

NEEDLE EXHIBITION FEATURES BIG DAY

For Members of 4-M and Bethel Dorcas Club Women, Macleay

MACLEAY, Oct. 5.—The 4-M club entertained the Bethel Dorcas club members with a dinner and a hand-work exhibition Tuesday at the Macleay hall.

Autumn flowers centered the long table and were used about the dining room and hall.

Among the articles exhibited was a blanket by Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg who spun the wool and wove the blanket at the age of 13 years; a silk quilt made by Mrs. E. Tooker at the age of 76 years; a fan quilt made by Mrs. Anhook at the age of 62; and a pair of hand made pillows trimmed with knitted lace made by Mrs. Tookers grandmother; a tapestry made in England over 100 years ago exhibited by Mrs. H. Phillips.

Shows Key-wind Watch

Mrs. C. Baker exhibited a key-winding watch 100 years old and watch of almost water thinness 75 years old; and Mrs. E. Matton a hair chain that she made from her mother-in-law's and her own hair about 42 years ago. Mrs. Stella Culver displayed a child daguerotype of her mother and Mrs. M. M. Magee a bible belonging to the Harris family dated 1849, a testament earned in Sunday school by her mother, Augusta Wiederman Harris. One of the most unique quilts displayed belonged to Mrs. A. H. Fuestman, one having the initials of the members of the Dorcas club on the blocks made years ago when it was called the Bethel Thimble club.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Farr, Mr. and Mrs. W. Welch, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg, Mr. and Mrs. E. Matton, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. A. H.

Reserve is Again Made For Bethel

BETHEL, Oct. 5.—The Farmers union meeting at Bethel Monday night voted to again close the district to hunters. The same committee was retained to attend to the printing and enforcement.

It was reported that last year one hunter refused to leave a farm when he was requested to do so and he was reported and fined $25.

Delegates to the county convention were appointed: J. R. Carruthers, Rev. S. H. Hamrick, Mrs. J. M. Nichols and O. L. Brubaker.

A resolution was unanimously accepted commending Max Gehlar on the success achieved by him in carrying the state fair forward to such a fine financial condition.

ALUMNAE REUNION IS SUNDAY EVENT

For Mt. Angel Academy and Normal; Benefit Card Party is Success

MT. ANGEL, Oct. 4.—A good crowd attended the benefit card party given by the teachers of St. Mary's school in the school dining hall Tuesday night. Eighteen tables were in play. First prize for men went to Gordon Bucknum, and the women's prize was won by Mrs. J. A. Kaiser. Jerome Lutz received the draw prize. The proceeds, $20, will be used to repair play apparatus for the school.

Final preparations are being made at Mt. Angel academy and normal for the alumnae reunion next Sunday. Many old students from far and near are expected.

The program for the day consists of a general business meeting at 2 p. m., a short program given by some of the Portland alumnae, luncheon about 4:30 p. m., and visiting and dancing. Rev. Alvin Heib, O. S. B., will be toastmaster. Address during the luncheon will be: Greetings to alumnae by Mother M. Edith, O. S. B.; "Our Alumnae," Mary C. Kavanaugh; "Reminiscences of Academy School Days," Mary E. Scollard, and "Educational Opportunities of Alma Mater," Henriette Berning-Kaiser.

The executive committee consists of Mary E. Scollard, president; five vice-presidents, Rosalie Keber-Malntyre, Alma Green, Elizabeth Weber, Theresa Dehler and Amanda Schwab; Sister M. Beatrice, secretary-treasurer and Sister M. Ida, historian.

Zurchers Moving After 30 Years on Silverton Ranch

WALDO HILLS, Oct. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zucher have sold their 24-acre farm in the Evergreen district to Fred Surbrugg, who lives at the Walter von Flue home, and will move next week to Portland to be near a son and daughter. They lived on this farm for 30 years. Their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Schweitzer, who has been with them since early in the year, will return to her home in Enterprise, as soon as they are settled.

Mr. and Mrs. Galen Mishler returned Thursday from a two-month's visit at Arrowwood, Alberta. They will pack and leave at once for Salem, where they have rented acreage. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Campbell (Eunice Watts) will immediately move onto the farm here.

VISIT NEWLYWEDS HUBBARD, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Earl Hecker and little Barbara Lee returned Wednesday from Ocean Lake where they had been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kay Gibson who were recently married at McMinnville. Mrs. Hecker and Mr. Gibson are brother and sister. Mrs. Gibson was Ruth McDonald of Grande Ronde and Mr. Gibson was formerly from Salem, a graduate of Willamette university with the class of 1932. The young couple will live at Grande Ronde at present.
