SCHOOLHOUSE WILL RECEIVE NEW COAT

BETHEL, Aug. 17.—The school board held the annual budget meeting this week and decided to have the school building painted during the next few weeks. The contract for the job has not yet been placed. The district is in sound financial condition.

Frank Hallik is having his house remodeled and a cement basement put in. The J. T. Meyer home has a new roof of fine cedar shingles and the John Spranger home is shingling with new paint.

Numerous improvements are planned throughout the district to be made as soon as the rush of harvest is over.

PELIONS IN PORTLAND

WAGONDA, August 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felton and children went to Portland Thursday where their daughter, Velle, underwent a minor operation.

Early Scio School Days Recalled as Notation is Found During Renovation

SCIO, Aug. 17.—Pages of Scio history were turned back nearly half a century in the discovery of a lead pencil notation on the interior of the Odd Fellows hall in this city when the building was being repaired and renovated a few months ago.

"Geo. L. Sutherland taught school in Scio in 1884-85." This inscription, almost 50 years old, was as legible as when first placed there by the veteran of many years of school room discipline and work in training the young, by George L. Sutherland.

Mr. Sutherland was born and reared in the Scio region, and at the age of 25 years he was teaching school in this community. The present Odd Fellows hall here then stood on a site near the present residence of George Partney. The building was used for many public purposes—school, church dancing, political meetings, conventions, etc.

Ages Range to 25 Years

"The winter I taught in that building the attendance grew to about 60, ranging in ages from 6 to 25 years," Mr. Sutherland remarked in recalling the educational conditions obtaining here years ago. "A young man by the name of Richardson had just completed the course at the state college at Corvallis, and was employed to help out in the growing school at Scio."

During the proverbial down-pour weather of the winter months the school building was congested, as young people had nothing else to do but to go to school. "It kept us both busy most of the time until spring broke. Attendance began to fall off, and I suggested to the school board that one teacher could handle the situation and save some tax money."

A lot of interesting history clusters around the old building in Scio. Many of the pioneers of the region attended school there, and to this day they recall with pleasant memories the days of the early eighties in a country hamlet that aspired to become a future county seat—an ambition that has never been gratified.

WHEAT YIELDS 50 BUSHELS TO ACRE

RICKREALL, Aug. 17.—Harvest of oats has begun in this vicinity with an exceptionally good yield per acre. Some of the wheat there are very few old time threshers with the traction engines but the combine with either a tractor or horses is used.

The local grain voted at their last meeting to take a vacation during the busy harvest season.

Mrs. Blaine Southwick, of Klamath Falls, is here for a ten day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Nesmith.

Mrs. Harry Dempsey, Virginia Adams, Arthur Dempsey, Leo Bihl and Bill Rowell, made a trip to Portland Wednesday to see "Ironideses."

KNIGHT SELLA TRACT AURORA, Aug. 17.—Property is showing some movement around Aurora. A tract of eight acres, owned by Adam Knight, of Canby, recently changed hands. The new owner, Lane Gribble, will build later on the property, which is situated on the Pacific Highway south of town.

CANSE TO DEVOTE TIME TO HISTORY

Dr. John M. Canse, former president of Kimball School of Theology, and well known to Salem people, has accepted the pastorate of the Methodist Episcopal church at Montezano where he has been stationed since the closing of Kimball, and will reside in Portland. Dr. Canse has long been a student of pioneer history and is presently dealing with the history of the Oregon Mission, and is president of the historical society of the Pacific northwest Methodist conference. He will now devote himself to historical research and writing.

He will be active during the coming winter preparing material for the celebration of the Jason Lee centennial of 1934. The Puget Sound conference of the church will be held in Vancouver, where Lee preached his first sermon west of the Rockies, a century earlier; and of the Oregon conference the same week in June in Salem where Lee's mission work centered. On Friday of the conference week a joint session will take place in the Portland auditorium.

Dr. Canse will be succeeded at Montezano by Dr. W. E. Stanton, now of Tacoma.

ARTHUR H. MADSEN, MRS. CALLIN MARRY

A marriage license was issued in Vancouver, Wash., yesterday to Arthur H. Madsen, Salem real estate dealer, and Mrs. Madeline L. Callin, recently from Dallas. Friends indicate that they will be domiciled in the State apartments here next week after a trip to the Oregon beaches.

Mrs. Madsen was valley editor of The Statesman two years ago, coming to Salem five years ago from McMinnville where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Logan, reside. She was principal of the Kelser school near here two years ago and last year taught near McMinnville. This summer she has been managing a hotel at Dallas.

While here she was active in the Business and Professional Women's club, in which she has held state offices for several years.

Mr. Madsen reentered the real estate field here about 15 months ago after spending some time in California.

Sebo Winner in Apartment Case On Foreclosure

Decision for the plaintiff was handed down yesterday by Judge Lowell, following hearing in the suit brought by O. K. Sebo against Clyde Hill over the State street apartment.

The suit was started to foreclose on contract of sale. Defendants sued to have their payments returned, less reasonable rent. The contract was for $35,000, with $2,500 paid down. A receiver is to take charge for a 90-day period, during which the Hills are to remain in possession. Walter Fuhrer was named receiver.

C. C. C. Boys Aid In Fire Fighting In Gates Section

GATES, Aug. 17.—A small fire which started Tuesday afternoon on the F. Klutka property, a half mile northeast of town, caused some excitement as it grew to alarming proportions in a short time. The fire wardens from Mill City was notified and soon had C. C. C. boys from Detroit guarding the fire. Origin is unknown.

VERA HASSLER INJURED SUBLIMITY, Aug. 17.—Little Vera Hassler fell and injured her knee quite seriously and was given medical attention. Mat Gerspacher, of Montana, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Joe Gerspacher and family, returned to his home Thursday.

VISIT ZENA HOMES ZENA, Aug. 17.—Tommy Lewis Burbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Burbee, of Portland, and Robert Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith, of Portland, are house guests at the C. F. Harrick and W. N. Crawford homes, respectively, this week.
