WCTU Chooses Officers for Next Year

North Salem W. C. T. U. held its annual meeting Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olson. Lunch was served at the noon hour and a business meeting and short program occupied the afternoon.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Mrs. Neer E. Buck; vice-president, Mrs. Mollie Spier; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. J. Williams; recording secretary, Mrs. Annie Deuber; treasurer, Mrs. Esther Olson.

Departments were adopted and directors appointed as follows: evangelistic, Mrs. Belle Roberts; religious education, Mrs. Jessie Cole; flower mission, Mrs. Anna Barnes; international relations, Mrs. Jessie Gies; official papers, Mrs. Esther Olson; farm home, Mrs. Dora Forge; temperance and missions, Mrs. Maude Roberts; young peoples' branch, Mrs. Olive Goodrich; L.T.L., Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Edna Lively.

The departments of scientific temperance instruction, media contests and publicity are yet to be filled.

Mrs. Mann, formerly treasurer of Multnomah County and Woodstock Union, Portland, was present and spoke briefly. She expects to make her home in Salem and will be a welcome addition to the work. Mrs. Arthur Brown gave two readings which were greatly enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held September 27 at the home of Mrs. Stella Wilson at 455 Richmond avenue. Mrs. Jessie Gies will have charge of the program, and the subject will be Scientific Temperance Instruction.

Arrangements were made for the holding of a food sale September 16 and committees were appointed by the finance committee.

Miss Beatrice DeGood Weds E. E. Large

News of the marriage of Miss Beatrice DeGood, former teacher in the Salem schools and now of Eugene, to Mayor Elisha E. Large of Eugene has been received.

The ceremony took place in Madison, S. D., home of the bride, on August 6. Mayor and Mrs. Large, together with Mr. Large's son, Herbert, returned to Eugene last Tuesday night after a three-weeks' trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Large taught in the commercial department of the Salem senior high school during 1924-1925.

'Majors' Announce Team Captains of NRA

Team captains representing the feminine ranks of the NRA have all been appointed by the three "majors," Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Chester Cox, and Mrs. Harry J. Weidner, and are awaiting instructions from Washington, D. C., as to their duties.

Those serving under Mrs. Wright are Mrs. I. L. Darby, Mrs. B. B. Herrick, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach, Mrs. Mason Bishop, and Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

Captains under Mrs. Cox are Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Dan Fry, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs. Victor Griggs, and Mrs. Frank Spears.

Mrs. Weidner announced her captains at the first of the week as Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Lee Roy Gard, Mrs. E. S. Oll Boney, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., and Mrs. S. W. Starr.

The entire corps is under the direction of Mrs. Hannah Martin.

Miss Buren Married Quietly Thursday

Before a beautiful improvised altar on the staircase landing at the home of her parents, Miss Rosalie Buren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Buren, was married to Marion B. Lamb, son of Mrs. George B. Lamb, Thursday afternoon at 4:30.

Dr. W. C. Kantner officiated in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The bride was gowned in white satin, made along princess lines, and wore a long tulle veil edged in lace. She carried a shower bouquet.

Mrs. Wolcott Buren, the matron of honor, wore turquoise blue with matching hat and a corsage of roses. Little Miss Nancy Buren, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in yellow and carried a colonial nosegay.

Harold Lamb was best man for his brother. Miss Rosalind Van Winkle played the wedding marches and Mrs. Malcolm Spaulding sang "Until."

A reception was held following the ceremony in the drawing room of the Buren residence with members of the bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. Buren and Mrs. George B. Lamb receiving the guests.

The bride's going-away ensemble was of gray printed silk with a gray coat and fox fur. She wore a gray hat and accessories.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will be at home at the Court apartments after September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dencer entertained members of the Artisans at a potluck dinner last evening. The meal was served on the lawn and guests roasted wieners around a big bonfire.

Silverton—One of the lovely late summer affairs will be the benefit bridge to be given at the Charles Reynolds home here Wednesday afternoon. Members and wives of the library board will act as hostesses at the benefit for the Silverton public library.

