

Ex-Champs Miller and Ferrera Reach Public Links Final

Woodburn Juniors to Leave Tuesday for State Finals at Klamath

ENTIRE COURSE WATER HAZARD

Leal and Los Angeles Trio Not as Good Muddlers As Veteran Pair

EASTMORELAND MUNICIPAL COURSE, Portland, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Those southern Californians managed to weather a light drizzle yesterday and appeared to like it, but when they ran up against one of their own type of cloudbursts today, it was too much, and Robert Lee Miller of Jacksonville, Fla., the defending champion, and Ferrera of San Francisco, the 1931 titlist, won the two final places in the national public links golf tournament.

Under the most trying conditions with rain flooding the fairways and greens, Miller swamped Don Erickson, Los Angeles, 6 and 5, after putting the skids under Bud Ward, Olympia, Wash., 2 and 1, in the morning quarter finals.

Ferrera made short work of the qualifying sensation, Leslie Leal, of Bellingham, Wash., who shares medal honors with Tab Boyer of Portland, drubbing the mill worker, 6 and 4, and then came from behind to dispose of Bruce McCormack, Los Angeles, 2 and 1.

The 160-odd starters in the big show thought they saw a lot of water the opening day when they battled with the numerous lakes and trees, but the whole course was under water today as the two "champs" stood their ground against the firing of two Washingtonian and the other four Californian quarter finalists.

McCormack ousted his fellow townsman, Stanley Seymour, 2 and 1, and Erickson nosed out Henry Batista, Altadena, Cal., 2 up, in the other morning 18-hole contest.

The small but loyal band of Portland galleries which followed the sparkling matches in spite of the near cloudbursts, appeared to favor the Florida boy to retain his crown in the 36-hole finals tomorrow.

But the local golfing fans were looking forward with more interest to their own "championship" Sunday, when Tab Boyer will tangle with Leal in a 36-hole playoff for the qualifying medal trophy. The two boys tied for the honor with an even par card of 144 for the double test round.

Ferrera was a bit shaky in his contest with McCormack, but put on a spectacular finish to come from behind for a victory.

CHAMPS TO MEET PERRYDALE SQUAD

DALLAS, Aug. 4.—A battle of champions will be played next Wednesday night when the Perrydale Farmers, four time champions of the twilight league, meet the Legion Hares, this year's champions. This game has been arranged as a benefit for the local twilight league which went in the red during the past season.

Jin Houk of Perrydale, manager of the Farmers, has been getting his men together and will have a strong team on hand for the game. The lineup will include Houk, Zumwalt, Lee, L. Roseman, Turner, Stewart, G. A. Voss, and others from around Perrydale. It is not definitely known whether or not Bobbie Woods will pitch for the Farmers but it is likely that he will.

The Legion will have its regular team on hand and will play the same men that won the championship for them this year. Rex Pemberton will probably do the pitching for the Hares.

The Industrials managed to take second place away from the Firemen last week after the two had been tied. This left the final standings in the league about the same as a week ago with the Legion Hares taking first place, the Industrials, second; Firemen, third, Peterson's Colts, fourth.

Stayton to Play At Sweet Home, Return Contest

The Stayton and Sweet Home teams will figure again in the second game of the Mid-Willamette Valley Baseball association playoff Sunday, clashing this time at Sweet Home. Stayton won handily on its home diamond last Sunday.

Mt. Angel and Aurora will play the final game of the northern Marion county division schedule Sunday afternoon at 2:30 on the Mt. Angel diamond. If Mt. Angel wins it will have the division title but a victory by Aurora would tie it all up again. Meanwhile the Seaton Elks, fourth team in the playoff, remains idle for another Sunday.

JOHNSTONS ENTERTAIN LYONS, Aug. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller of Salem Tuesday. The Millers and Johnstons were acquainted when Mr. and Mrs. Johnson lived in Seaton.

Fair Net Invaders

By BURNLEY

WHEN the ladies get together again on the courts this week at Forest Hills, in the important Wightman Cup matches, many tense moments are in store for tennis fans who journey to that beautiful spot in Long Island which is the net Mecca of the East.

The English team this year is the youngest that the old country has ever sent over to do battle for the stellar court honors. Miss Betty Nuthall, captain of the team, is, of course, no newcomer, and Miss Dorothy Round, the sensation of the English team, has made one previous visit to the Forest Hills award. But the other members are young and new to championship tennis.

