NEW LOW POINT IS REACHED BY CHEESE

Light Hen Market is in bad Shape; Hogs Ease off; top Lettuce Scarce

PORTLAND, Aug. 17—(AP)—Cheese reached a new low point during the late session of the produce exchange with triplets down 1c to 11c lb., the lowest mark ever reached locally.

Storage stock of cheese were heavy and this was becoming quite burdensome with more than seasonal production continued. Market for butter showed a slow tone with no change suggested in the day's price either on the exchange or on the open market.

There continued far greater than normal seasonal make. Most of the eggs being sold locally at this time were out of storage. Some that are talking of great strength in fresh eggs were unwilling to buy them, claiming they were using their own short held storage.

Market for light and medium weight hogs appeared in bad shape here as a result of the hot weather which has greatly curtailed consumption locally. Lights are down to 7c lb. buying price, a new low record.

Late drops in the price of live hogs in the stockyards caused values on country killed stuff to ease off a trifle. Veal was holding steady to strong at recent advance. Lambs were well held. Beef was dull but unchanged in price.

Serious scarcity of peaches continued here. It was impossible to have orders filled in northern California and prices on the small lots available have been advanced. Therefore, higher prices were shown here.

There was little really top quality head lettuce available and prices were firm to higher here. Sales were being made up to $1 crate for the best available.

DAYTON, Aug. 17—Winter oats made a yield of 75 bushels an acre; fall and spring wheat went 40 bushels an acre on the Neal Stoutenburg farm, in Unionvale Tuesday when threshing was done with John Squire's outfit.

SCOTT'S MILLS, Aug. 17—About 100 persons attended a picnic Sunday at the park of old residents and school-mates of this vicinity. Harry White and Clyde Phillips of Gervais were the oldest graduates present, graduating from the eighth grade here in 1905.

The Heinz reunion was held Sunday under the fir trees at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Yvonne Heinz. Basket dinner at noon followed by business meeting and program.

Thirty friends helped Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kellis celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Moberg.
