Week's Social Calendar is Dotted With Several Large Events

THE week has been characterized by large affairs. Leading all was the garden tea given by the Legion Auxiliary as a benefit for the auxiliary trio to assist it with its trip to the national convention in Chicago in September.

The garden of Mrs. Clifford Brown was the scene for this distinctive affair attended by a large part of the maids and matrons of Salem. Colorful and brilliant in a perfect setting the afternoon will be long remembered.

The younger sets have been busy with au revoir affairs in compliment to departing maids who are leaving to make their homes away from Salem. Among those to be especially complimented has been Miss Margaret Engel who goes to live in Portland; Miss Dorothy Blaisdell who will leave soon to make her home in the east; and Miss Betty Vaughn who will soon leave for San Francisco where she will make her home.

A large group of the younger set danced in gay compliment to these maids in the garden of Miss Edith Morehouse's home, one evening this week.

Another attractively large affair of the week brought to attention the fact that weddings are as delightful summer incentives for entertaining as in spring. This affair was in compliment to Miss Eunice Robertson whose marriage to Rufus Sumner of Portland will be an event of the near future.

Hostesses in compliment to Miss Robertson were Miss Irma Bolander, Miss Thora Boesen, Miss Winifred Graham, Mrs. Theodor Hoover, and Mrs. Richard Kreisel at the Hoover home.
