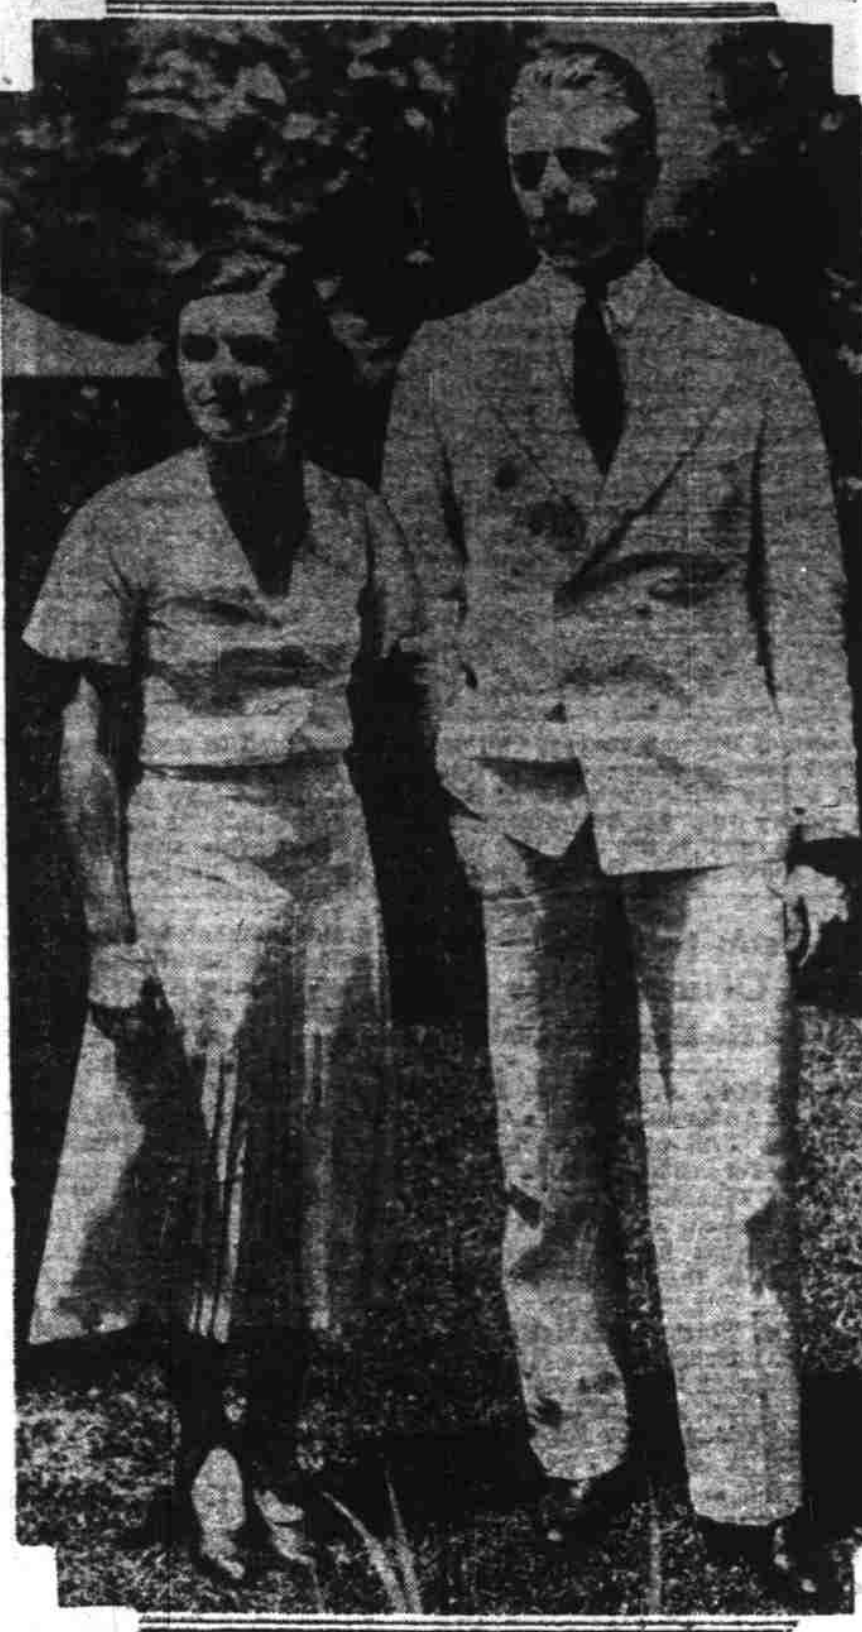

Miss Helen Childs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Childs, returned to Salem yesterday following three weeks spent as the guest of friends in Ocean Park, Wash.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Here's an attractive morning frock just perfect for the gay cotton and silk prints in vogue. Its slenderizing seamings are particularly good for the larger figure; not also, the becoming collar and sleeve flares of contrast. An "easy-to-make" pattern that you can put together in one afternoon... and at such nominal cost.

Pattern 2471 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Wava Myrtle Wilson Becomes Bride Of Maurice A. Cothren, Mill City

Reception Follows at Monroe Home, Mehama; Laurel Club Meeting Thursday

MILL CITY—A floral arbor and arches made a beautiful setting for the wedding of Wava Myrtle Wilson and Maurice A. Cothren Saturday night at the Christian church here. Rev. Francis Winder took his place at the entrance of the arbor as the groom accompanied by Elliott and Russell Wilson, twin brothers of the bride, came from the church study, meeting the bride who entered from the vestibule on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Clifford Phillips. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride was gown in white satin with floor length veil, and carried a shower bouquet. Two little tots, Della Mae Humbricht and Nyla Phillips, relatives of the bride, were trainbearers. They wore frocks of pale green and white.

Miss Beulah Weddle of Stayton was maid of honor. She wore white and carried a muff of flowers. Miss Jessie Moe and Miss Kathleen Quilhot, of Mehama, were bridesmaids and wore dresses of green and pink. They also carried floral muffs. Miss Aileen Boyington and Miss Alice Boyington, of Mehama, acted as ushers. They wore cunning jackets of white and caps. Harry and Dale Monroe, cousins of the bride, met the guests at the door and assisted the two girl ushers.

Previous to the ceremony Mrs. Ed Drapela sang "I Love You Truly" and after the service Mr. Harbo Thompson sang "Because." Miss Dorthen Dunivan played the wedding march.

Following the wedding the bride and party and close friends and relatives drove to Mehama where a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Monroe. Following a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home at Mehama.

