

CONRAD WILL OPEN RETAIL FEED STORE

Former Garage at Silverton
Being Renovated for New Business

SILVERTON, Oct. 5. — One of the features of the autumn opening at Silverton will be the opening of the new Conrad Feed and Seed store in the former Ford garage on Lewis and First streets. The interior of the building is being redone.

The large work room at the back will be used as a store room. The former offices and display room will be used for offices and display room. Besides a reading room. The reading room is being added as an accommodation to patrons and friends from the country who have to wait about town.

George Ireson, former manager of the Silverton Warehouse Service corporation storehouse, will manage the new retail store. Mr. Ireson has for years been collecting material of interest to farmers, poultrymen and horticulturists. This material will be available in the reading room.

Mr. Conrad said Thursday that he would not discontinue his store at the mill near the cemetery, but was adding this retail store to make it more convenient for customers. The store will be open for business Friday.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

LABISH CENTER, Oct. 5. — The Salem chamber of commerce will present the program at the first community club meeting of the school year Friday night at the school house. Refreshments are in charge of Mrs. Joe Garbarino, Tillie Isham and Harvey Aker.

There will be no school here Friday, as the teachers, Miss McCaughy and Charlotte Jones will attend institute in Salem.

Miss Constance Weinman will leave Saturday to resume her work as a member of the faculty of Sutherlin high school for her fourth year. Grace Klampe also began her fourth year, as teacher of the Oak Ridge school last week.

The local Sunday school received the junior average attendance banner and the spiritual growth wall motto, as rewards at the Hayesville district convention held Sunday at Pratum. The Endeavorers were entertained last Friday at the H. E. Boehm home.

ROUND OUT PEP STAFF
WOODBURN, Oct. 5. — The pep staff at Woodburn high school was completed Wednesday when Henry Wurster and Herbert Hall were chosen yell leaders. Wurster is the senior leader, having held that position for several years. A few days ago Ann Gerain and Audrey Broyles were chosen song leaders.

Art for Sweet Charity's Sake

Percy L. Crosby, noted cartoonist and creator of the inimitable "Skipto," pictured as he worked on a campaign poster to swell the Community Chest of Atlanta, Ga. Crosby was selected for the task by Atlanta's "City Fathers." He is shown working in his McLean, Va., home.

SCHOOL BUDGET IS GREATLY SLASHED

SILVERTON, Oct. 5. — The Silverton school budget received a slash of over $16,000 at a meeting which the budget committee held with the board Wednesday night. Last year's budget read $91,794.63, while 1933-34 reads $75,031.21.

Salaries received the most reduction, although almost every item was reduced to the utmost. The lowest salary paid is in the primary division and runs to $378, while the superintendent's salary was reduced to $2700.

The librarian received a 16 per cent reduction. Serving on the budget committee were P. L. Brown, H. W. Preston, T. T. Leonard, George Hubbs and Ernest Starr.

Final Rites Held For 94-Year-Old Woodburn Woman

WOODBURN, Oct. 5. — Funeral services for Mrs. Jane Evans, 94, who died at her home Monday forenoon, were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the Woodburn Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. J. T. Taylor of the Free Methodist church officiating, and Rev. Percy M. Hammond of the Methodist church, assisting. Buriel was at the Belle Passi cemetery, where Mrs. Evans was laid beside the grave of her husband, who died about six years ago.

Jane Evans, over 94 years old, was born in Bala, Wales, July 10, 1839. She came to the United States with her parents when very young. Mrs. Evans had lived in Woodburn 23 years and was well known and revered.

MRS. BOULDEN HAS 91ST ANNIVERSARY

MONMOUTH, Oct. 5. — Mrs. Thomas Boulden, local resident for the past 23 years, celebrated her 91st birthday at her home Sunday. Elizabeth Cradock was born October 1, 1843, at Broughton, Kent county, England, where her early life was spent. In 1867 she was married to Thomas Boulden and five years later they came to New York. In later years they moved westward, living in Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska, before locating in Oregon. She has enjoyed remarkable health during her long lifetime, and says she never had a doctor but twice in her life. Like most English women, Mrs. Boulden is fond of walking for exercise. Seven miles a day used to be her minimum, but she has reduced that in keeping with her advancing age.

Among the many curios she treasures is a four-cent piece of copper, dated 1797, which her father gave her when she was three years old.

Of seven children, five are living, Mrs. B. A. Arnold, Portland, Thomas Boulden, Dayton, James Boulden, Newcastle, Wyo., Frank Boulden and Miss Mary Boulden, Monmouth. She has 18 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Mr. Boulden died in 1921.
