

Salem's First Contract Bridge Tournament Starts Tuesday

LIBERAL PRIZES EACH NIGHT AT THIS TOURNAMENT to be held each Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, October 3 to November 21, Marion hotel. All contract players in Marion, Polk, Linn and Yamhill counties invited. Great fun—splendid bridge experience—excellent awards. Each night's play complete in itself. Six grand prizes for high scores for series.

Classes for Contract Bridge Players will be held each day of the tournament at the Marion hotel. Classes for beginners at 2 p. m. and for advanced players at 3:30 p. m. Admission 50 cents a class. You need to know contract these days; it is played everywhere. Tickets now on sale for these classes at the Marion hotel. Single tickets or tickets for eight weeks available.

SPONSORS OF THIS TOURNAMENT AND THE CLASSES are Mrs. William H. Quinn, Culbertson student, instructor and tournament conductor, Miss Bette Harild, her associate, and The Oregon Statesman. Mrs. Quinn's splendid record as player, teacher and conductor ably equip her for her work in Salem.

MASKS
In China ugly masks are used by children at certain times to ward off the deity of smallpox. This deity is believed to affect only the pretty children. This belief is astounding as we watch skillful physicians effacing this dire plague.
