

SILVERTON STORES FAVOR HOUR CHANGE

SILVERTON, Aug. 3—Mayor E. W. Garver has been responsible for a petition being circulated at Silverton in an effort to find out how business men feel about the proposed 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. hour daily schedule. Mayor Garver reported Thursday that this was being met with favor and all but two houses approached had been willing at once to agree. It was Mayor Garver's opinion that these two would also consent. matter will be presented at a meeting to be held Friday night at the Eugene Field building. The city library, Mayor Garver said, would not be asked to close Saturday nights.

Officers Taking Evans, Acuff to Serve Sentences

Frank Evans, 58, and Hersel Acuff, 26, were taken to Enterprise Thursday by Wallowa county officers, where they will serve jail sentences for possession of elk meat.

Attorneys for Evans claimed he was unable to stand a jail term, but after a physical examination, Governor Meier ordered him turned over to the officers.

The men were convicted last year, and had no money to pay their fines of $832 each. Supreme court recently upheld the lower court in its conviction.

Bean Growers at Stayton Worried Over Wire Bugs

Bean growers in the Stayton district are somewhat bothered this year by patches of wire bugs. S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector and horticulturist, reported yesterday after an inspection trip there. The bugs attack the roots of the bean plant and unless the plant receives much moisture and not too great sunshine, it is liable to die. Van Trump said weather this week allayed the attack of the bugs.

The Stayton bean crop will be much larger than last year, Van Trump opined. Picking is about to start. The cooperative growers will do much of their canning through a deal with the West Salem cannery.

MYSTERY DRAMA TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

"Spooky Tavern," a mystery drama, will be presented at Jason Lee church at 8 o'clock tonight by the Jason Lee players under direction of Beulah Graham. A fear of the unseen and uncertainty of the present coupled with contrasted characters are the characteristics of this humorous play by Jay Tobias, which is held to surpass "The Sky Riders," given last year.

lie Worgle, Gera! Minton; Blackie Simms, Raymond Carl; Faron, the Creeper, Don Watson.

On the production staff are: John Adlard, manager; Vernon Frahm, stage manager; Keith Middleton, property man; Isabelle Leeper, wardrobe mistress; Raymond Carl, publicity and sound effects; Halle Chamberlain, art work; Eleanor Chadwick, posters.
