

Walter McCredie to Manage Portland Ducks Next Season

Grid Double Header Under Lights Program Here for Saturday Night

BOSSED OUTFIT PRIOR TO 1921

Veteran Glad to Return to Wars; Promises Team With Real Color

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Walter H. McCredie, veteran baseball player and manager, will return to the management of the Portland baseball club next year after an absence of 13 years. Thomas L. Turner, president of the Portland club, announced tonight that gray-haired McCredie has been appointed manager of the 1934 destinies of the Beavers to succeed Spencer Abbott, who recently announced his resignation.

McCredie was manager of the Portland club from 1904 through 1921, during which time his teams won five Pacific coast championships and were near the top on several other occasions. He left Portland to join Frank Navin as baseball scout for the Detroit Tigers. After several years in that position, he managed the Seattle club for a season, then took over the same position with the Vernon Tigers. After another season with the Detroit team, he resigned, and for the past two years has lived in Portland.

Frankly elated at the chance of returning actively to baseball, McCredie stated tonight:

"I have accepted the offer of Mr. Turner with pleasure because it is hard for any other person to understand. The Portland Beavers have always been my favorite team, and though I have seen hundreds of players pass through my ranks, I am certain that my coming tenure will be as pleasant as my associations with these players."

"It is yet too early to predict what kind of a team we will place in the field next season, but many friends and the thousands of local fans can be assured that it will be a counterpart of the clubs that were known as real fighters, and had some of the greatest names in baseball history as part of their ranks."

Parrish Gridmen Out; No Schedule Arranged So Far

With a squad of 33 lads' ambitions to learn the gridiron art on hand, Coach Harold Hauk of Parrish Junior high has started daily workouts for the season. At present he is handicapped by lack both of experienced men and of known competition. No games have so far been scheduled, and junior high, which will support football teams this fall are few and far between.

Hoffert, halfback on last year's squad, and Hughey, who saw some action, are the only players on hand with any junior high experience.

Keene Fears Stag's Fate

It's great to be a graceful loser, as witness Amos Alonzo Stagg, "grand old man" of football, shown here congratulating Coach Larry Wolfe of Oregon Normal after the Wolves had defeated Stagg's College of the Pacific eleven in Portland last Friday night. It's not so hard for Stagg, whose teams have been beaten by much more famous coaches than Wolfe. But "Spec" Keene, who saw all this happen in Portland, doesn't want to be photographed in the same role with Stagg after the Willamette Bearcats meet the Wolves here Saturday night, and he is making strenuous preparations this week to avoid it.

Gervais Has Tough Game For Opener

GERVAIS, Sept. 27.—The opening game of the football season will be played with the Banks team on the high school field Friday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. A brand new team will have its opportunity to show how football is to be played this year, as a number of new players will appear on the team.

Among them are Jefferson, Colby, Short, Lelack, Lescher, Tedder, Hart, Runcorn, Phillips and Francis. Lettermen who are showing up well are Schwab, Smith, Henney, Riggs, Kuhn, Schomus and Bliven. As Captain-elect Lemery has not turned out, the team will be led by an appointed captain for this game.

Banks lost only two games last year to Hillsboro and Columbia Peppers, and one game this year to Scappoose so is well prepared to add the scalp of Gervais to its belt. But Gervais has a bit of tradition to uphold in that it has not been defeated by a single team on the home field. This promises to be a hard-fought battle and should draw a large crowd of spectators.

The probable lineup for Gervais is: Schomus RE, Lelack RT, Lescher RG, Jefferson C, Short LG, Bliven LT, Colby LE, Heney LG, Schwab LH, Riggs RH, and Smith or Kuhn, P.

Men of Troy Out to Defend National Honors

"National football champions." And here are a few of the charges of Coach Howard Jones of University of Southern California who will be called upon this year to support a reputation of superiority. Homer Griffith, quarterback, is the kicking figure at top. Irvine (Cotton) Warburton, a dangerous ball carrier, is packing the ball. Right, reading from top to bottom, George Lay, right tackle; Bob Erskine, left tackle; Aaron Rosenberg, left guard, and Curtis Youell, center. Bottom row, left, Gordon Clark, fullback; center, Ford Palmer, captain and right end.

SALEM-ALUMNI GAME CHANGED

Reserves use O. N. S. Plays And Bearcats Find Them Difficult to Stop

Something new, but not under the sun—a football double header last night—is planned here for Saturday. Arrangements were completed Wednesday between Don Coons, manager of Salem high sports, to hold the Salem high-alumni game at 6:30 Saturday night on Sweetland field. This contest to be followed at 8 o'clock by the Willamette-Oregon Normal game. There will be no increase in the admission price and high school students will upon identifying themselves, be admitted for 25 cents.

