WREN MILL STARTS SHORT RUN AUG.

Lyons Teacher Will Visit World's Fair Until Opening of School

LYONS, July 28-The Mountain States Power company workmen were here this week replacing some power transformers at the Cockran and Hinkle planer plant at Fawn which is a mile east, of Lyons. The Wren Lumber company expect to make a short run, beginning about August 1. How long they will operate depends on sales and lumber prices. They have some stock on hand.

Mrs. Fred Boyer and children and Mrs. Orville Bailey and two children of Salem spent Wednesday here with their aunt, Mrs. Frank Johnston.

Farmers in this vicinity are busy putting up hay at present. No early grass hay was made to speak of here. However oat and vetch crops are as good or better than usual this season. Corn crops are looking very good, especially considering the facts that corn was planted two or three weeks later than of ordinary seasons.

Miss Zeta Prichard of Lyons and Mrs. Inez Campbell of Albany are leaving the first of the week for Chicago, where they will attend the world's fair and spend the summer on a vacation visiting the summer on a vacation visiting other points of interest before returning to Oregon early in September. Miss Prichard is a teacher in the Fox Valley school, which opens about September 15.

THRONE FOR 5 AND 10 CENT PRINCESS?

SERGE and DAVID MOIVANT Is another royalist plot afoot? Hollywood reports that a plan is being worked out to place one of the Mdivani brothers, who claim to be princes, on the throne of the onetime independent nation of Georgia, now part of Soviet Russia. An "army" of 250 is said to have been recruited among the unemployed of Los Angeles. As this is about equal in size to the army of San Marino, the world's smallest nation, it is hardly likely that the Soviet Government will call its millions of reserves to the colors. The logical candidate for the "crown" would be Alexis Mdivani, who recently married Barbara Hutton, heiress to the Woolworth millions. Their wedding in Paris was attended by royal pomp and ceremony, so it is possible 5 and 10 cent Princess Barbara is slated to be "Queen Barbara I."
