

Woodburn Juniors Win Way to State Finals at Klamath

MILWAUKIE IS SWAMPED 25-0

Foe Gets Only one hit off Four Hurlers; P. O. to Send Team Sunday

WOODBURN, July 28.—(Special)—The Woodburn American Legion Juniors, representing Marion county and previously victorious in their own district, clinched a trip to Klamath Falls for the state finals when they defeated Milwaukee in the second game of their first inter-district series, 25 to 0 on Milwaukee's diamond Friday.

As the score indicates it was a complete rout, and Coach Pete DeGuire of the Woodburn team sent all his players into the game to give them experience which may prove valuable in the harder state series. Everybody came through with flying colors; all four pitchers were used but nevertheless, Milwaukee managed to collect only one hit off the group.

Woodburn's 25 hits were well distributed among the 14 players, but Voigt led in the slugging with four and Nicholson came next with three. Some poor fielding and some lack of control on the part of Milwaukee's luckless moundman, helped to convert the 20 blows into 25 runs.

The Woodburn team will play an all-star team under the banner of Postoffice Pharmacy at Portland Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock on Legion field here, the purpose aside from giving the boys additional experience being to raise funds to complete the purchase of uniforms for the Marion county squad. Good attendance is desired on this account. A special invitation has been forwarded to Salem fans, who have a right to be as much interested in the county team's success as any others, as it is representative of the entire county and two Salem boys, Jimmy Nicholson and Phil Salstrom, are playing important roles in the series of victories.

Elks Defeat Kay Tossers; Pade's Wins

A three-run ninth inning rally, enlivened by an argument occasioned by a discrepancy between the official scorebook and the umpire's recollection of what had occurred, enabled the Elks to defeat Kay Woolen Mills 9 to 6 in the liveliest of two lively Salem Kibb league games played on Irvington field Friday night. The scorebook showed Scheibner out but the umpire announced he had called him safe.

Pade's continued his winning stride, defeating Kingsley 10 to 3. Sam Steinbock hit a home run in the first inning. He struck out ten batters.

Salem Racquet Team, Portland Y. Clash Today

The Salem Tennis association will send a six-man team to Portland today to meet the Portland Y. M. C. A. team on the Irvington club courts. With Bill Carr, one of Portland's best racquet wielders, playing No. 1 on the Y. team and the others of comparable ability, the Salem team is not overly hopeful of victory.

There will be six singles matches and three doubles. The Salem players will rank as follows for singles: Fred Hagemann, Ray Staylor, French Hagemann, Daryl Meyers, Herbert Eobson, Donnell Sanders.

The matches will start at 2 p. m.

Johnny GOODMAN

OMAHA YOUNGSTER WHO WON THE 1933 NATIONAL OPEN CROWN!

Denny SHUTE
YOUTHFUL OHIO PRO WHO COPPED THE BRITISH OPEN TOURNEY!

YOUTH is champion this year, and the golf links give us the big example of that fact, as well as the exception that proves the rule. The champions are Johnny Goodman, United States Open title holder, and Denny Shute, British Open champion. We will come to the exception later.

Goodman and Shute came from totally different environments. Goodman lived in the meat-packing district of Omaha. His father probably never held a golf stick in his hand. Shute was born to a golfing family. His father was a golf teacher and owned a golf shop. Goodman taught himself the game, but Shute was learning how it was done from the time he was old enough to stand squarely on his feet.

The American champion's initiation into the game was when he was on a stroll in the unfamiliar territory "on the other side of the railroad tracks." Johnny wandered into a golf course and accepted a caddy's job. But the first time he had a chance to swing at a ball the game got him, and he knew he had the stuff to make a great golfer. He kept at it until he proved he was right.

The newly crowned British champion had the game bred in him. His forefathers came from Devonshire, England, and his father dreamed that he would one day be the champion that he has turned out to be. But Denny didn't amaze anyone with his early scores. It wasn't until he had reached college, and his father had begun to despair of his ever getting started toward real golf, that Denny found himself. But once he was on the way, all his early training came to the fore and championship form was soon developed.

Both Goodman and Shute put the veterans in the shade and asserted the right of youth to championships. They met the best men in the game and played them under. They rule undisputed.

