

BALLOT ON SCHOOL BUDGET SATURDAY

WOODBURN, Sept. 20.—Indications are that there will be a good crowd on hand at the Lincoln grade school Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when the annual school budget will be submitted to the taxpayers. All taxpayers in this school district are entitled to attend and voice their sentiments.

The budget was made up by a special committee made up of George Landon, Ray Glatt and Niek Serres in cooperation with the school board of Paul Mills, E. J. Allen and Henry Chapelle. Frank Proctor is school clerk.

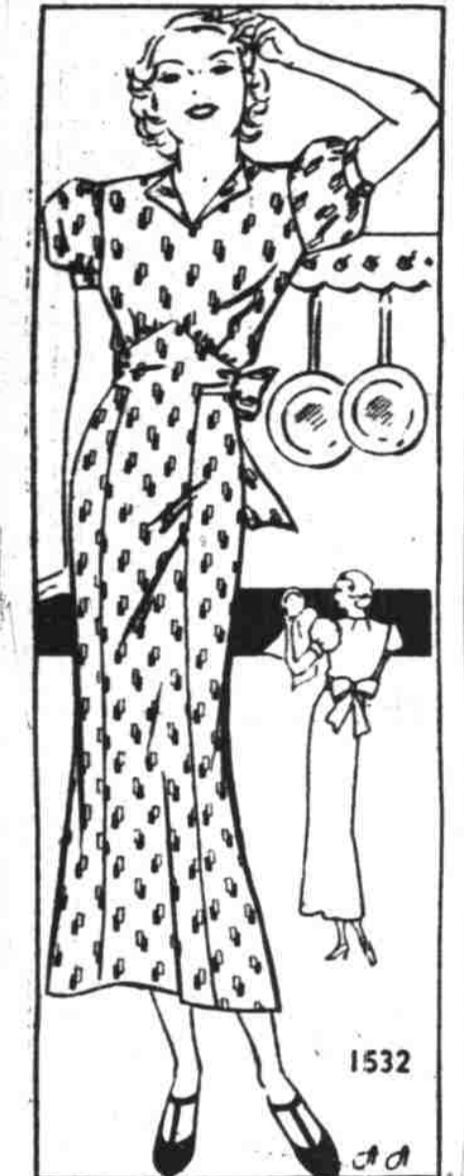

Willis Thurman, who attended Willamette university last year, has a job on one of the McCormick steamships running between the United States' Pacific coast and South American ports.

Parochial Classes Show Increase Over This Time in 1932

SILVERTON, Sept. 20.—St. Paul's school, which opened Monday morning at Silvertown, had a registration of 58 by the close of the second day. This is six more than were registered here last year at the same time. Two of the groups are from the country and are boarding at the school.

Sister Olivette reports 12 piano and violin students in the music department. Teaching the first to the eighth grades, are Sister DePaul and Sister Ulricha.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Busy as you are, you can always make your house frocks attractive, and because these patterns are so simple and delightful to work with, you can fashion this pretty model in just a few spare hours. What adorable details... perky sleeves, flattering reverses, slender waistline seaming and skirt panels. Try it in a gay cotton print!

Pattern 1532 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instruction included with this.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

THE ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK features a charming collection of afternoon, sports, golf, tennis, dresses, jumpers, house frocks, special beginners' patterns, styles for juniors, and lovely clothes for youngsters, and instructions for making a chic sweater. SEND FOR YOUR COPY. PRICE OF CATALOG FIFTEEN CENTS. CATALOG AND PATTERNS TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Address order to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Department, 248 West 17th St., New York City.

See Our Windows Tonight!

FALL OPENING

It is with a great deal of pride that we offer to the women of Salem and the surrounding territory the very latest styles in 1933 Fall ready to wear. The coats are fashioned along the slender lines—dresses are both silk and wool, and satins lend themselves admirably to the flat crepes as a back ground. You will like the new hats too. In fact we are enthused beyond words—better come in.

Milady's Shop
415 STATE ST.
Between Capital Drug and Woolworth's

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday, September 21

Chapter G, P. E. O., meets with Mrs. F. J. Toose, 186 Mill St., 1:30 for dessert luncheon.

Ladies Aid of Woman's Relief Corps all day meeting, Fairgrounds building, covered dish luncheon at noon.

Woman's Benefit association regular meeting, 8 p. m., Woman's club house.

Friday, September 22

Regular meeting of Barbara Fritchle camp No. 9, Daughters of Union Veterans, woman's club house, 8 p. m. Practice for colors and guide, 7 p. m.

