DEAN MAADT OTIFFFD BUTTER IS STEAD

PORTLAND, Sept. 8 .- (AP)-Local butter market looked fully steady with a good retail movement making an active demand on supplies. Receipts were somewhat more liberal and some short held stuff was offered but all supplies were being readily absorbed. All other coast markets were steady at unchanged prices. The egg market appeared firm for the day. Receipts of larger sizes have fallen off somewhat while pullets and mediums were more liberal. Top quality fresh stuff was in demand and the quality generally has been somewhat better.

The peach deal took on no new developments. Prices were unchanged and supplies are but noderately reduced. The market appeared taking all receipts locally. Prices on tomatoes were unchanged quotable at 35 to 40c. Receipts of quality stuff were somewhat better. Advances in ideas of growers have stiffened the primary dry onion market and asking prices were somewhat higher at Portland. The demand was somewhat

SPECULATORS REGAIN CONFIDENCE TENDENCY OF

Demand Less Pronounced But Above Average Volume of Business Done

BOSTON, Sept. 8. - (AP)-The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "Although the demand for wool was less pronounced this week to when they would emerge from than during either of the two preceding weeks, it is apparent that more than an average volmoderately and steels looked a ume of business has been done; little better than of late, but rails possibly ten million pounds, at eased, infuenced, perhaps, by a prices fully up to the top of a six point drop in Union Pacific. week ago. The price tendency. is, if anything, against the buyer.

"Reports from the piece goods markets indicate continuing interest in both staple men's wear Gas, Chrysler, Union Carbide, lines and also in dress goods and cloakings. Spinners and combers Seaboard Oil, Sears Roebuck, and have had a good business in the last three weeks. "Foreign markets keep very firm. Opening values at Sydney have been maintained this week and Adelaide has opened about on parity with the Sydney sale, prices at both selling centers being above the parity of domestic wool in this market,

"Mohair is rather slow in this market. Shearing is progressing in the southwest. Reports are current that 33 cents for adult and 43 cents for kid hair have been refused in Arizona." The Commercial Bulletin will publish the following quotations:
