bank here. The remaining assets and liabilities of the local bank would be turned over to a liquidation corporation. It is understood, and this concern would collect the assets and disburse them to depositors.

Keith Powell said in line for manager who will manage the new branch here is not known, although it is said that Keith Powell, former president of the Woodburn bank and conservator of the First National here, would be named manager.

When the First National of Salem was put on a restricted basis here in March its deposits exceeded $1,000,000. The plan awaiting ratification at Washington would release fully $1,000,000 of this sum if public funds were included in the total.

The First National of Portland has been actively engaged since March extending branches throughout the state. Most recently established branches include those at Albany, Hillsboro and Astoria.

LILYAN TASHMAN BETTER

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—(AP)—After a 10-day fight against an attack of anemias, Lilyan Tashman, motion picture actress, will leave the Good Samaritan hospital tomorrow for her Beverly Hills home. Two blood transfusions operations were performed on the blonde screen player, but her physicians said she is now on the road to recovery.

STRIBLING K.O.'S ODELL

ROME, Ga., Aug. 29.—(AP)—W. L. Young Stribling pined all over Benny Odell, New York heavyweight, here tonight and knocked him out in the second round of their scheduled 10-round bout.

Ravaged by Maryland Hurricane

Two remarkable aerial pictures showing the extent of the recent hurricane in Maryland. At top a view from the outside world for many hours. Below, the Ocean City showing hundreds of summer homes, and beach houses turned into miniature islands by the encroaching sea water. The resort was cut off from the outside world for many hours. Below, the gap cut in one of the main bridges into Salisbury, Md., by wind and flood, which shut off communications.

SCHOOL BUSES NOT FAVORED AT GROVE

MIDDLE GROVE, Aug. 29.—A meeting of taxpayers of the community to discuss and vote on the school bus issue for the last time, was called Monday night at the schoolhouse. The final vote was 52 against and 37 for transportation.

The Senior league dismissed regular Sunday evening services here in order that those who wished might go to the closing session of C. E. Conference at Turner. Those attending were Laura and Lucille Crane, Lola Hammer, Katherine Scharf, Edwin Hughey, Harry Scharf and Marion Phillips.

Competitive Exam Announced; 5 Men To Receive Jobs

Announcement was received at the Salem postoffice yesterday of the opening of competitive civil service examinations for five classes of employment, paying salaries ranging from $1020 to $1920. Examinations are for telephone lineman, machinist, mountain truck driver, compressor operator and powderman, and are solely to determine the experience and fitness of the applicants.

Examinations are to fill vacancies in Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington. Paul Miller, at the money order window of the local postoffice, is civil service secretary here.

MAN BEATS STAG TO DEATH

How a man beat a wild stag to death with his fists has just been reported from Cologne, Germany. It is the first case of an unarmed person winning a battle for life with one of the infuriated beasts. The man received only slight injuries about the hands and body. He was riding a motorcycle near Adenauer, in the Eifel district, when the savage stag raced after his machine and charged him. The cyclist was knocked to the ground, but scrambled to his feet in time to ward off another attack. In the long wrestle that followed he gripped the stag with his hands and beat it with his bare fists until it fell unconscious. It died within a few moments.

Chaos Marks Wake of Hurricane

Map above shows the stretch of Atlantic coastline swept by the hurricane that roared in from the Caribbean and joined up with a nor'easter off Cape Hatteras. The clash of the two winds diverted the course of the storm and saved New York from its full force. But cities and towns in Virginia, Maryland and New Jersey suffered terrific damage. At top is a scene in Laurel, Md., where floods did a terrific amount of damage, the water in many places rising to the rooftops. Lower photo shows a once-stately mansion at Virginia Beach, Va., undermined by waves and smashed beyond repair. It is estimated the total amount of damage done by the hurricane will exceed $100,000,000.

Choir Here Next Friday to Finish Its Big Itinerary

Word was received yesterday from Cameron Marshall that the Philharmonic choir of Willamette university will give its final concert after an extended two months tour to the Chicago Century of Progress exposition at the First Methodist church here this Friday night.