Mrs. H. B. Latham, who has been chairman of the library board for 19 years, Mrs. G. B. Bentson, who has been a member of the board for the same number of years, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, and Mrs. C. R. Wilson, are arranging the affair. Mr. Reynolds and Dr. Wilson are members of the library board and of the city council.

The hostesses are asking friends to make up tables and playing will commence at two o'clock. Both contract and auction will be played.

Monmouth—Of interest here is the marriage of Miss Opal Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Armstrong of Lewiston, Idaho, to Maurice Brislaw, Longview, which occurred Saturday night at Vancouver, Washington. Miss Armstrong has been employed in secretarial work at the Oregon Normal school for the past three years. She is a graduate of Lewiston, Idaho normal, and a member of Phi Beta Sigma.

Mr. Brislaw is a graduate of the University of Washington. After a short trip Mrs. Brislaw will return to her work in Monmouth. Mr. Brislaw will teach at Longview next year.

Miss Armstrong Wed To Waldo Miller

The marriage of Miss Velma Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Armstrong, to Waldo Miller was performed Saturday evening, August 19, at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Hugh N. McCallum.

The bride was charming in a pale blue lace gown, and carried a spray of gladioli with fern. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum sang the duet, "I Love You Truly," and Miss June Armstrong played the wedding march.

The guests included Alice Anderson, Kathleen Lindbeck, Ethel Marshall, Lola Armstrong, Jean Rodgers, June Armstrong, Hattie Miller, Leila Fagg, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum, Donald Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marshall, Lloyd Marshall, Stanley Fagg, Raymond Armstrong, Lester Armstrong and Alvin Armstrong.

After a reception at the bride's home the young couple left for a short wedding trip to Olympia, Washington.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

A smart model for the matron and woman of larger proportions holds our attention today. It extolls new fashion notes skillfully applied with an eye for slimmness. The contrasting scarf is softly draped and knotted on the shoulder, the waistline is beltless for an unbroken silhouette and smart, full sleeves join a tight cuff just below the elbow. Black satin would be smartest.

Pattern 1538 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/4 yards 36 inch fabric and 7/8 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

THE ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK features a charming collection of afternoon, sports, golf, tennis dresses, jumpers, house frocks, special beginners' patterns, styles for Juniors, and lovely clothes for youngsters, and instructions for making a chic sweater. C. Kruger.

Miss Verna Johns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johns, is spending her vacation with Mrs. Clara Vibbert and daughter, Miss Leota Clare, at their beach cottage.

Mrs. W. H. Henderson has as house guests until Sunday her sister, Mrs. Harold Malby and Mrs. Thomas Field, both of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

HOMES SOUGHT FOR ORPHAN BOYS, GIRLS

HOMES WANTED FOR bright, energetic boys and girls, aged 14 to 16 years. The children have all passed the eighth grade, have completed rigid mental tests and are anxious to complete their junior high school and senior high school work.

Such is the advertisement Miss Mary Sabrell had in mind when she conferred with Mrs. Nona White at the courthouse yesterday. Miss Sabrell is a staff member of the Children's Farm home at Corvallis and is anxious to place some of the school's older pupils.

She explained that the children, all orphans, were too old for legal adoption, but were boys and girls who would welcome and respond to good home surroundings. In return for the cost of furnishing a home, persons who took the children for the next few years could reasonably expect considerable home service from them.

Mrs. White urges residents here

Mrs. W. F. Johnson and daughter, Miss Lella Johnson, returned yesterday from Nelscott where they have been spending the summer months.

Miss Evangeline Johns returned home from Portland last evening, where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Lillian Cadwell has returned from a ten day vacation in Seattle.

Demos to Gather From all Parts of Valley on Sunday

Residents of all sections of the Willamette valley will gather at Silverton on Sunday for the Roosevelt picnic. Speakers will include Marshal N. Dana, federal director for Oregon, Washington and Idaho; J. P. Lipscomb, Portland; Paul V. Maris, Oregon State college; H. B. VanDuzer, Portland; Lynn P. Cronmiller, state forester, and William P. Ellis, Salem. W. A. DeZell will act as master of ceremonies.

The picnic is being held under the direction of the Mason county democratic organization, of which John S. Marshall is chairman.
