4-A32 V-AK92 -Q6432 The Bidding North West Pass Pass Pass.

At a dinner given Ely Culbertson by the outstanding bridge clubs of California, Mr. Culbertson talked informally on a new forcing bid. He told us, with his usual forceful manner, of situations when a powerful hand is held and there is no biddable suit with which to force. In these cases, monial will take place October 19 a three-card suit headed by an with Miss Helen Breithaupt in ace may be used to force, provided

Since the ments as advisors to the seventh adoption of this new bid, East may use the forcing take-out in Diamonds. West will naturally assume that his partner has a biddable Diamond suit and 3 1/2 honor tricks. East is willing to create a wrong impression because he is in a position, if West supports the Diamond suit, to take him back to Hearts. It is very important that the forcing take-out bid, when used in a three-card suit, be in a suit of lower value. The play of the hand involves a simple strip and end play. Can you make 6 Hearts?
