

CUMMINGS SHUFFLE PROHI ORGANIZATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Reorganization of the prohibition field forces by the consolidation of 132 offices into 23 was announced today by Attorney General Cummings.

The old prohibition bureau was abolished by President Roosevelt under an executive order effective August 19 and merged with the bureau of investigation. J. Edgar Hoover is director of the division. John S. Hurley, assistant to A. V. Dalrymple, whose office as prohibition director was abolished, was named assistant director of investigating in charge of prohibition.

At that time, the prohibition unit was reduced and the once large dry unit at 1,890 now musters less than 1,100.

Explaining the new set up, which establishes field offices of dry units in the same 23 cities where the bureau of investigation has branches, Cummings said the action was taken to increase efficiency and effect economies.

The forces, he said, would concentrate their efforts to enforce prohibition on commercial violators, racketeers and gangsters. Under the old regime, Cummings stressed, there had been a waste of money and employees.

Oregon and Washington compose the 17th district with headquarters in Portland.

Postal Laws Held Violated in Sale Of Utility Stock

C. M. Thomas, state utilities commissioner yesterday sent a letter to Carl Donough, United States district attorney in Portland, calling attention to a letter previously sent to George Neuner, his predecessor, with relation to the recent investigation of the atfers of the Pacific Northwest Public Service company and its subsidiaries and the Central Public Service company, owner of the common stock of the Pacific Northwest Public Service company.

"Evidence was taken during the investigation," Thomas said, "which in my opinion clearly disclosed violations of the postal laws in that circulars and advertising matter false in character was transmitted through the mails from Chicago to parties within the state of Oregon."

"I am now advising you of the situation and suggest that the record, including all exhibits, will be made available to your office at any time you desire in order that you may determine whether there has been a violation of the federal statutes."

SILVERTON AGENCY TO HANDLE LOANS

SILVERTON, Aug. 24—During the past few weeks considerable interest has been manifested in the formation of a Federal Land bank association in this community. In response thereto the Federal Land bank has suggested that the Silverton business be handled through one of the associations already established rather than to establish a new one.

Accordingly arrangements have been completed whereby applications for Federal Land loans can be made through the Homeowners' Agency.

"The agency will be ready to take applications as soon as they have received the necessary supplies and instructions," said Alf O. Nelson, manager of the organization.

Thomas to Renew Probe Into State Of Light Outfit

Hearing of the case involving the rates, charges and practices of the Northwestern Electric company will be resumed in Portland September 5. C. M. Thomas, state utility commissioner, announced yesterday. This hearing was launched several months ago but was continued pending analysis of an inventory prepared by the company at the request of the utility commissioner.

Thomas declared that much of the testimony would have to do with valuations for rate making purposes.

Hearings involving the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company also will be resumed in September, Thomas said. He indicated that this investigation would require several months because of the large amount of testimony to be offered.

MURDERESS DOES FAST UNTO DEATH

LA GRANGE, Tex., Aug. 24.—(AP) — Self-imposed starvation brought death to Mrs. Maria Dach, 36-year-old farm woman, and saved her from going to the electric chair for the slaying of Henry Steover, her 33-year-old helper.

Mrs. Dach died in her jail cell last night while awaiting action on an appeal from the death sentence. She had eaten only three meals in 37 days.

For days she was unconscious on the cot in her cell. A physician watched her closely and then began to treat her for a stomach ailment. Occasionally she broke her fast to nibble at the food the jailer brought her, but she lost weight and her 100 pounds when she died offered a sharp contrast to the 300 pounds of three months ago. "The food makes me sick," she would say at meal time. Steover was shot and killed as he slept. His body was dug up from a seven-foot pit on the woman's farm several months later after officers began an investigation at the request of two of Steover's brothers. Over the pit a chicken house had been erected.

Choir to Render Free Concert on Return Sept. 1st

A homecoming concert to which friends and supporters of Willamette university will be free guests is to be given here Friday night, September 1, by the Philharmonic choir at the First Methodist church. With this concert the choir which has been on tour more than two months will end its trip which took it as far east as Chicago where several appearances were made at the world's fair. The original itinerary called for the return of the choir to Salem this weekend. Several additional concerts have been booked, delaying the choir's return. Thursday night, August 31, the choir will appear in Hood River for its last concert before the homecoming one here.
