A A U W Plan Conference October 13 and 14 At La Grande

MEMBERS of the Oregon division of the American Association of University Women will hold their tenth annual conference in La Grande, Ore., Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14.

Representatives from the state's 13 branches are expected to attend, including Portland, Salem, Eugene, Corvallis, Albany, Klamath Falls, Astoria, Forest Grove, Pendleton, Baker, Bend, LaGrande and Walla Walla county.

Couple Take Vows Once More

ONE of the loveliest ceremonies of the week was the exchange of marital vows by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in their home on South 14th street. Rev. Fred C. Taylor of Portland officiated.

Mrs. Fisher wore a beautiful gown of white oriental lace and carried roses of delicate yellow shades. She descended the stairway that was a veritable bower over rose petals scattered by Masters Glen Ray Otis and Donald Hickerson.

The bride was attended by her daughters, Mrs. Viola Otis of Tacoma and Mrs. Ione Hickerson of Seaside. Mrs. Otis wore a becoming cream colored crepe frock and Mrs. Hickerson dark blue. Asa Fisher was best man for his father.

The ceremony was performed in front of the fireplace, which was profusely decorated with flowers and greenery. Baskets of yellow chrysanthemums about the room. Miss Leila Rigdon played the wedding march and preceding the ceremony Mrs. Otis sang "I Love You Truly" and afterwards, "Oh Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Rigdon and Miss Renska Swart.

Dinner was served at noon to the bride and groom and 18 guests. A huge wedding cake with a white ball and gold decorations centered the table. At either end were golden baskets of marigolds and zinnias.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Fisher received scores of friends who called to congratulate them. Prof. Thomas Roberts played some piano numbers and Mrs. Otis sang.

Special guests for the day were Mrs. Martha Scholl, Mr. Fisher's sister of Baker, Mrs. Belle Kennedy of Hood River, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Miss Sarah Thome, Miss Leila Rigdon and Miss Renska Swart.

Miss Lindquist Given Shower Party

Miss Mable Lindquist, instructor in the young ladies' bible class of the American Lutheran Sunday school, was complimented with a delightful informal party last week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. P. W. Eriksen by members of the class.

A handkerchief shower was given Miss Lindquist in appreciation of her work with the class. Present besides the honor guest, were the Misses Rosella Mason, Eleanor Sedarstrom, Mary Goebel, Clarice Kolbe, Lillian Meyer, Lougene Vreitsake, Evelyn Soland, Stella Mae Cook, Betty Lou Steinmetz, Hazel Cook, Arlene Sholseth, Alice Cook, Birdie Hebel, Virginia Mason, Mary Langer, Helen Coenenberg, Hollis Marten and Iola Quesseth.

Club has First Meeting of Fall

THE Enclitiss club held its initial meeting of the fall at the James Clark home on Fairmount hill Friday night. Zinnias in brilliant fall shades made the guest rooms attractive and bridge was in play. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Next Tuesday the group will have a dinner meeting at 6:15 at the Y. M. C. A. Miss Augusta Notdurft, recently returned from a four months' tour of Europe, will be the speaker.

Officers of the club are Miss Mabel Currie, president; Miss Marie Schindler, vice-president; Miss Lenore Naegle, secretary, and Miss Leila Park, treasurer.

Guests Friday night were Miss June Gaines, Miss Kathleen Engle, Miss Bernadine Ledfors, Miss Ethel Randall, Miss Hattie Bratton, Miss Jessie Cooper, Miss Bernice Cowden and Miss Helen B. Hamilton.

Members in attendance were Miss Alice Falk, Miss Marie Schindler, Miss Mabel Currie, Miss Dorothy Franks, Miss Muriel Rowe, Miss Esther Ricker, Miss Bessie Tucker, Miss Mildred Judson, Miss Harriett Stimmler, Miss Betty Elosom, Miss Vivian Clark, Miss Agnes Emmel, Miss Gertrude Chamberlin, Miss Evelyn Paulsen, Miss Olga Gath, Miss Lenore Naegle, Miss Leila Park and Miss Thilda Johannson.
