MOLALLA, Sept. 27. - High school opened here Monday with an enrollment of 233 students, four of them post-graduates, an increase of 16 over the first day last year. Freshmen numbered 79. In the Smith - Hughes department a record - breaking freshman class of 31 was peported, the largest heretofore being 24. A decided increase in registration after the first day is expected by the principal, Glenn Kirkwood. Several courses formerly offered have had to be omitted and classes are unusually large this year because the teaching force has been cut from 11 to nine teachers. Although the school building is large enough to accommodate all the students easily, the teachers are having difficulty finding enough furniture for the large classes, some of them num-

As Breeder and Showman of Durocs: Gets 12 Pigs During Canby Fair

SILVERTON, Sept. 27. - Tom Miller Smith-Hughes agricultural student of Silverton high school, won second place in the open class at the Canby fair with his Duroc Jersey sow. This same animal won third place in open classes at the state fair. Young Miller plans next to show her at the Pacific International Livestock Ex-

Upon arriving at the Canby fair grounds Warren Crabtree, Smith-Hughes instructor at Silverton, found he must provide transportation for 13 pigs instead of the one, as the Miller sow had farrowed during her stay at the fair.

The sow was returned in a canvas covered crate in a trailer.

fly of 12 young pigs from his Duroc Jersey gilt. Forty-one Smith-Hughes agricultural students have enrolled in the local department with the beginning of the second week of school. This is but five less than last year, which is remarkable, considering the lack of bus transportation. Some students have reported that they were not able to return to Silverton high school since transportation was not avail-
