

BEARCATS WILL REPORT TODAY

Only Four Lettermen Given Suits, but More Will Come Next Monday

Only four lettermen and three reserves from last year's squad applied for suits when equipment was issued to football candidates at Willamette university Thursday. That would make excellent material for a record-breaking year, but Coach "Spec" Keene is not yet ready to predict dire disaster for his Bearcats this season.

Some of the boys donned their suits and limbered up Thursday afternoon on Sweetland field, but formal practice will not get under way until this morning, when a two-day schedule will be in order until the day before the opening game with Oregon State, a week from tomorrow.

The reason "Spec" uttered no moans on seeing the extent of his experienced material to date, was that he was forewarned that most of the veterans would not arrive until about next Monday, and as for the Corvallis contest, that's nothing in his life but another workout looking ahead to what will be the serious business of the season, the Northwest conference race.

The lettermen who received mosekins yesterday, all backfield men, are George Cannady, Eddie Frantz, Johnny Oravec and Pete Gretsch, the latter a member of the 1932 team here who was at Oregon Normal last year. The reserves from last year's team are Frank Haley, quarterback; Bill Tull, lineman and Al Pietila, end. One additional upperclassman, Rex Pemberton, who will try for a backfield berth, is on hand.

Among the freshmen, two familiar surnames appear, Cranor and Versteeg. Alva Cranor from West Linn is a brother of Garnie Cranor who played four years for Willamette ending in '29, and Charles Versteeg of McMinnville is a cousin of John Versteeg, tackle on the 1928-'27 Willamette teams.

Other candidates, about whose ability little may be learned until practice is well under way, include Darrel Newhouse, a tackle aspirant from Gardibaldi; Harold Hoyt, La Grande boy who played for Eastern Oregon Normal last year; Dwight Aden of West Linn, Fred Carlson of Eugene, Ronald Crossland of Union, F. E. Esteb, Roy Ferris of Arlington, William McAdams of Palmdale, Calif., Donald Mills from St. Benedict preparatory school, New Jersey, Sherwood Nicholas from Roseburg, Willis Noel of Portland, James Sehon of Salem, William Stone of junior baseball fame from Oregon City, and Robert Vagt, center of the Tillamook high school basketball team which was in the state tournament here last March.

Somerville Dethroned, One Veteran and Three Youths Stay in U. S. Amateur Race

By ALAN GOULD

KENWOOD COUNTRY CLUB, Cincinnati, O., Sept. 14.—(AP)—The forward surge of American golfing youth brought the national amateur golf championship back home today as William Lawson Little, Jr., of San Francisco, son of a United States army colonel, dethroned C. Ross "Sandy" Somerville of Canada.

As the climax to a day of astounding golf, punctuated by a cloudburst that nearly washed the competitors off the Kenwood course, the 23-year-old western star eliminated the defending champion, 2 and 1 in their 36-hole quarter-final match.

Little's victory furnished the crowning upset as three American youths, averaging less than a 22 years old, fought their way into the semi-final round along with a sole survivor of the "old guard."

Max R. Marston, 41-year-old ex-champion, from Philadelphia, who held the title in 1922, alone withstood the youthful onslaught as he conquered Sidney W. Noyes, Jr., of New York, former Yale star, one up, in a spectacular match that went to the 38th hole for a decision.

Marston's comeback will carry him into the semi-finals tomorrow against 18-year-old Jack Munger, of Dallas, Texas. Munger sprang the day's second major surprise by defeating Jack Sweetland of Chicago, 1931 runner-up, 3 and 1.

Little's semi-final opponent will be George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, the Walker cup star.

Experience vs. Youth Gets Test; Clingman Billed Against Bulldog

A clean-cut issue regarding the relative merits of experienced or—middle age and raring, tearing youth with all its speed and enthusiasm, is presented in the main event of Herb Owen's wrestling show at the West Salem American Legion arena tonight.

Owen declares that this attraction, bringing together Henry Jones who has held most of the welterweight and middleweight titles in circulation, and Mickey McGuire, West Salem's up-and-coming youngster, is the best bout he has been able to schedule for West Salem this season, and he looks for a record crowd.

McGuire has been coming along rapidly in recent weeks, winning his last several bouts in rapid succession. His stock went up to a new high last Friday when he staged a phenomenal rally to defeat Dorry Detton just when his case seemed hopeless.

Fans are predicting freely that "Bulldog" Jackson will get his "redin" tonight, for he is scheduled to meet Otis Clingman, outstanding middleweight who tossed Jack Mitchell in straight falls last week.

Herb Burgeson, recent convert from the amateur ranks, and Jesse McCann of Portland, brother of the "Wildcat," will clash in the opening bout.

CURT COMMENTS

Baseball season is over, as far as this vicinity is concerned, and now the "stove league" blossoms forth—and what do you suppose is the first large rumor floating around?

Why, no less than prospects for a new park for the Salem Senators next season. True, such a thing has been talked before and didn't eventuate. But the West Salem American Legion boys, who make things happen, are talking this time. The idea as we get it, is to build a park along Wallace Road just beyond where their open air arena is now; there's a field available, needing little grading or conditioning.

The West Salem post figures on getting active in junior ball, but the Senators would play there if the park is built. Manager Frank Bashor seems receptive to the idea.

A park in that location would be highly accessible, and a park built primarily for baseball, with stands in the right position to see the game without squinting into the sun, ought to be popular with the fans; while a park with non-transparent fences on four sides should be popular with the management.

Even if the baseball season is over, the kitball season isn't unless Jupe Pluvius so declares. Sunday afternoon on Olinger field the two games that were to have been played at last Sunday's picnic are rescheduled—the first all-star team vs. the second all-stars of the city league at 2 o'clock, married men vs. single men at 3 or thereabouts.

Stiner Expects 18 Lettermen To Form Nucleus of Orange Squad

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 14.—Approximately fifty football men will report here Saturday, the opening day of football practice for Pacific coast conference teams. Lon Stiner, new Orange coach, is expecting 18 lettermen back to form the nucleus of his squad.

Although regular ends, tackles and guards of last year are lost through graduation or the three year rule, Coach Stiner says he will have a well balanced line. Lack of reserve strength for every position and the loss of Hal day's picnic are rescheduled—the first all-star team vs. the second all-stars of the city league at 2 o'clock, married men vs. single men at 3 or thereabouts.

We have no interest one way or the other in this new secret society flurp at the high school, but we only hope they get it straightened out, either squelch the societies for good or admit it can't be done, before it wrecks morale and spoils a couple more sport seasons.