The concert here will be the 45th given since leaving Oregon the latter part of June, besides numerous programs on the radio a nation-wide, N. B. C. hook-up, WWAB, KYW, KSL, KTFI and others.

Acclaim has been given the Philharmonic choir wherever heard. The Chicago Tribune hailed the choir as being the finest small choir heard in Chicago in years.

Mrs. Goetz, 81, is Buried, Knox Butte

JEFFERSON, Aug. 29.—Funeral services were held in the Albany Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon, for Mrs. Christian Goetz, 81, who died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Calahan, one-half mile south of Jefferson. She had been ill for a number of years. Rev. E. C. Messerli, of the Lutheran church conducted the services.

Mrs. Goetz was born in Bavaria, Germany, September 6, 1852, and came to the United States when 17 years old. She first made her home in Buffalo, N. Y., and in 1883 she moved to South Dakota, coming to Oregon in 1891. October 2, 1870, she was married to M. Chaai Goetz at Buffalo, N. Y. Mrs. Goetz was a member of the Lutheran church at Albany.

She is survived by the following children: John Goetz of Albany, Michael Goetz of Roseburg, Leonard Goetz and Mrs. John Calahan of Jefferson. Her husband died in 1907. Interment was in the Knox Butte cemetery.

LOT AND STOEFFEN WIN BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 29.

(AP)—Any chance of the national doubles tennis championship falling into alien hands was removed today when the masterful George M. Lott, Jr., of Chicago, and the brilliant but erratic Lester Stoeffen of Los Angeles, gained the final round by noosing out Adrian Quist and Don Turnbull, the Australian Davis cup team, 6-4, 3-6, 7-9, 2-6, 11-9, in their interrupted semi-final match at Longwood.

5-CENT 'DEMAND' STRETCHES TO 20

Hop growers yesterday showed little concern over agitators' so-called demands for five cents per pound for picking and other items made by a few unemployed in session here Sunday.

Agitators who talk in terms of 5 cents per pound for picking don't know their hops, one grower pointed out. For it takes 50 pounds of fresh hops to make 12 pounds of dried hops—or in other words at five cents for picking, a pound of dried hops would cost more than 20 cents for picking alone.

A portion of the growers have their crop contracted for 18 cents, and one man in this county has a 14-cent contract.

Growers indicated that in past years they have been able to cope easily enough with any attempts at labor disturbances, and that they really anticipate little difficulty this year.

Investments Get More Funds Now

That the tide in business has turned and funds are now flowing back into investment channels is the belief of J. C. English, vice-president of Equitable Savings and Loan association, Portland, one of the largest concerns of the kind on the coast.

"During 1932, 50 per cent of all clients whose certificates matured, reinvested their funds with the company," said Mr. English. "This year in April the figure was 82 per cent; May 88 per cent and June 92 per cent. This is an expression not only of confidence in the company but easing of money stringency."

The Equitable, which is 42 years old, has as one of its directors, William S. Walton of this city. During its life the company has met its maturities promptly, and has not had to reduce dividends on its guaranteed certificates.

Deaths First in 13 Years

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—(AP)—J. H. Gayer, vice-president in charge of operations of the Southern Pacific railroad, said today the wreck of the crack Golden State limited caused the road's first fatalities in 13 years.

"Over this period we have carried safely 489,634,990 passengers without a single fatality up to January 1 last," he said.

RECALL MOVE FAILS MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29.

(AP)—A movement to recall Mayor Daniel W. Hoan, socialist who has headed the city government 17 years, collapsed today. After two days of hearing in county court over a petition for a recall election, Leonard A. Grass, president of the recall council backing the proposal withdrew it.

new conductor, who struggled for help through waist-deep water which flooded a concrete highway in spots.

He reported the accident to railroad officials, summoned physicians and nurses, and went back to the scene to help in rescue work.

Roads Almost Impassable As Help Rushes Out

Ambulances, motor cars and trucks soon were hurrying to the scene over almost impassable roads, men and women in the rescue party carrying first aid equipment from their homes.

Many of the passengers had clambered up the steep walls of the canyon or had sought safety from the swirling waters on the tops of partly submerged cars.