The high school-alumni game will be limited to 10-minute quarters which probably will prove sufficient for the old grads in view of their lack of training, so that it should be completed easily in an hour and a half.

Meanwhile Coach "Spec" Keene of the Bearcats has greeted the last wanderer from his fold, Manfred "Ole" Olson, regular full-back last year, and set about the work of preparing to stop the Wolves' deceptive attack. A squad of reserves was tutored in Oregon Normal plays the first part of the week and Wednesday afternoon this group trotted them out and, to Keene's consternation, was able to make yardage almost at will against the regulars.

To make the simulation complete, the assistant coaches in charge of the "sheep in Wolves' clothing" coached a left handed passer, Rex Pemberton, in the role of Harry Scroggins, the Teachers' southpaw flinger. Pemberton's tosses went for good gains several times, including one to Johnny Steelhammer, who played for Oregon Normal at one time, for a touchdown.

Keene has announced that his squad will work out against the O. N. S. plays the remaining two days of practice, in the hope that after becoming more familiar with them the "sucky stuff" can be stopped.

Olson, reporting after a trip to his home in Colorado, looked bigger than ever but like Weisser who appeared Monday, he will scarcely be in condition to play Saturday.

WOODBURN HUNTERS GET SHARE OF DEER

WOODBURN, Sept. 27.—L. R. Gilbert and Walter Erwin returned early Tuesday morning from southern Oregon. Each brought home two nice black-tail deer. They hunted in the region near Pistol River and Gold Beach. Erwin left immediately for Portland, his home, after having come to Woodburn with Gilbert.

C. R. Duncan and his son Willis brought home venison Monday after having spent several days hunting in eastern Oregon. Willis bagged a beautiful mule deer that weighed 240 pounds after it had been dressed. The horn-spread on the animal was 27 and a half inches.

Frank Pavelek, Joe Nathanman Jr., and Lawrence Nathanman were hunting in the Ochoco National forest in southeastern Oregon. They returned home without game, but said they saw many deer.

DALLAS MEN KILL DEER IN JIG TIME

DALLAS, Sept. 27.—Al Cadle and Fred Auer returned here Tuesday from a hunting trip near Oak Ridge and brought four fine deer with them. Both men got their limit on their opening hunt of the season. Two of the deer were five-point bucks and the others were three-point. All four weighed around 150 pounds. They were blacktails, as they were killed this side of the Cascades. The trip to this part of the country is an annual affair with the two men and they seldom fail to get their game at Oak Ridge.

Auer had a unique experience when he got his limit and killed both his deer at the same spot. He shot the first buck and had not taken the gun from his shoulder when the second deer jumped up and was promptly killed.

Furnishing Upset; Kaliski Goes for Gain

In the first major upset of the 1933 Pacific coast football season, "little" Santa Clara University defeated the University of California, 7 to 6, at Memorial Stadium, Berkeley. Unable to gain through the Bears' forward center wall, Kaliski (Santa Clara No. 7) ripped off 18 yards around California's left end.

Newsom Finally Beaten in 11-Inning Game; Pillette Limits Ducks to Two Hits

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Buck Newsom's string of 15 victories came to an end today when San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 5 to 4 in eleven innings.

Jack Fenton singled to right with the bases loaded to decide the game. The Angels gave their star twirler a three-run lead in the second, driving Ed Stutz of the Seals from the box.

Los Angeles ..... 4 12 0
 San Francisco ..... 5 14 0
 Newsom and Cronin; Stutz, Cunningham and Bottarini.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Oakland made it two straight over Sacramento here today winning a see-saw game 10 to 8. Home runs kept the solons in the game but a rally of four runs off reliever Sanders in the ninth beat the Sacs.

Oakland ..... 10 13 2
 Sacramento ..... 8 12 4
 Gabler, Landolph and Raimondi; Sanders, Flynn and Wirts.

PORTLAND, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Portland and Seattle split a double header here today, Portland taking the first game, 7 to 6, and Seattle the second, 5 to 0. Seattle scored three runs in the first inning of the opening game on singles by Ellsworth, Welsh, Walters and Spadefore. Portland answered with two in the third inning on singles by Monroe, Mulligan and Sheely. Then the Suds added a run in the fourth. The Beavers collected four runs in the sixth and seventh on six hits, including a homer by Oana. Seattle tied the score in the ninth on two singles, a long fly and a double by Burns. In Portland's half of the last inning Blackerby singled, Sheely sacrificed and Fred Berger singled to bring in the winning run.

In the second game Pillette allowed Portland but two hits, a single in the second and a double in the fourth. Meanwhile, the Sudes bunched five hits to bring in 4 runs in the second inning and added another in the fourth inning on two hits.

Seattle ..... 6 11 0
 Portland ..... 7 13 0
 Page and Bradbury; Bowman and Falmisano.
 Seattle ..... 5 11 0
 Portland ..... 0 2 2
 Pillette and Cox; Kallio and Walgren.

