

VALLEY HOP WORK FULLY UNDER WAY

Many Employed at Dayton; Peach Picking Begins; Beans Harvested

RICKREALL, Sept. 4.—Hop picking will begin at the Mark Burch and George Carroll yards Tuesday, and at the William Middleton yard Wednesday. Burch's yard is just one acre and is picked by the Middleton crew. Carroll's yard has 70 acres and Middleton's yard has 19 acres.

DAYTON, Sept. 4.—Picking the early cluster hops in the 165 acre field of Ross Wood with a crew of more than 600 local people was completed Friday and picking the late ones will be started Tuesday. More than 77,000 pounds of hops were picked Thursday. One man, Ray Wirts, about 21, picked 342 pounds, and George Abdill, 13, in five hours picked 111 pounds.

There are six dry houses each 32 by 32 feet and each day's picking is completed when the dry house floor space is 26 inches deep with fresh hops. Charles Simler sowed the burial ends and weighed 96 bales, 200 pounds each, in nine hours Thursday.

Besides the pickers there are 50 day laborers engaged in the hop harvest at the Wood's yard. Modern sanitary hop yard camp facilities are furnished and a well equipped store is maintained on the ground by George Westfall of Unionvale. The same general conditions are in progress in all Dayton hop yards.

BROOKS, Sept. 4.—Romeo Gouley started his late hop picking Thursday. Picking in the Homer Gouley yard started Friday, and picking in the Dunlavy yard will start about September 11.

Threshing in this community is practically finished. Several of the farmers are baling their oat straw. Grain yield here was very good, some of the oat fields yielding as high as 100 bushels to the acre.

Jarl Asplnwall will start picking his Crawford peaches this week. Other varieties of peaches will follow the close of the Crawford harvest.

LYONS, Sept. 4.—This past week finished the bean picking in most of the West Dayton yards. Quite a number of Lyons' people were employed there the past three weeks, several of whom left for the hop yards near Salem and other points Sunday.
