

UNIVERSITY READY FOR AUTUMN TERM

Freshman Week Opens Sept. 18th; Placement Tests First on Program

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 13.—Activities in preparation for the opening of the fall term are in progress in all departments of the University of Oregon, and new and returning students will find not only improvements and repairs in many campus buildings, but adjustments and refinements in curricula offerings, it was stated here today by Mr. Earl M. Fallett, executive secretary and registrar.

Pre-registrations of first year students are now coming in rapidly. Indications are that return of old students will be normal, and may even exceed that of last year, due to better economic conditions in many parts of the state. Registration of graduate and special students already exceeds that of last year.

Plans have been completed for "freshman week," six busy days during which new students will be "oriented" or neatly fitted into the scheme of things here. This week, which opens Monday, September 18, will precede the regular opening of classes, which is set for Monday, September 25.

Into "freshman week" will be a series of conferences, physical and psychological examinations, English placement tests, and all the hustle and bustle of "rush week," that period when fraternities and sororities invite the new students to look them over for "pledge" material. Careful planning by those in charge, however, will make it possible for every student to get careful attention to individual as well as general problems.

Monday and Tuesday of the week will be devoted to physical, psychological and English placement tests, and Dr. Fallett emphasizes the fact that new students should be here on time for these examinations. These tests are important, not only to those who will have charge of the students, but to the student himself, it is pointed out. Registration material will be given out Thursday and registration will take place Friday.

Name Committee At Silverton On Wheat Control

SILVERTON, Sept. 13.—Dr. A. W. Simmons was elected chairman of the Silverton district wheat control committee at a Marion county wheat control meeting held at the senior high school Wednesday afternoon. M. G. Gunderson and Henry Jacquet were made the other two members of the committee.

Dr. Simmons will also serve as director from this district on the county board. The committee will pass on the farms in regard to eligibility to wheat bonus. It will help farmers in filling out applications and give information concerning the scheme. H. A. Lindgren, assistant in charge of wheat control in Marion county and acting as chairman of the Wednesday meeting, said that while it was not definitely known or agreed upon yet, it was likely that the committeemen would receive some compensation for their work. Mrs. Leah Dell Collins of Salem acted as secretary to Mr. Lindgren.

Mr. Lindgren and Mrs. Collins will be at Silverton at the Coolidge and McClaine bank on September 29 from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning to assist wheat growers in filling out the wheat warrants.

Hooker Picks Up Escapee From Salem

DALLAS, Sept. 13.—Jimmie Moore, an escapee from the feeble minded school at Salem, was picked up here Tuesday by Sheriff T. B. Hooker and returned to the school. He had escaped Monday night and caught a freight train into Dallas early Tuesday morning. He was picked up here as soon as he appeared on the streets.

Red Cross Head To Visit Salem

Oregon chapters of the American Red Cross will be represented here Tuesday when their delegates meet to hear various speakers and to plan their work for the coming year. They will hold a luncheon at the Marion hotel at noon in conjunction with the meeting of the Kiwanis club. Among the conference speakers will be James L. Fieser of Washington, D. C., second highest official of the national organization.

SEEKS RETURN OF DOWN PAYMENT

Suit for $2500 with interest from August 21, 1933, was filed here late Wednesday by Abe Kinspell of Portland against Alex Goldstein, Army and Navy store proprietor, 279 North Commercial street, Salem. Kinspell demands the money on the grounds that Goldstein failed to perform as agreed under a contract for sale of his store to the plaintiff. The contract was made August 21, 1933, it is alleged, with $2500 made as a down payment and $4500 provided for when the transaction was completed.

Plaintiff contends that numerous misrepresentations were made to him by the vendor. He alleges Goldstein told him he had a two-year lease at $65 a month, whereas plaintiff contends his audit showed there was no lease. He asserts Goldstein said he did $35,000 gross business in 1932 and that this figure is far too large. Kinspell also alleges that one of the conditions of the sale was that the original cost of the goods plus freight and drayage to Salem was to be paid by him with $400 as a flat sum for fixtures. Kinspell alleges that Goldstein was not frank in the matter of cost and refused to use invoices as had been agreed upon. The entire stock of the store, plaintiff alleges, was claimed by Goldstein to be clean, merchantable and in good order. Instead it was in many instances old and incomplete, Kinspell says.

Firemen Hiring Ineligibles Say Commissioners

Although under civil service, the city fire department has a list of eligible substitute men, firemen have been hiring men not on the list to take their places during leaves of absence, a report of a special civil service commission meeting held Tuesday and filed with the city recorder yesterday indicates. The minutes of the meeting contain an order to Fire Chief Harry Hutton only to permit men from the official eligible list to serve as substitutes. The order is backed by a ruling of City Attorney Kowitz holding this to be the legal procedure.