This was a great year for youth, with the young giant Carners forcing the veteran Sharky; with young Jack Crawford dominating the tennis horizon, and with Babe Ruth's aging sun being dimmed by younger baseball luminaries.

But on the links there was a single exception—the Hon. Michael Scott. Scott has been a veteran in the British Amateur tournament for more years than he cares to recall. This year he won the title. And so the rule is proved.

BRITISH TEAM NEAR VICTORY

Cochet Falls Before Perry in Hard Match; Austin Has Easy Contest

AUTEUIL, France, July 28.—(AP)—The French Davis cup tennis defense crumbled unexpectedly today with the defeat of Henri Cochet in the singles as England smashed through for two victories that forecast, simultaneously, the end of France's six-year reign and the first British triumph since 1912.

Cochet, the dapper little Frenchman who was regarded only two years ago as the all-premier player, went down under the powerhouse attack of Fred Perry, 24 year old top ranking British star. With him toppled the slim French hopes of sustaining their hold on the international trophy.

Perry fainted from fatigue in the dressing room afterward, but there was no sign of distress as the stalwart Briton trounced the great Cochet in the fifth set of an otherwise hard fought match, decided by scores of 8-10, 6-4, 8-6, 3-6, 6-1.

Following the decisive victory of Henry W. "Bunny" Austin over the youthful Andre Merin, newcomer to Davis cup play, 6-3, 6-4, 6-0, England thus gained a 2-0 lead and now needs only one more match to clinch the series and take the historic cup across the channel.

France, in order to keep the trophy won from the United States at Germantown in 1927 and successfully defended five times by her famous "musketeers," would have to win all three remaining matches. The defenders have a good chance to pull out the doubles tomorrow with the Veterans Jacques Brugnon and Jean Borotra in good form, but no one expects Merin to stop Perry in the singles Sunday nor Cochet to have advantage over Austin.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 28.—(AP)—Portland defeated Hollywood, 2 to 0, here tonight to even the series at two games each. The contest was largely a battle of the pitchers, with Gibson, allowing only four hits, having the best of it behind the perfect sticking of the Beavers. Gibson struck out 7 men and walked three. Shellenback, who allowed only 8 hits, struck out 4 and walked 4.

Portland scored a run in the fourth inning when Blackerby doubled, went to third on Berger's infield out and scored on Palmisano's double. The Beavers picked up their second run in the sixth inning on singles by Gibson, Muligan and Sankey.

Hollywood threatened in the third inning when Shellenback doubled after two were out and Haney singled. Durst, however, fouled out. In the 6th with only one out, Hollywood loaded the bases when Haney walked, Berkowitz singled and Brannan was hit by a pitched ball. But Carlyle lined to Sankey, who doubled Berkowitz at second.

Bulldog Wins Bout After Once Losing it on Foul; West Salem Show Lively

Bulldog Jackson contributed to the inauguration of weekly wrestling show in the newly completed American Legion open air arena in West Salem Friday night by taking two out of three falls in a scheduled one-hour match from Mickey McGuire of West Salem.

Before a good sized crowd, the second fall in eight minutes with a punishing hammerlock. The third fall was a free-for-all with all three men in the ring joining in at one time. McGuire was awarded the match on a foul, but he refused to accept it. Jackson then won the final fall in ten minutes with a crab hold that knocked the West Salem fighter completely out.

The new pavilion proved to liven the matches up considerably. Closeness of the combatants and spectators made verbal conflict easier. The arena provides a large seating capacity with a good view of the ring from any part of the stand.

John Nemanic of St. Louis gained two out of three falls from Tessa Higami in the second of the matches. Higami introduced his jet stick holds and was almost too tough for Nemanic. Higami took the first fall with an airplane spin. Nemanic won the second fall with a body press and the final fall with a series of whip wristlocks.

The opening match was the sensation of the evening. Loggors Heibert was awarded the match when Dorry Detton of Salt Lake City failed to return for the final round. Detton copped the first fall with a short arm scissors and body press, and Heibert knocked the Salt Lake man groggy with his "Heibert special" hold.

This program opened a series of Friday night shows with Herb Owen of Eugene and Portland as promoter.