Girl Reserve advisors meeting, Y. W. C. A., 2 p. m.

Three Link club meets in club rooms, Odd Fellows hall, business and social afternoon. All Rebekahs invited to attend.

W.W.G. of First Baptist church, at home of Mrs. F. M. White, 7:30 p. m.

Neighbors of Woodcraft regular meeting, 8 p. m., fraternal temple.

Monthly party of Women's Bible class, First M. E. church, home of Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, 165 S. 15th, 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. Charles J. Rice Is Chosen President of Woodburn W. C. T. U.

Frances Ethel Barber and Marshall Snyder of Marion Take Wedding Vows

Woodburn.—Mrs. Charles J. Rice was chosen new president of the Woodburn chapter of the W. C. T. U. at the annual election held recently at the home of Mrs. Carrie Young and Miss Ina Bonney. Other officers chosen were Mrs. R. A. Trullinger, vice-president; Mrs. J. R. Landon, recording secretary; Mrs. Ivan C. Beers, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. W. D. Simmons, treasurer. Mrs. Landon, Mrs. Beers, and Mrs. Simmons were all re-elected.

At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Rice will appoint all the standing committees for the year. There will also be election of delegates to the state convention which is to be held in Portland, October 17 to 20.

Marion.—Frances Ethel Barber was united in marriage to Marshall Snyder at the Presbyterian parsonage in Vancouver, Washington, September 16. They were attended by Leland E. Bassett and Julia E. Shepard of Salem, who were also wedded at the same time.

Both parties are well known here. Mr. Snyder is the son of Mrs. C. A. Geary, and Mrs. Barber the youngest daughter of Mr.

NEWCOMERS LIST QUITE EXTENSIVE

Current list of Salem newcomers, as published by the chamber of commerce, contains the following names and places where located:

O. A. Lysne, route 9; A. B. Searle, 935 Madison; Ole E. Jensen, route 7, box 177; C. D. Kuntz, 1900 North Commercial; John H. Brady, 940 Parrish; Lloyd Johnson, 375 Patterson; Mrs. Sam F. Harlow, 656 North 20th; Sol Polin, 291 North Commercial; Case Pettinger, 1574 Mill; Sam Farmer, 955 Tamarack; John Shaignot; 1364 Mission; Elmer R. Robens, 442 North Water; Eugene Pixler, 720 North Commercial; Agnes Creann, 1795 Berry.

Cecil Gall, 370 South 19th; Mrs. Jessie Fay, 806 Thompson; Florence Andrews, 1670 South Summer; Susie J. Lyman, 1590 South Church; Frank C. Van Dyke, 1080 North Church; J. L. Conover, 1105 Mission; G. E. LaRue, 551 North 19th; Charles Hunt, 1310 South 12th; Leo P. Dunn, 465 Rose; Martin Mann, 148 West Wilson; Forrest C. West, 348 North 12; Vernon Vohlman, 1197 Chemeketa; Joe Pound, 1498 Court; Wm. McEachern, 942 North Summer; George Kantaros, 882 Highland.

L. T. Stanley, 185 North 24th; Ray E. Myers, 1000 North Capitol; Ed Wright, 1845 North Summer; D. D. Stettl, 2325 North Commercial; L. Neal Dow, 607 North Capitol; Louis Crawford, 655 South Commercial; J. V. Hedeen, 2450 West Nob Hill; Reed Wattenberger, 255 East Lefelle; Clarence A. Parker, 2505 State; A. A. Brant, 1130 North Capitol; Vernon Fry, 1854 North Winter; Oliver Hayes, 424 North 23rd; A. W. Christiansen, 1597 Lee.

OPEN COZY SATURDAY

SILVERTON, Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Toney, new proprietors of The Cozy, plan to open Saturday and are completely redecorating and remodeling the interior at the present time.

SUPPLY OF SORGHUM CANE MUCH LOWER

WEST STAYTON, Sept. 20.—Sorghum cane is not as plentiful here this year as it was last year. Henry Crane, maker of sorghum of many years' experience, says the cane is not maturing so well this season because of the peculiar season this year. Crane plans to make the sorghum again this fall and operate the plant by a motor instead of horsepower as used heretofore.

Grade School Opens

The grade school here opened Monday with A. W. J. Bestvater, principal; Miss Riches, intermediate room, and Miss Butcher, primary room, as teachers. There are 76 pupils enrolled, showing a slight decrease in the upper three grades, over last year's first day.

