Arm is Injured By Pitchfork

JEFFERSON, Sept. 13.—Dick Hampton, who was employed at the Durbin-Cornoyer hopyard sustained an injury to his arm, and had to return home. He was at the barn, and threw the barnyard fork up into his arm, but it didn't stay, and fell down again. He threw his arm up to keep the

Gladly we cooperate with President Roosevelt and pledge ourselves to live up to the spirit and the letter of the National Recovery Act. We have reduced working hours in all departments at no loss of pay to any employee. As a matter of fact, all through the depression we have maintained wages at the 1929 level. Our employees have not suffered from cuts, layoffs or shut downs.

FLAVOR YOU'LL LOVE... and EXTRA BENEFITS too!

Feel a little lolly, low spirited, not quite "up to things"? Begin now to have delicious Post's 40% Bran Flakes (with other parts of wheat) every morning. It provides the bulk most systems need—bulk so many diets lack. Thus it helps to prevent constipation, due to lack of bulk in the diet... an often unsuspected condition that may lead to headaches, low energy, "blues."

Neither have we reduced our advertising. During 1933 we plan to use approximately 9,000,000 lines of newspaper space. 30,000,000 booklets will be distributed from house to house, covering every state in the Union.

Latest sales reports show that the year to date is 14% ahead of last year. We do appreciate the evidence of the confidence of the American people in the Post's products.

Push Preparations For Harvest Event At West Stayton

WEST STAYTON, Sept. 13.—Last minute preparations are being taken care of during the few days which remain before the harvest festival here, next Saturday. All vegetables are to be on the grounds, at the school house, by 11 o'clock on Friday, while the 11 o'clock stock are given until about nine o'clock the following morning. Several men are busy putting up the tents and building the booths for the displays. Larger and better displays are expected this year than were had last year.

Same Teachers At Labish Center; Night Onion Pick

LABISH CENTER, Sept. 13.—School bells will beckon the children of this district back to school again next Monday morning. Last year's teachers have been retained. Miss Emma McClaughry having the upper grades, and Charlotte G. Jones the lower. The schoolhouse has undergone a number of improvements during the summer. Nearly all onions in this district have been pulled now and a few growers with a crop can easily be now engaged in hauling the cured onions into storage houses. On the Hayes place onions are being picked up at night starting at midnight. It is thought that the onions will keep better through this practice, as the tops do not break off when they are slightly damp, and that will prevent the onions from packing too tightly in the storage bins. A portable lighting system is used. Willard Hornschuch left late
