Legion Auxiliary Bridge Benefit Date Set

Salem society is interested in plans for the American Legion auxiliary bridge benefit which is to be held in the gardens of Mrs. Clifford Brown's home on August 3.

Bridge, both auction and contract, and other diversions for non-card-playing guests are being arranged for the afternoon, while there will also be a group calling merely at the tea hour.

Charming Tea For Leslie Women

Women of the Can Do class of the Leslie Methodist church held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon on the lawn of the W. C. Conner home.

Following the brief business meeting the afternoon was spent in music and games with Dorothy Keaton presenting two readings. The delightful afternoon was concluded with an attractively arranged tea.

August 13 has been set as the date for the Dakota club picnic, an annual state event, to be held this year at McMinnville.

Miss Louise Findley arrived in Salem Tuesday morning for a short visit at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley.

Vinton Scott Gardens Scene of Party

A delightful open air picnic was held in the gardens of Dr. and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott Monday night. Participating were members of three of the higher classes of the First Baptist church Sunday school.

A number enjoyed themselves in the swimming pool, while other groups used the swings and played various outdoor games. When darkness came on, the gardens were lighted and the picnic supper served.

One of the features of the evening was a talk on modern China by Dr. Scott, who has recently returned from China. Some of the guests were shown through the Scott home to view its novel furnishings, practically all of which were brought to this country from China. About 45 young people were present.

Miss Zosel Hostess At Jolly Picnic

Liberty—A jolly picnic crowd gathered on the lovely lawn of the William Zosel home Tuesday night when Miss Mildred Zosel entertained the members of the young people's classes of the First Evangelical church of Salem.

Florence Power Party's Inspiration

In compliment to Miss Florence Power, who sails Tuesday on the Dondora for California where she will spend August, Mrs. Clarence Emmons entertained in the home of her sister, Mrs. Alfred Montgomery, Wednesday night.

Honors in bridge went to Miss Rosalind Van Winkle and Miss Billie Cupper, while Miss Power was presented with a guest prize. Summer flowers were used about the rooms. Mrs. Emmons was assisted by Mrs. Montgomery at the supper hour.

Stuart Johnsons Bring Home Guests

A ten thousand mile motor tour through the United States and Canada was completed Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson returned to Salem after a six weeks' absence. The Century of Progress exposition in Chicago and visits to New York and Quebec were high points in the trip taken by the local folk.

Returning with them from Fairmount, W. Va. were Mrs. Myra Elliott and Miss Lena Elliott, mother and sister of Mrs. Johnson. They will spend some time in Salem as the house guests of the Johnsons. Mrs. Elliott, 75 years of age, is reported to have enjoyed the automobile trip west and to have arrived here in good health.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wells of Longview, Wash., are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter, Loris Leanne, July 22, at a Salem hospital. Mrs. Wells was formerly Miss Alta Zinn of Salem. Mr. Wells is salesman for Hudson Duncan wholesale company.
