The three week's trip combined business and pleasure, and included a visit to the Century of Progress.

W. F. Klampe received a copy of the "LeRoy (Min.) Independent" this week, being of the death of his aunt, Minnie Klampe Schuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuts celebrated their first wedding anniversary in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Marko Emerson, former residents of this community, visited friends Tuesday.

Ill Wind Adage Is Right For Weary Walkers to Coast

WEST SALEM, Aug. 17.—When Leo Stevens and Gerald Cleary started to the coast recently, motorcycle trouble developed and they were forced to camp out for the night, sans camping equipment.

Pedestrian tourists noticed their fire, and by morning the camp had enrolled 15 or 20 "recruits."

SETS RECORD

Miss Helen Boucher, French aviatrice, pictured at the Orly Aerodrome, near Paris, after she had set a new world's altitude record for women. The 23-year-old flier soared to a height of slightly over 20,000 feet. She was in the air less than one and one-half hours.

RETURN FROM CHICAGO

WOODBURN, Aug. 17.—Doris Harader, Edith Manning, Mathilda Gillis and Jack Sanderson returned Monday from a visit in the east. While there they visited the highway and returning the same Chicago Fair going via the Lincoln route. They reported rains, electric storms and dust storms but very little hot weather.

WALLA WALLAN IS CHIEF OF BILYEU

JEFFERSON, Aug. 17.—More than 300 people were present at the Bilyeu reunion held Sunday at Bryant's park in Albany. There were people present from Los Angeles, California, Walla Walla, Washington, Klamath Falls, Eugene, Salem and all surrounding towns. Retiring president, Thomas Bilyeu of Portland appointed a committee to see about forming a Scholarship Loan Fund, to be used by the descendants of the Bilyeu families.

The oldest mother present was Mrs. Mary Bilyeu of Jefferson, and the oldest father present was L. Jackson of Halsey. Each one received a silver cup with name engraved. Each year the cup passes to the oldest mother and father present.
