GONZAGA HALTS MANY THREATS

Fumbles Ruin O.S.C. Hopes; Spokane Team Fails to Show Much Attack

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Ore., Oct. 7. (AP)—Although many times within striking distance of the Gonzaga State college, the Spokane Bulldogs battered futilely against the Bulldog stone wall here today and the two football teams played to a scoreless tie on Multnomah stadium field before about 20,000 spectators.

Only twice did the Gonzaga team take the ball into O.S.C. territory, and sent no nearer the Oregon State goal than the 30-yard line.

Oregon State's chances were spoiled time after time by fumbles. In the second period the Spokes appeared headed for a sure touchdown but Helkenen, O.S.C. fullback, muffed the ball within an inch or two of the goal, and Gonzaga recovered. A moment later, however, the Bulldogs lost the ball on a fumble, but the Spokes were held for downs on the Gonzaga 8-yard stripe.

Oregon State had two big chances in the last period. First they drew to within one yard of the Bulldog's goal line, but Gonzaga held. A few moments later, after field, Gonzaga left half, had fumbled, the Spokes recovered on the Gonzaga 15. In a few plays the Beavers had the ball on the Gonzaga 3-yard line for first down. They approached to the 1-yard line but the Gonzaga eleven held fiercely and O.S.C. lost the ball. Gonzaga punted to the 35-yard line and Pangle passed 8 yards to Curtin. A few plays and Pangle passed to W. Joslin on the Gonzaga 4-yard stripe. With less than a minute to play the Beavers staked a chance of victory on a field goal try by H. Joslin but the ball went low and wide.

Bellinger Reason For O.S.C. Failure

One of the main reasons Oregon State failed to score was Captain Bellinger, Gonzaga's great tackle. Almost every time the Orangemen started to go places Bellinger was there to stop the march. When Oregon State penetrated to the Bulldog one-yard line in the final period, it was Captain Bellinger who stopped the Orange battering ram, H. Joslin.

On the Gonzaga offensive a hard hitting, wriggling sophomore, Justice, who at the last minute was placed in the opening line up at fullback instead of Kearns, was the leading ground gainer for the visitors and a stalwart on defense. He netted the Gonzaga boys 39 yards for the day.

Oregon State got another chance in the third period when Bowman raced 22 yards to the Gonzaga 23. Joslin picked up three and Franklin seven for a first down on the Gonzaga ten. Then on four plays Oregon State lost six yards.

Bob Grayson Carries Mail For Redskins

STANFORD, Oct. 7. (AP)—The Stanford Redskins roped the Santa Clara Bronco today, but got scored almost into the happy hunting grounds before clinching the contest, 7 to 0.

The Indians pushed over their score by line backs, after Palamontain recovered a fumble on the 15 yard mark in the first period. Grayson carried the ball over.

The crowd of 35,000 spectators saw a battle that surged from one end of the field to the other, filled with thrills chiefly as the result of Santa Clara's spectacular passing attack. The mighty throwing arm of Sobrero, Santa Clara's left halfback, shot the ball into all corners of the stadium, and on virtually all but scoring chances a Santa Clara receiver was there to receive it.

Grayson, Stanford's fullback, and Maents, half, had all they could do by brilliant line plunging, off tackle smashes and occasional sparkling returns of punts, to offset Sobrero's passing and Fullback Peattie's kicking.

Grayson carried the ball for 53 yards on 16 tries, and Maents 54 yards on 12 tries.

EXTRA INNING NEEDED AGAIN

Luque and Russell, Relief Hurlers, Play Big Part In Series Finale

By ALAN GOULD
CLARK GRIFFITH STADIUM, Washington, Oct. 7. (AP)—The New York Giants, "miracle men" of the 1933 baseball season, raced off the enemy's battleground today with the championship of the world as they out-fought and out-hit the Washington Senators in the second successive extra-inning thriller of the series.

The mighty bat of "Little Mel" Ott, the Louisiana larper, who struck the first big blow for the Giants just four days ago, produced the decisive punch with a home run into the bleacher pavillion in left center in a rousing tenth inning finish.

This big blow broke up a relief pitchers' duel between Adolfo Luque and Jack Russell, gave the Giants their fourth triumph by the score of 4 to 3 and the series by a four to one margin, but it was not posted on the score-board until an umpire's decision was reversed and another protest registered, first by the Giants and then by the crestfallen Washington players.

Umpire Charles Pfirman, a National leaguer, at first ruled Ott's hit a two-bagger under ground rules, as Fred Schulte, Senator centerfielder, dived among spectators for the ball, barely got his gloved hand on it and then catapulted head-first over the low board fence into the bleachers. All Four Umpires Agree It's a Homer

All four umpires finally agreed that it was a legitimate homer, on the basis of the standing rule that a ball coming off a player's body or glove into the open stands is good for the circuit.