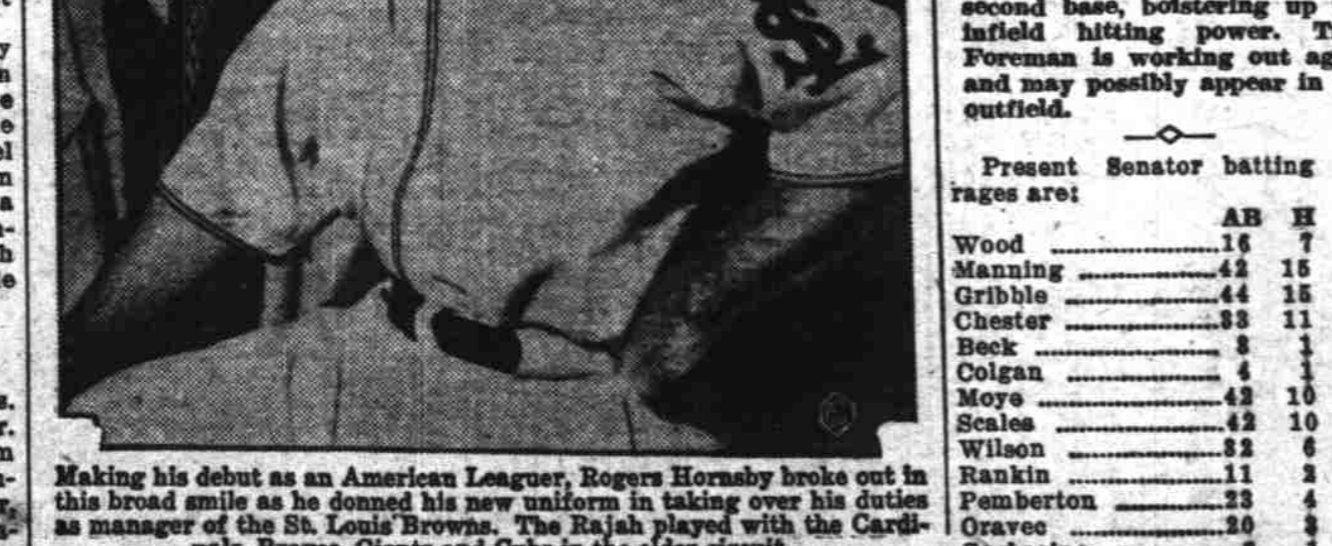

They are the Misses Mary Heeley, Margaret Scriven, Freda James and Mrs. L. R. C. Mitchell. It is Miss Round who will have the chief attention of the fans, for she has made phenomenal strides in her play. Two years ago she was over here and, although she played good tennis, few expected that she would develop into a major threat to American title chances. Yet that's just what she has done.

It was Miss Round who extended Helen Wills Moody to three sets in the Wimbledon championships, and in doing that she wrote her name in large letters on the top-notch tennis lists. It was the first time Mrs. Moody had ever encountered such stiff opposition. Mrs. Moody probably will meet Miss Round again at Forest Hills, and there is no doubt that the opposition will be as tough and perhaps just a little tougher.

BOB SMITH YIELDS DODGERS 4 BLOWS

Boston won the opener 4 to 1. Brooklyn 1 7 1 Boston 4 9 1 Bengie, Ryan and Outen; Cantwell and Hogan.

RAJAH HAPPY ON NEW JOB

Making his debut as an American Leaguer, Rogers Hornsby broke out in this broad smile as he donned his new uniform in talking over his duties as manager of the St. Louis Browns. The Rajah played with the Cardinals, Braves, Giants and Cubs in the older circuit.

VARIED DOUBLE BILL SIGNED UP

Big Fellows, Little Ones To Grapple on Tuesday Card, Announced

There have been a number of double main events on wrestling programs in Salem, but the one lined up for next Tuesday night by Matchmaker Harry Plant is unique in that it offers one heavyweight bout and one between middleweights, so that fans may judge at one sitting, which type they like best.

The bouts are of more or less equal drawing power aside from the individual fan's preferences in the way of size and speed. The heavyweights are Al Karasick and Everett Kibbons, both well and favorably known here. Karasick is an old campaigner who has met and held his own with all the top notches; Kibbons is a youngster just out of college, rapidly forging his way to the top.

The lighter fellows are Cecil Bennett and "Swede" Lawson, and the fans are going to be mightily interested in the career of young Bennett after his surprise victory over Robin Reed in the way of title and wrestling commission duties in shape and get down to the serious business of wrestling before he tackles anything so tough again.

