Legion Auxiliary Brings Honor to Salem

Salem American Legion Auxiliary through its musical organization at Klamath Falls for the state convention brought added honor to that already heaped up for the city of Salem.

The trio, the personnel of which is Mrs. Mildred Wyatt, Mrs. Clarence Bove, and Mrs. Walter Zosel, was awarded first place in competition, winning over Rose City trio of Portland by more than five points.

The Auxiliary quartet, Mrs. Mildred Wyatt, Mrs. Clarence Bove, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Zosel, held first place in competition with Rose City quartet by a margin of more than one point.

In addition to these honors the Salem trio won the Sherman Clay silver trophy and a cash prize of $10 and the quartet won the Lydia E. Horstall silver trophy and a cash award of $15.

Rose City glee club had no competition and were awarded trophies and a cash prize.

Mrs. Louise Woodruff, music instructor in Ashland Normal school, Mrs. Don Zamwalt, prominent musician of Klamath Falls, Mrs. C. A. Henderson, supervisor of high school music in Klamath Falls acted as judges.

The Salem trio were honored by appearing on the joint opening program of the Legion and Auxiliary in the Pelican theatre. Both the trio and the quartet appeared on the midnight matinee program.

The trio and quartet of the auxiliary, and drum corps of the Legion presented a broadcast over KFJL Friday evening. The program was arranged and announced by Mr. Wiedenfeld of Kingwood post, West Salem.

The trio and quartet are directed by Lena Belle Tartar, prominent in creative musical circles in Salem. Accompanist was Miss Edith Findley, who gave the artistic and perfect understanding in her accompanying needed to complete the excellent work of the singing organizations.

The competing Portland groups were directed by Rose Coursen Reed.

Outdoor Breakfast Compliments Guests

Mrs. G. Blackburn, Miss Velma Blackburn and Mrs. Laughlin, nee LaVasa Blackburn, who are spending a few days with old friends in Salem at Prineville, returned to their homes at Prineville, were honored Sunday morning when Miss Eleanor Henderson entertained with a charming outdoor breakfast at her home.

Additional guests were Mrs. F. DeHappert, Mrs. W. H. Henderson and Miss Eleanor Harth.

A. A. Stewart and family returned Sunday night from a few days' visit at Nelscott.

Pattern

The afternoon mode for the matron is seen at its best in the frock sketched today. Details that flatter and slenderize her figure are the jabot of contrast with dainty lace edging, chic sleeves set in the becoming raglan fashion, a moulded waistline for an unbroken silhouette and slim panels with pleats. Good in silk or satin.

Pattern 2560 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric, 3/4 yard contrasting and 1/2 yard lace. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in extra or stamps (extra preferred), for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly your name, address and city, state. No sure to state size you wish.

The new summer edition of the Anne Adams Pattern book is ready. Address: Pattern Dept., 242 West 17th Street, New York City.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Aug. 14.—Among others at the sea beaches recently were the G. E. Tandy family, who accompanied Mrs. Clarence Tandy and family to her Cannon Beach home. Mrs. Clarence Tandy had been a guest for a week at the home of her husband's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Moore and family of Eugene were recent house guests at the parental home. He was reared here and has many friends glad to renew acquaintances again. He teaches music in the university town, and himself received a degree in the class of 1933.

To Attend School Here
Rev. and Mrs. K. K. Clark have recently entertained their youngest daughter, Miss Mary Jeanette and two of her friends, the Misses Rita and Emil Cramer of Harrisburg. Miss Clark is employed at Harrisburg but will attend school here this fall as a junior.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Felger attended a family reunion held recently in Dever, near Albany, where her sisters and their families assembled for a pleasant picnic day the first of the week. Gardens are attractive.

Mention should be made of some of the beautiful gardens in West Salem, among them, that of Mr. and Mrs. William La Due, a sunken garden on the bank of the river. With attractive use of lattice panelling and skillful arrangement of shrubbery a feeling of seclusion is obtained only a few feet from a busy thoroughfare. English stepping stones, a rock garden terrace and comfortable seats add to the charm of "living outdoors." The W. T. Offers have also lovely rose screenings that with pleasing pools and fountains lure one to enjoy the delightful Oregon summers, where greenery with sunshine and shadow compel admiration. At the rear of the city, on Sixth street, the grounds of the LaMire home appeal to the delight of one's vision and many other attractive places in and around Kingswood deserve praise.

Post Sponsors Regatta

The Kingswood post of the American Legion have decided to sponsor the regatta to be held soon at Echo Beach, along with the proprietors of the resort, and plans are progressing for a big affair in this, the first one of this kind ever to be staged here. A "queen" will be selected by popularity contest. Entries are being made constantly in one or another sports events of the day. There will be trick surfing, canoeing, swimming, sailing, speedboat races, and other attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamb who have been vacationing at Neskowick for a while have returned home. They have also been assisting their sons, Albert and Virgil build a store on their farm just beyond old Grand Ronde.

Threshers Working In Sunnyside Area; Missourian Visits

SUNNYSIDE, Aug. 14.—Harvest is on in this community and threshers will be at the Taylor place by the middle of the week. Paul Taylor is cutting out old berry vines from his two patches and burning them. The yield was good considering the hard freeze of last winter.

Miss Maryta Heys of Kansas City, Mo., has been spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Chandler of Sunnyside. Miss Heys is a teacher in the city schools of that state and is returning from a tour of California on the way to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pearson, Earrest and Edna Pearson, Mrs. Pressnell and the Bingstener boys enjoyed a several days' trip to Mt. Hood, Swan Island airport and Old Ironsides last week. Four of the party climbed Hood.

Former Jail Ice Box for Lost Store

STAYTON, Aug. 14.—The building at Mehama in which the Phillips store was located was owned by Charles Warner, who carried $1,000 insurance on the building. It was one of the old landmarks of that section. At one time the Mehama jail was at the rear of the store. As the business grew the store building was enlarged until it was built all around the jail.

The jail was constructed of large stones and the Phillips made it into an ideal cooler, where they often kept supplies for their meat market.

Roy Phillips has not yet decided whether he will again engage in business in Mehama.

HARVEST ROBBER BEATEN BY SMITH

Unknown Persons Attempt Cutting of Grain in Eastern Oregon

RICKREALL, Aug. 14.—Ray Smith returned Wednesday from Prineville, where he had made a hasty visit to his wheat ranch nearby on receiving word that his crop was being harvested by unknown persons. He arrived in time to save his crop however.

Mrs. Marjory Dew has been re-elected to teach in the Rickreall grade school, as assistant critic teacher. The grade school here is one of the Manmonia normal's training centers.

William Davis has been quite ill the past few days due to high blood pressure. He became ill while visiting with his son Leon near Coburg and was brought home in a semi-conscious condition.

Steal Water Bucket
The water hose, faucet and water bucket was taken early Friday morning from in front of the Rickreall garage.

Mrs. Emma Darrah of Long Beach, Cal., spent several days last week visiting with her cousin, Mrs. B. F. Lucas. Mrs. Darrah is past 90 years of age, but is as active and young in her ways as the average person of 50. Friday other relatives called to spend the day at the Lucas home, including Mrs. Anna Hughes of McMinnville, Mrs. Stella Miller of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dickey of Los Angeles. The Dickey's and Mrs. Darrah are traveling together.