It was a crushing finale for the American league champions, making a last-ditch fight today before the biggest crowd of the series in Washington, numbering 25,454 cash customers.

They had seen their veteran right-hander, Al Crowder, knocked out of the box for the second straight time as the rampant Giants piled up a 3-0 lead in less than six full innings. They had seen their own half of the sixth to pound young Hal Schumacher, brilliant right-hander, out of the box and tie the score amid a tumult of shouting as big Fred Schulte walloped a home run into the left field pavillion, with Heinie Manush and Joe Cronin on the bases.

From there on, into extra innings for the second straight day, it was a pitching duel between the 42-year-old Cuban, Luque, making his first appearance in the world series since he was with the Reds in 1919, and the fast-ball relief star of the Senators, Russell.

Two Out, Two Strikes When Homer Swatted
Russell choked off Giant threats in the eighth and ninth and there were two out in the tenth when Ott came up for the fifth and last time of the day. "Little Mel" had not gotten the semblance of a safe blow up to that time. There were two strikes on Ott when the chuncky little outfielder took his familiar windup, hoisted his right leg and lashed into the ball.

Schulte was off with the crack of the bat and so was Manush. The center-fielder was nearer and the ball touched his outstretched glove as it caromed into the crowd, Schulte after it. It was a desperate effort, even though it failed, and Schulte clambered out limping.

The Senators, with two out in their last turn at bat, made one more effort to avert defeat. Manager Cronin, who recovered his batting eye for the first time in the series, lashed his third straight hit to left field after Goslin and Manush had been retired. The dangerous Schulte was passed and Kerr dispatched to run for the bruised outfielder, but Joe Kuhel ended the game and the series by striking out.

Sons Down P. U.; Columbia Scores on Oregon; Wildcat Wins; Whitman is Drubbed

ASHLAND, Ore., Oct. 7. (AP)—Displaying a powerful offensive, Southern Oregon Normal defeated Pacific university, 19 to 0, here today. The teachers got their first touchdown in the first period when Powell Lancaster heaved a pass to Bradford for 10 yards as a score.

The Badgers held their opponents for the next two periods, but in a last-period drive, the teachers crossed the goal line twice, Lancaster plunging over from the eighty-yard line for one score and skirting right end for eight yards and the final score.

TACOMA, Oct. 7. (AP)—Linfield college turned back the Pacific Lutheran gladiators of Tacoma, 19 to 6, here today before approximately 5000 fans.

Flashing powerful line plays and a deceptive passing attack, the invading Oregonians counted a touchdown in the early minutes of play. The game was tied up by a brilliant 90-yard dash for a score by Votaw, fleet P. L. C. halfback on the opening kickoff of the second half. The Oregon boys, however, came back with a rush in the closing period and rolled up two tallies to clinch the game.

Booth and Barrett, fullback and quarterback on the Linfield aggregation, were the standouts in the invaders offensive drives.

EUGENE, Oct. 7. (AP)—University of Oregon defeated the Columbia university football team of Portland, 14 to 7, here today. The two teams battled on even terms during the first half.

In the third period Oregon ran over a touchdown, and added another in the last quarter. Columbia scored and converted in the final frame.

MOSCOW, Idaho., Oct. 7. (AP)—Uncocking a surprise aerial offensive, the University of Idaho Vandals swamped Whitman, 60 to 0, in their non-conference football game here today.

Whitman never threatened to score as Coach Leo Calland sent in substitutes by the squad, giving his 40 players a good workout. Starting his regulars, Calland saw the game comfortably on ice before he started substituting.

BEAR ACHIEVES UPSET VICTORY

California Noses out win 14-13 in Seesaw Tilt; Blower is Star

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Calif., Oct. 7. (AP)—With a last minute finish that sent 60,000 fans into a frenzy, California's rejuvenated Bears came from behind to defeat St. Mary's 14 to 13 today in a game that scrambled the early season with one of the greatest upsets of many years.

In the short end of the count until the final three minutes of play and apparently headed toward defeat by one touchdown, the blue and gold warriors who looked miserable in losing to Santa Clara two weeks ago, fought their way back into the front ranks with a climax that left nothing to be desired.

The finest rally the Golden Bear has responded to in many a gridiron battle centered around the smashing play of a substitute left halfback, Floyd Blower, whose entrance into the game turned the tide.

The great Gael team, touted as the most powerful ever to wear the red and blue colors of the little college coached by "Slip" Madigan, was leading as the contest moved into the last few minutes, and apparently able to stave off the last bid made by the Californians.

They were backed up on their own sixteen yard line when Piese, Gael long distance kicker, was rushed in to boot the ball supposedly deep over in California's ground. He was rushed by two Bear line men, Lutz and C. Williams. They blocked the ball between them and it bounded out of bounds.

It was California's ball on St. Mary's 15 yard line. At this point Coach Bill Ingram sent in young Blower, and end around with Jack Birmingham carrying netted two yards.

