Vernon Eilers and Mrs. Robinson Popular Guests of Aurora Folks

Aurora—Claiming attention as popular summer guests are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eilers. A number of affairs have been given in their honor at Wilsonville where Eilers has a host of relatives. Mrs. Paul Wagner of Portland entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. Eilers recently and 60 guests were present at an Eilers family reunion Sunday at the U. Eilers home.

Another popular guest is Mrs. E. C. Robinson of Portland, whose arrival here had been preceded by an extensive trip through the east and south. She was the inspiration for a gathering of the supper club Sunday for which Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler were additional guests.

In compliment to Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Harvey Strayer of Canby has bidden a number to a luncheon followed by bridge at her home Saturday. Miss Orletta Kraus accompanied Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Pierce of Portland on a motor trip to southern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Tyler and Mrs. James Ogle attended the Bonney clan picnic at Woodburn Sunday.

Hubbard—Descendants of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durrell, early Oregon pioneers, met at a family reunion and basket dinner at Champeog Sunday. Among those attending were Mrs. John McLaughlin, a daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Elton McLaughlin, the former a grandson, all from Hubbard; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Durrell and Lester and Lyle from Oregon City; Miss Minnie Durrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Coleman and baby from Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Allie McLaughlin from Independence; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller and two children from Salem.

Woodburn—The Woodburn Garden club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hall Tuesday night and enjoyed an outdoor basket dinner served on their spacious lawn. A program in charge of Mrs. Butterfield was given and included an interesting talk by Rev. J. D. Gillanders who spoke on the Colorado Mountain Columbine, and showed many beautiful photos of the Colorado mountains.

The next meeting will be held in the Woodburn library club room September 5 with Mrs. E. J. Allen and Mrs. T. W. Covey on the surprise committee.

Hazel Green—Mrs. Howard Edwards of Salem entertained with a picnic at the Edward Dungan park honoring her husband on his birthday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Welles and children Deloris and Donald, J. H. Huffman, all of Salem; Mr.

Masons Will Picnic

A large event anticipated each year by Salem Masonic lodge, Pacific No. 50, is the summer picnic. This year it will be an event of Wednesday, August 23 at Hazel Green.

TOWN'S FINANCES GOOD, IS REPORT

WEST SALEM, Aug. 9.—The regular meeting of the West Salem city council was held at the city hall Monday night with much routine business discussed. George Chapman reported that he had applied to the state highway commission for permission to lay a water main along and under the Wallace road for the proposed extension. City auditor Darby reported all financial affairs of the city for the foregoing six months, showing the condition to be good and his report was accepted as read.

The proprietors of the new Echo Beach resort submitted a request for license for the sale of beer, which request was denied. A request was made by owners of the Capitol Auto Camp for permission to erect a sign, which permission was granted, provided that it was placed inside the curb line and was safe for pedestrians.

Scotts Mills—A large number of relatives of the Shepherd family attended a reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd Sunday. This annual event is held the first Sunday in August each year.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hickox and children Francis and Owen; Mrs. Mona Blair and two children, and Bill Seigel of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Rose and Mrs. Elma Swartz of Oregon City; Mrs. Charles Morley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morley and daughter of Silverton; Mrs. James McCown of Compton, Cal.; Homer Rawles and Mr. and Mrs. Carey Dettler of Independence; Mrs. Ray Telfer of Mt. Angel; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shepherd; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shepherd and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Shepherd; Henry and Charles Wade; Glenn Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd and son Bob, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shepherd, all of Scotts Mills.

DE GROSSES DUE TO RETURN FROM EAST

LABISH CENTER, Aug. 9.—Fred and Ida Boehm of DeForest, Wis., are house guests at the home of their brother, H. E. Boehm and family. They expect to remain here several weeks. On Tuesday the group visited Silver Falls park.

Eimer McClaughry returned Friday from the Salem general hospital where he underwent an operation the previous week. Fred McClaughry has been confined to bed with a bad case of tonsillitis and will be obliged to undergo a tonsillectomy soon.

Delbert Bibby, who has been visiting his parents the last ten days, left Wednesday noon for San Diego to resume naval training in the southern city.

Friends have received word from Robert DeGross that he and his father expect to arrive home from the east the latter part of the week.

MERCHANTS ARE CALLERS HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater and children Shirley and Barbara of Coquille were guests the early part of the week of Mrs. Slater's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Slater will spend the week in Portland, guests of Mrs. Louise Dunnigan. Mr. Slater is engaged in mercantile business.

RED HILLS GRANGE HEARS NURSE TALK

LIBERTY, Aug. 9.—The Red Hills grange met Tuesday night. The annual home economics program was given and consisted of songs by the grange; readings, Jacqueline Judd and Robert Dallas.

Miss Wilma Stevens, supervisor of the Presbyterian hospital in New York, spoke on "The Modern Trend in Hospitalization." She spoke of some wonderful surgical operations along optical lines conducted there. The grange women held an apron style show. A variety of lovely and useful styles were shown. They were made and are being sold by the home economics club in charge of Mrs. Dallas. Mrs. Dallas also gave a talk while demonstrating new labor saving "gadgets" for homemakers.

Mr. Howe of the Silverton Hills grange spoke during the business session regarding cooperative gas buying and a number of the members signed up. C. A. Ratcliff spoke on the prune market situation and stated he had nothing very encouraging to report at the present time. Employment and paying of farm labor under government rulings came up for discussion.

Business Houses At Aurora Adopt Uniform Closing

AURORA, Aug. 9.—Representatives of local business interests held a meeting Saturday night and agreed to maintain the working hours from 8 to 6 all days of the week but Saturday, as they are now doing, until September 1, unless a definite schedule has been adopted by the N. R. A. before that time.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Tyler of Bend were weekend guests at the home of Mrs. Tyler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gribble. Mrs. Tyler attended Woodburn high school and later taught in the Aurora school.

Combining Started in Grain Fields, Pratum

PRATUM, Aug. 9.—Combining barley and wheat began on a larger scale Tuesday and will probably continue uninterrupted if the weather keeps up. A small field of barley was threshed over a week ago.

The women of Jason Lee church in Salem will give a play at the schoolhouse here Friday night August 11.

Pattern

Contrast is all-important; buttons and topstitching are much in evidence for trim; new sleeves have fullness below the shoulders; simple, clever lines for sleekness... these are the newest Paris dictates. Wonder this frock snaps with smartness and style, for every hint has been skillfully applied. Use satin, faille, or sheer wool for a stunning frock.

Pattern 1527 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

In the Care of Your Car There is One Most Important Fact to Consider....

The Manufacturer of your car KNOWS the importance of proper lubrication. He devotes more space in the instruction book to lubrication than to any other phase of operation or performance.

Shell "Certified" Lubrication assures you a systematic lubrication with eight kinds of lubricants, used exactly as the manufacturer of your car specifies.