Bennett displayed exceptional ring generalship for a youngster just out of college, in his match with Reed. He refused to become rattled or angered at Reed's "goat getting" tactics, and that was the main factor in his victory, although it was evident that he was in better condition than Reed.

Hank Greenberg Detroit's Hero; Drives in Three

AMERICAN LEAGUE table with columns for Team, W., L., Pct.

DETROIT, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Hank Greenberg's single, scoring Stone, broke an eleven inning deadlock with Chicago, winning for the Tigers, 3 to 2. Greenberg also accounted for the other Tiger runs in the second when he hit a home run with a runner ahead of him.

Hardware Team Beats Kay Mill Kitball Juniors

In a one-sided kitball game played on Sweetland field Thursday afternoon, the Square Deal Hardware team defeated the Kay Woolen Mill squad 14 to 3. The "Square Deal" team put the game on ice in the first inning when Melers the catcher, hit a triple with the bases loaded. Kidolts got four hits out of five times up.

Seattle Juniors Western Champs Of Washington

SEATTLE, Aug. 4.—(AP)—The Seattle Forty and Eight post juniors won the western Washington Legion baseball championship today, trouncing Tacoma, 9 to 2, for their second win in three games.

Outdoor Grapple Show Postponed

Friday night's scheduled wrestling show at the West Salem American Legion open air arena was postponed for one week because of the afternoon rains and the threat of more at night. Matchmaker Herb Owen announced that the same card with the exception of the Higami-Cox bout, would be staged next Friday night. Another bout will be substituted for that one.

Game Sunday With Former Legion Juniors of County Is Last Home Appearance

WOODBURN, Aug. 4.—The Woodburn Juniors, Marion county's entry in the state American Legion Junior baseball finals, will leave Tuesday night, August 8, for Klamath Falls where the finals will be held. The legion post here is planning to give the boys a special sendoff when they leave on the S. P. at 11:06 Tuesday night.

After arriving in Klamath Falls Wednesday they will have opportunity for several workouts before the first game which will be Thursday afternoon. The drawing for opponents will be held after all of the teams reach Klamath Falls. Other teams entered are Grant Pharmacy of Portland, Hood River and Eugene.

The Woodburn Juniors will make their last home appearance of the season Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when they will play a team of former Legion Junior stars of Marion county, on the Legion field here at 3 p. m. A number of last year's players and some from previous years will be included in the opposition. A preliminary game between Dr. Donnelly's Colts and a team of 13-year old boys from Salem, will be played at 1 p. m.

While not over-confident on behalf of the Marion county champions, fans here believe this year's team will be more effective than those which have represented the county the last two years. This belief is based in great part on the effectiveness with which Woodburn won the district and inter-district games.

In addition to an exceptional pitching staff made up of Bevens of Hubbard, Schwab and Coomer of Silverton and Champ of Stayton, the Woodburn Juniors have in Voget an outstanding catcher, and the infield combination, Gant, Coleman, Salstrom and Oberst, is believed one of the fastest ever recruited for junior ball in this county. All of these boys excepting Salstrom, who is from Salem, played on the Woodburn team in the county race.

The outfielders, Bonney, Battleson and Nicholson, are all hard hitters, with Nicholson the outstanding slugger in most games this year. Dimick and Morgan are some others who may see action.

M'NEELY LEADS SOLONS TO WIN

Goes in as Pinch Hitter as Team is Four to Bad, Inspires Rally

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—(AP)—Earl McNeely, Sacramento manager, inspired by example his Coast league leading Senators to turn threatened defeat into a 10 to 9 victory over the San Francisco Seals here tonight.

McNeely entered the contest at the start of the seventh inning when the Senators were trailing 5 to 1. He inserted himself as a pinch hitter for Lefty Hartwig, Senators' starting hurler, and promptly smashed out a single. The crack of his bat was a signal for a rally that drove Bill Henderson and Ken Douglas, Seals' moundsmen, to the showers in turn. The entire Sacramento team batted around and accounted for seven runs before the inning was over.

In the eighth inning the assault was renewed against Ed Stutz, who relieved Douglas, and two more runs crossed the plate. Night game: Sacramento 10 16 3 San Francisco 9 12 3 Hartwig, Saunders and Woodall; Henderson, Douglas, Stutz, McDougal and McIsaac.