Missions ..... 6 13 0
 Hollywood ..... 5 15 2
 Phoenix and Duggan; Wetzel, Miljus and Bassler.

Ehlen Party Of Nine Gets Deer per Day

AURORA, Sept. 27.—Local nimrods will be coming in rather fast now with their quarry. The first party to arrive including an Aurora man was Dewey Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Coyle, Walter Coyle and Ivan Blosser. They returned Saturday night from the Ochoco district bringing with them two large deer, Ivan Blosser, the youngest member of the party and son of Mrs. Coyle, bagged the first one. Mrs. Coyle who right along with them, is said to be a pretty good shot herself.

Will Ehlen and a party of nine came in late Tuesday from hunting in the national forest. Their average was a deer a day. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Will Ehlen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis, Ernest Mabe, Edward Snyder of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. George Will of Hubbard.

Champion Hubby Welcomed

LOUGHRAN WINS CLOSE DECISION

Knocks Sharkey Down, 10th Round, for wee Margin; Crowd is Amazed

By EDWARD J. NEIL, BAKER FIELD, Philadelphia. Sept. 27.—(AP)—The revenge that Tommy Loughran has lived for through four troublesome years came sweetly to him tonight as he jabbed out a 15-round decision over fading Jack Sharkey, and even managed to batter to the floor the man who knocked him out in three rounds in 1929.

Before a home crowd of no more than 10,000, which made up for what it lacked in numbers by lusty vocal effort, the fleet Philadelphia courageously stood up under a terrific body bombardment, boxed his way out of one trying moment after another, and then stunned the gathering by dropping Sharkey to his knees in the 10th with a right hand smash.

In fact it was this amazing punch, probably the hardest Loughran, famed for anything but his hitting, ever delivered, that gave Tommy the decision. The two judges, Al Voice and Herman Weisger, were divided in their opinions, the first voting for Sharkey, the second for Loughran. Referee "Spud" Murphy scored the rounds evenly, giving Loughran six, Sharkey six, and calling three even, but his deciding vote was for Loughran because of the knockdown.

It was a far more thrilling duel than their first meeting in the Yankee stadium four years ago, when a chance at the heavy-weight championship hung in the balance. A punching fury that night, Sharkey caught Loughran in a corner in the third round and felled him with an overhand right to the temple. Tommy went down, came up at five, and wandered aimlessly about the ring seeking a chair. Lou Magnolia, the referee, halted that one right there.

But tonight a 31-year-old Loughran had the guile to evade an identical punch in almost the same moment of the same round in the corresponding corner, the endurance to stand up under Sharkey's terrific body battering, and the courage to keep going after the sailor's first real punch, a left hook to the head, opened a gash in his right eyebrow.

Loughran's margin was desperately close and many of the critics, counting the astonishing knockdown merely as an incident in one round, gave Sharkey an edge over the route. But narrow and controversial though the margin was, it was enough to count the Boston sailorman, knocked out of his championship by Primo Carnera in June, walloped by King Levinsky in Chicago 10 days ago, out of the major heavy-weight picture.

MONTANA NEXT ON STATER SCHEDULE

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Sept. 27.—Oregon State will open its 1933 conference football schedule against University of Montana here Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Coach Lon Stiner's greatest worry in preparation for the game is the development of sufficient reserve material. The Orange reserves barely held their own when used against Willamette university and Southern Oregon Normal last Saturday, and it took the first string to make the offense click.

Bunny Gekes, coach of the Montana Grizzlies, will bring one of the strongest squads ever to represent Montana here for the conference opener. Coach Oakes is usually handicapped by lack of sufficient reserve material, but this year a large and promising squad greeted him at opening practice.

SIGN-UP FOR WHEAT CONTROL VERY LOW

SCIO, Sept. 27.—A disappointingly few number of Scio-Rock Creek district farmers assisted in the wheat production control campaign in Lane county. Floyd Mullen, county horticultural agent, reported here. He believes some farmers hesitated on account of the so-called "red tape" in preparation of data.

A complete list of farmers of this district who have become identified with the movement here and are entitled to contracts is as follows, according to Mr. Mullen, who stated that these may yet withdraw if they desire:

George Brook, Clara Cawrse, S. B. Cross, J. T. DeVaney, John Egr, Wilbur Funk, L. O. Gorman, Raleigh Harold, Dan Hildreth, S. B. Bell, James Johnston, J. F. Kalkacka, Frank Rohwein, George Rohwein, John Rohwein, John Rorer, Joseph Rorer, Michael Ryan, Rexie Shank, John I. Shelton, John Shepherd, Lester Shook, Leroy Swearingen, Alson C. Verdon, Virgil A. Weddie, Charles White, Claire Wilkes.