Mrs. Cothren is a daughter of Mrs. Rillie Wilson of Mehama. She attended the grade schools of Mehama and later was graduated from the Stayton high school.

Mrs. Frank Harrom and Mrs. Floyd Monroe had charge of the decorations at the church.

Mehama—Following the wedding at Mill City Saturday of Wava Myrtle Wilson and Maurice A. Cothren, intimate friends and relatives were received by the bride party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe, aunt of the bride, where reception was given in her garden which were beautifully decorated with lights and tables. Lunch was served to approximately 200 with Mrs. Mabel Boyington and Mrs. Claire Phillips pouring and Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Blanche Wagner dipping the ices. The Misses Eula Montgomery, Cornelia Cardwell, Beulah Ottlinger, Maxine Huber and Alice and Aileen Boyington served.

During the reception Roy Hiett sang "Oh, Promise Me," and little Elmer Etzel played two accordion numbers.

Out-of-town relatives who were present at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wilkerson and son, Bobby, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson, all of Oregon City; Mrs. Stewart Dory and son, Kenneth, of Carlton; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Woolery, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gregg, all of Salem; Mrs. Erdena Humbricht of Capas, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dodder and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Phillips and daughter, Nyla, all of Mill City; Mr. and Mrs. John Trask and family; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Janson, Mr. and Mrs. George Nydegger, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lyons and family; Miss Fanny Wilson, and Mrs. Ottlinger and daughter, Beulah, of Sheridan.

Excellent Hay Crop Under Harvest, Shaw

SHAW, July 24.—Loganberry and blackcap picking has begun in the Shatto, Lambrecht and Williams yards, and the hay crop is rapidly being cared for. Hay never looked better nor was more appreciated by the local farmers, as so many farmers had to buy forage during the past spring. Spring grain also promises a fine yield and no pests have appeared to limit the production.

SUFFERN TRIPLE BREAK HUBBARD, July 24.—Edward Schoor, five year old son of Dr. and Mrs. Schoor, last week had the misfortune to break his arm in three places.