H. O. Webb and family, parents of Mrs. Fred Browning, have arrived here by motor from Dodge City, Kan., where they have been residing for many years. The Webbs intend to settle somewhere near here or at least to stay in Oregon. When asked if they intended to stay here they answered, "Yes, if we can make a living here. That is more than we could do in Kansas."

Early Attendance Parochial School Showing Decrease

MT. ANGEL, Sept. 20.—St. Mary's school, which opened Monday with a registration of 56 students less than the first day last year. A total of 285 pupils were enrolled. It is thought, however, that quite a few children are still picking hops and will report later. The primary rooms

Let Miller's Show You the Way to Your New Fall Complexion!

Every woman wants to change her summer complexion for the new fall one... she wants to do this safely and painlessly. Colonial Dames beauty aids, made of the purest ingredients, offers the best and safest way.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Alice Guyer, Mrs. Katherine Olson and Mrs. Aline Beers.

Sixty members of the First Presbyterian church gathered Tuesday night at the church for a potluck dinner and social evening. Plans for social events throughout the year were made and a short program presented.

Colonial Dames

Miss Evelyn Courchane, Colonial Dames specialist, will give courtesy facials at Miller's all this week. Come have Miss Courchane outline a course of beauty aids for your complexion, we feel sure you will be repaid many times over for the few minutes spent here. Phone 3179 Main Floor. Or make an appointment while in the store.

to wear with pride - FALL SHOES

Higher Cut
New Contrasts
Taupe, Browns
and Black

The shoes that make the season—presented for you in our finer suedes, leathers and other novelties. Truly remarkable shoes—and so reasonably priced.

Buster Brown Shoe Store

HARVEST OF PRUNES STARTS, JEFFERSON

JEFFERSON, Sept. 20.—Prune picking started Monday in the orchards in this vicinity. R. C. Thomas is installing blowers in his dryer, which will lessen the time for drying the green prunes. W. J. Looney is not operating his prune dryer this year, and his prunes are taken to Dallas by truck. Looney-Allen have a big crop of prunes in their orchard three miles west of town, and they started their dryer with a full crew Monday morning. The rain injured the windfalls somewhat, but the prunes are of good size and full of sugar.

Mrs. Chas. Loveland entertained with a dinner Sunday, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnold and son.

Mrs. C. A. Gibson, who has been ill for some time is spending a week at the home of her daughter, in Salem. It is reported that she is improving.

CLASSES TO OPEN 25TH AT 'VALLEY

SPRING VALLEY, Sept. 20.—The Spring Valley school will open September 25 with Mrs. Jesse Sohn of Independence the teacher. This will be her third year.

Fall Opening

And what an opening—the most wonderful array of fall wearables for the women who want and expect really fine garments without paying an exorbitant price. We are all ready for the drawing of the curtains on Salem's Fall Opening.

DRESSES

Silk dresses of flat crepe contrasted with satin prompts one to remark—"Ah, when the dullness meets the shine, it's Fall of 1933"

SILK HOSE

FALL'S NEW SHADES

Smoke Tone	Tally-Ho	Snuff Brown
Biscayne	Taupe Mist	Smoke Brown
Neutral Taupe	Dark Taupe	Fall Brown

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Alderman have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alderman and Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Alderman and Mrs. Wm. Alderman's sister, all of Walla Walla.

Mrs. Seymour Wilson left Portland Sunday night on route to Laramie, Wyoming, where she will be joined by her sister, Miss Evangeline Jennings and from there they will go to Chicago to the Century of Progress Fair.

Many families have now returned from the hop yard and are ready to begin work at the prune orchards. Fall plowing and discing has also begun throughout this vicinity.

Fall Seed Grains

A complete stock of Re-cleaned Fall Oats, Fall Wheat, Fancy Common Vetch Seed, Mixed Vetch Seed, Mixed Gray Oats and Vetch, Re-cleaned Cheat Seed, Fall Rye, etc.

GRASS SEEDS

A complete line of Orchard Grass (Domestic Rye Grass, Timothy, Red Top, Mesquite, Red, Alsike, White and Ladine Clovers, Sweet Clover, Alfalfa and Pasture Mixtures.

All our grains and seeds are re-cleaned in first class shape and the best quality on the market.

D.A. White & Sons

Phone 4952 261 State St. Salem, Ore.

COATS

This year the furs are extremely fine—never have we seen such luxurious pelts on coats that are to sell for so little. The materials are right in keeping too, which makes this showing an outstanding one for Salem.

FALL HATS

With the N.R.A. comes many new "adjustments". The one pictured is along the military line and is just one of a hundred different styles to be shown here this Fall.

SHIPLEY'S