M'AULEY IS PASTOR MILL CITY CHURCH

Replacing Rev. Thomas who Moves to Gates: Install Furnace

MILL CITY, Sept 28. - Rev. McAuley, formerly of Walia Walla, Wash., has accepted a call have been making their home at Mehama but will move to Mill City as soon as the Thacker famlly, who have been occupying the manse, move to another house. Rev. McAuley was born in Ireland and the Irish wit creeps out in his sermons. For the past three years, Rev. Clyde Thomas of the Friends church has been pastor, but members desired to have a resident minister and also one of the same faith. Rev. Thomas is an able speaker and faithful pastor. He and his family live on a farm east of Gates.

Excavation for the new furnace to be installed in the church is almost completed and the work of installing will commence soon. This will be a great improvement and will be greatly appreciated by those attending church services, over the old method of heating the large rooms