Blower was in on the next play. On a reverse he took the ball from Keefer, sub fullback. Blower banged through some kind of a hole and was on the other side of the line. He smashed along a few yards more and half dove over the line to tie the count. To make it a real afternoon for the football playing member of the Blower family, he placekicked the extra point.

With the count 27 to nothing at the end of the first period, the Idaho attack slowed down, with the offensive switched mainly to the air.

Whitman was allowed to gain only 21 yards from scrimmage, and completed only two passes for six yards out of 11 attempted. Of 29 passes, Idaho completed 18 for 255 yards.

CURT COMMENTS

You may point out this "break" and that one that the Giants had in the world series and we won't dispute you, but it has to be recorded now that they played the smarter ball.

They were in there working for one run all the time, as they had to do all season in the National League; the Senators were trying to knock the cover off the ball, but against the Giants' pitching they couldn't do it often enough. Pretty smart as that; the "first pitch" attack in the sixth inning Saturday is an instance; but not quite as smart as Bill Terry and his gang.

Golf and tennis get their inning at the opening of this week's sport program. The Salem Golf club team goes to Eugene, teeing off at 9 o'clock against the Eugene Country club boys. Salem will be lacking the services of Ercel Kay and Bob Taylor, its usual No. 1 and No. 2 men in these matches, but Frank Shafer has been added to the team and will lead off against Eugene, which was humbled severely here a couple of months ago. At latest report, the following was Salem's lineup: Shafer, Cline, Woodmanson, Leggren, Stacey, Bonesteel, Hendrie, Victor, Flanery, Nash, Skelley, Day, Annunen, Chambers, Young, Cross, G. Prime, F. Prime, Crews, Scott Page, Starr, Jackson, Hunter, Collins, Robinson, Newmeyer, McGilchrist, Wood, Bernardi, Kletzing, Armpriest, Kuhn, O. L. Fisher, Guy Smith, Einzig, Belt, Rahn, Kuhns, Willett and Hulsey. Two or three more players are needed to make a team of 40, and any who go, even without announcing their intention, will find places arranged for them; it was said at the clubhouse. About 15 women from the club here will go along. Eugene is reported to be planning exceptional entertainment.

The annual city tennis tournament will reach the finals this afternoon, with the singles at 1:30 and the doubles immediately following, on the courts at the state hospital grounds.

The wrestling show Tuesday night is decidedly of the "big time" variety, with Billy Edwards, the Kansas City butcher boy, visiting Salem for the first time to clash with George Wilson of football fame. Young Billy Edwards and George Bennett will mix for 45 minutes or less, and Soldier Anderson and Pete Axtman will perform for 30 minutes to start the evening's festivities.

Also on Tuesday, Parrish junior high will launch its football season, meeting the Dallas high "B" squad. And starting with Wednesday nearly all the sport

CITY NET MEET NEARING CLOSE

Finals Start at 1:30 This Afternoon; Williams One Participant

The city tennis tournament, several times postponed, got under way Saturday and finals will be played this afternoon, singles at 1:30 and doubles immediately following on the courts at the state hospital grounds. Two semi-final matches remain to be played, one at singles at 10 a. m. and a doubles match at 11, as well as the third set of another doubles semi-final which was halted by darkness Saturday.

Gordon Williams, Willamette university football player who was a dark horse in the tourney, has reached the singles finals and will play Kemp or Beall who will play this morning. Williams reached the finals by defeating Fred Hagemann 2-6, 6-2, 6-4 and then winning over Savage 3-6, 6-1, 7-5.

In other first round matches Beall won over John Creech, defending champion, 4-6, 9-7, 6-1. Kemp defeated Myers 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, and Savage beat Sanders 2-6, 6-4, 6-2. Kemp and Beall will play their semi-final match this morning.

In the doubles semi-final match which was not finished, Staynor and Sanders took one set 6-2 and Kemp and Beall came back to take the other 9-7.

Attention in this city will be focused on football, with two highly important games coming up this weekend.

The Willamette Bearcats will head for Tacoma, where Friday afternoon the lights in the big stadium, they will take the field against the defending Northwest conference champions of College of Puget Sound. The Bearcats saw this team in action against Albany the other day and while Coach Sandberg of the Loggers kept them from seeing any more than was necessary, they learned, if they didn't already know, that they have a battle on their hands. Spec Keene says George Cannady is his only casualty as far as football injuries go, there being some doubt about the fast boy getting in there; but several of the players have suffered attacks in this week and may not get in much practice before the big game. Lowell Gribble is now ready to take his old place at right end.

The Bend high team which plays Salem high here Saturday night appears to be quite an outfit, having defeated Burns, Redmond and Prineville decisively in rapid succession; Burns was considered notably strong this season and Redmond held Eugene to a lower score than it did Bend.
