Sibyl White Tells Wedding Date At Party

Announcement of August 12 as the wedding date of Miss Sibyl White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. White, and A. Leon Redfern, son of Mrs. C. M. Redfern of Eugene, was made Tuesday night when Miss White entertained a group of intimate friends in her home. Bride was in play during the evening with the announcement tucked into tiny colonial nosegays which accompanied the prizes for high score awarded to Miss Joyce Anderson and Mrs. Cecil Walker.

A color scheme of green and white was used in bridge accessories and supper appointments. At the supper hour Miss White was assisted by Miss Joyce Anderson, Mrs. Donald Deckebach and Miss Beryl Hulsey.

Guests for the evening included Miss Joyce Anderson, Miss Beryl Hulsey, Miss Dorothy Krebs, Miss Dorothy McCracken, Mrs. J. Paul Bolman (Wilda Fleener) of Tillamook, Mrs. Donald Deckebach, Mrs. William Heseaman, Mrs. Cecil Walker, Mrs. Chester Pickens, Mrs. Robert Kelly, Mrs. Preston Hale, Mrs. S. D. Emery, Mrs. Richard Carlson and Mrs. L. F. White.

Miss White and Mr. Redfern are graduates of Salem high school and well-known here. Following the wedding August 12 in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church they will make their home in Eugene where Mr. Redfern is in business.

Trinity Women Plan Annual Social

Silverton—Trinity Aid society will hold its annual ice cream social Friday night at Trinity church lawn. The affair starts at 6 o'clock and will continue through to 10.

No formal program has been arranged for the evening, but it was thought that the large number would gather between 7 and 9 and that a part of the evening would be spent in visiting. The ice cream is homemade as are also the cakes which will go with it. Mrs. L. C. Goplerud and Mrs. O. Satern are in charge of the coffee making and Mr. E. Holden is in charge of the ice cream making.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Downey (Edna Wilson) and their daughter, Margaret, of Fresno, Calif., are expected to arrive in Salem today. They are motoring up from their California home to spend some time in Oregon. In Salem they will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wilson. Mrs. Downey is Mr. Wilson's cousin and is well-known in Salem where she lived before her marriage.

The Three Link club will meet at the home of Eugenia and Willa Slegmund at 1396 Lee street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 sharp. All Rebekahs are welcome to attend.

FEMININE CONGRESS MEETS IN CHICAGO

Six of the world leaders of feminine activities, delegates to the International Congress of Women in Chicago, are shown above. Miss Phillips is president of the National Council of the U. S., Dr. Castellani represents Italy, Dr. Reddi speaks for India, Miss Ekrem for Turkey, Rachel Crowley and Margaret Bondfield for Great Britain. A problem to be discussed at the Chicago gathering is that of woman's place in the new deal. Economic conditions have changed the views of many, even amongst leaders of the feminist movement, and some startling recommendations are sure to result of the discussions.

Birthday Dinner For Woodburn Man

Zena—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merrick of Zena entertained with a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Merrick's father, Marlon Holdredge of Woodburn, Sunday. A lovely white frosted birthday cake, decorated with pink and yellow roses and flanked by tall yellow tapers in crystal holders centered the attractively appointed dinner table at which were seated the honor guest, Marlon Holdredge, Mrs. Holdredge, their grandson, Tommy Lewis Burbee of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merrick and two children, Audrey and Chester.

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson and daughter Mary and young son Frederick, left Tuesday by automobile for Antrim, New Hampshire, where they will visit Mrs. Anderson's mother, whose husband died recently. The family plan to be gone the rest of the season and may decide to remain in the east.

Bethel—Mrs. J. M. Nichols has had as her guests for the past fortnight Mrs. Eve Ennis and daughter, Helen, of Livermore, Calif.

The members of the Bethel Dorcas club gave a picnic on Sunday at the Silverton park for their families.
