Syre-Foss Nuptials in Seattle of Interest to Many Silverton Folks

Miss Dolly Wood, Bride-Elect, Honored by Many Friends of North Howell

Silverton—Two weddings recently held in Washington state are of considerable interest at Silverton and the principal people are known by many here.

Of widest interest is the wedding of Miss Margaret Louise Foss of Seattle to Melvin Guy Syre of Lawrence. They were married at Emmanuel Lutheran church at Seattle, Saturday night, August 5, the Rt. Rev. L. C. Foss, father of the bride officiating.

The Rev. Carl Foss of Silverton, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. Miss Lillian Foss, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and Mrs. Daniel Harvey Johnson was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Foss and Miss Madge Foss, sisters of the bride. Beverly Michelsen and Barbara Fixen, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Mr. Raymond Syre was best man for his brother. Carl Syre, Rt. Rev. H. L. Foss, Dr. Raymond Hellickson and Clarence Holmes were ushers.

Mrs. Syre is a graduate of the Bellingham Normal school and also of St. Olaf college. Mr. Syre is a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of Phi Delta Kappa, an educational honorary fraternity.

The other wedding was that of Miss Stella Louise Samuelson and Kenneth Jacobs, both of Parkville, Wash. This wedding was also solemnized on the night of August 5 at Trinity church at Parkland, the Rev. T. O. Svare officiating.

Fairbanks Marriage Of Interest Here

Friends in Salem will be interested in news of the recent marriage of Miss Harriet Hagman, well known in this city, to Everett White Patton of Portland.

The ceremony was performed July 23 in Fairbanks, Alaska, at the First Presbyterian church. The couple were attended by Mrs. Ralph J. Rivers and Harlan E. Youel.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Patton attended Willamette university where Mrs. Patton was affiliated with Beta Chi sorority. They will make their home in Fairbanks, as Mr. Patton is connected with one of the theatres.