As the men and women from Tucuman discovered the injured they were wrapped in blankets or placed on boards and carefully hoisted up the steep embankment.

They were rushed here for treatment. The town, however, has only one hospital with 16 beds.

The most seriously injured were kept at the hospital, while the others were assigned to first aid wards established in Tucuman's two hotels and private homes.

As volunteer rescuers searched the scattered cars and murky waters for additional dead or injured, ambulances were on the way to the scene from points as distant as Amarillo, 125 miles away. A wrecker was sent from El Paso.

The engine was submerged in the deepest part of the ravine. On it rested the mail car. The baggage and mail cars were at a 45-degree angle to the tracks along the embankment.

The first passenger coach and a tourist sleeper were hurled crosswise in the arroyo bed. A club car and a standard sleeper were piled up on the opposite side of the stream bed.

Excessive Debts Pall On Economic Recovery, Banker Tells Kiwanis

Excessive debt—an old man of the sea which will not be downed—hangs over the economic picture today. Until it is reduced or assimilated a balanced, prosperous economy is not at hand. Such is the view of E. B. MacNaughton, president of the First National Bank of Portland, who spoke yesterday noon to Salem Kiwanians here.

MacNaughton said economic conflict brought the world war which in turn produced monumental, unassimilable debts. He outlined the successive collapse of European currencies because of debt and indicated America's abandonment of gold was caused by the same set of forces.

SUPPORT IS ASKED FOR D. A. V. SALE

Mayor Douglas McKay has designated September 6 and 7 forget-me-not days in Salem, and asks from the populace support for the Disabled Veterans who will conduct the flower sale. The proclamation:

"I, Douglas McKay, mayor of the city of Salem, do hereby designate September 6-7 as Forget-Me-Not days for the benefit of all Disabled American Veterans of the World War. It is my hearty wish that the city officials and the public in general render all possible assistance to this worthy cause, as these men gave up their health and are still suffering from their disabilities incurred in defense of their and our country.

"To the people of Salem, I wish that these two days be made a real Forget-Me-Not to show these boys that we are still with them the same as they were for us in 1917-1918."

Funeral Service Today in Seattle For Ed L. Mann

Ed L. Mann, 35, who was reared in this section, died Sunday at Seattle and funeral services will be held there this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. A. E. Wickert of Salem, a sister, was summoned and is here.

He leaves his widow, Violet, and an infant son, Edward, of Seattle; and another sister, Mrs. Carl Ingdahl of Oakland, Calif. Remains will be cremated.

Mr. Mann left here about 10 years ago.

BOX CODE DISCUSSED KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Aug. 29.

(AP)—Seven western states had representatives of lumber plants in attendance here today for discussion of application of the lumber code adopted at Washington under the NRA. The meeting, a formal session of the National Wooden Box association, deliberated chiefly on the wage section of the code, which provides different required minimums in the various sections of the United States.

LOCAL REALTORS GOING TO CONFAB

A general exodus of Salem real estate agents is expected September 11 when the first annual convention of the Oregon Association of Realty Boards will open at Portland. J. F. Ulrich, local realtor and president of the association, announced yesterday. The convention, to be held at the Multnomah hotel where the association was organized last year, will open at 9 a. m. and last for two days.

Among the outstanding features of the convention program will be half hour classes in salesmanship offered throughout both days under instruction of John Berge of Chicago, Ulrich said.

Speakers will include Glenn Williamson, secretary of the California realty association; H. E. Walter, assistant manager of the Oregon Home Owners' Loan corporation, of Portland; and either Carl Deigh or H. E. Van Duser, Oregon NRA administrator.

Dollar's Bumps Shown in Will In Probate Here

A local example of depreciation of the dollar outside the United States came to light yesterday when J. R. Buck filed a report in probate court as executor of the will of the late Theresa Arnold. Of the remainder of assets, $3056 was in dollars in a Canadian bank, the report shows. The present value of the dollars if exchanged into the American dollar is $2697, the report states.

The original estate was appraised at $6916, of which $4219 has been distributed, largely in gifts to individuals and to institutions.
