

FLOWER SHOW WINNERS TOLD

Entries in Woodburn Garden Club Event Total 175; Sale is Success

WOODBURN, Oct. 9.—The annual flower show of the Woodburn Garden club, held in the Settler building Friday and Saturday, was a very successful. There were over 175 separate exhibits and the shrub sale conducted at the same time netted a good profit. A feature of the show was a colorful display of gladioli and dahlias by the boys' state training school. Judges for the show were George Timm and Mrs. Della Overton. Merchandise prizes were awarded to winners in the children's division.

The list of prizes is: Dahlias—Pompom; all places, Miss Emily Hinman; decorative, first, Mrs. N. N. Hall; second, M. B. Myers; third, Mrs. B. N. Hall. Roses—Single bloom; first, Miss Ina Bonney; double bloom, first, Mrs. Ina Bonney; second, Mrs. E. N. Hall; third, Mrs. E. N. Hall. Gladioli—All prizes, Mr. Bomhoff. Asters—First, Mrs. Louis Koenig; second, M. B. Myers; third, Mr. Bomhoff. Asters Hardy—First, Mrs. E. N. Hall; second, Mrs. S. E. Baune; third, Mrs. Walter Scholer. Cut geraniums—First, Miss Jackson; second, Miss Vera Bonney; third, Mrs. Ina Bonney. Cut annuals—First, Mrs. E. N. Hall; second, Alma Trullinger; third, Mrs. Louis Koenig. Snapdragons—First, Mrs. Plank; second, Mrs. L. E. Thompson; third, Mrs. E. N. Hall. Artistic arrangement of vines—First, Miss Ina Bonney. Violets—First, Miss Ina Bonney; second, Mrs. E. N. Hall; third, Mrs. E. N. Hall. Basket of foliage—First, Mrs. E. N. Hall; second, Mrs. H. L. Gill; third, J. J. Hall. Zinnias—First, Mr. Bomhoff. Best fruit arrangement—First, Mrs. W. J. Wilson; second, Herbert Koenig; third, J. J. Hall. Best floral exhibit—First, boys' training school. Children's Exhibits Zinnias by Wilma Koenig, Keith Koenig, Wallace Yates and third grade Junior Red Cross. Marigolds—Dorothea Koenig and Wallace Yates. Asters—Cordis Gill, Wilma Koenig, Pansies—Robert Koenig, Dahlias—Wilma Koenig, Frank Surmeyer, Rose—Marjory Smith, Redwood nurseries. Gladioli—Robert Hecker. Mixed flowers—Third grade Junior Red Cross. A meeting of the Garden club will be held Tuesday evening in the club rooms of the public library, at which time the results of the show will be told. Earl Houseweart will talk, his subject being "Fall Planting."

Rift in Royal Marital Lute?

European court circles are agog at the reported rift in the domestic life of Crown Prince Umberto of Italy and his wife, the former Princess Marie Jose of Belgium. It is said recent visits of Belgian Premier de Broqueville to Rome was to urge Premier Mussolini and Pope Pius to intercede for marital peace. They were married in 1930.

GRANGE PROGRAM IS MUCH ENJOYED

Hewitt, Gear are Speakers At Union Hill; Award List is Lengthy

By MRS. J. C. KRENZ, VICTOR POINT, Oct. 9.—Roy Hewitt of Salem was main speaker at the Union Hill grange district fair Saturday night. Mr. Hewitt gave an intensely interesting and pertinent discussion of the economic situation of today. Ray Gill, state grange master of Portland, who was scheduled to talk on grange work did not come owing to conflicting engagements.

A. A. Geer of Salem talked briefly on legislative matters of general interest and W. M. Tate, master of Union Hill grange, made a few remarks concerning grange work. Other program numbers were vocal solos by Elden Riddell of Monmouth, accompanied by his brother, Percy Riddell; vocal solos by Mrs. W. F. Krenz, accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Fox; a reading by Marvin Darby and several numbers by the Union Hill grange chorus. Mrs. Floyd Fox accompanied the chorus which included Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Miss Eleanor Paddock, Miss Thelma Humphreys, Floyd Fox, John Butler, Eddie King and George Butler. W. M. Tate, Floyd Fox and Eddie King sang two numbers in costume.

Judges for the agricultural exhibits were Miss Alice Jaquet of Victor Point, Harry E. Martin and M. M. Magee both of Macleay; in the textile division Mrs. H. E. Martin of Macleay, Mrs. George L. Wooley, Union Hill, and Miss Elva Fischer of Salem; for the flowers judges were Mrs. M. M. Magee of Macleay, Mrs. Karl Harberly, Silverton, and Mrs. Porter Downing, Union Hill.

Morleys Repeat Win Winners of the prize on general; second, Charles Alexander; third, John Tschantz. Beets, first, L. O. Hadley; second, John Tschantz. Popcorn, first, H. A. Elliot; second, L. O. Hadley; third, John Tschantz. Pears, Fall Butter, first, John Tschantz. Oatmeal, first, John Tschantz. Tomatoes, first, Ira Loran; second, Mrs. D. A. Parsons; third, E. O. Nelson. Hubbard squash, first, Alfred Loe; second and third, Mary Murray. Danish squash, first, L. O. Hadley; second and third, Alfred Loe. Early harvest, queen squash, first, L. O. Hadley; second, E. S. Porter; third, E. A. Beuagil. Banana squash, first, Alfred Loe; second, Mary Murray; third, Alfred Loe. Potatoes, Netted Gems, first, George Geddes, Beauty Hebrews, first, P. A. Thomas, 8th Century, first, Charles Alexander. Garnet Chili, first, C. M. Janik; second, Charles Alexander. Koli Rabi, first, C. M. Janik; second, E. A. Beuagil; third, John Tschantz. Turmelon, first, C. M. Janik; second, L. O. Loe. Apples, King, first, Eldon Mul-

ANNUAL EXHIBITION OF GRANGE SUCCESS

Bowen has Largest Showing Of Farm Produce at Macleay

MACLEAY, Oct. 9.—At the annual grange fair held Friday night, A. Bowen had the largest agricultural display, with W. A. Jones, second, and H. E. Martin & Son, third.

W. Welch had the best display of corn with, Martin & Son second.

In the antique division Mrs. Effie Morley placed first with a baby dress that was over 75 years old. Henry Jaquet, local artist, had a group of Silver Creek Falls' paintings on display.

Special ribbons were given to Vivienne Jaquet on a quilt piece by her when she was but five years old and to Marjorie Tate, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate, on an embroidered tea towel.

The Silver Cliff Woman's club had a special booth to display their work and also a "depression booth" which attracted much attention.

Prizes given as awards at the fair were all donations from Salem, Silverton, Sublimity, Stayton and Macleay merchants.

Porcupine is Novel Pet at Koker Home

Jefferson, Oct. 9—Sherman Koker is in possession of a peculiar pet, a porcupine. Bob Oakley found the animal in the road and he captured it and brought it to the stage terminal, where it was kept for a day. Mr.

Koker took it to his home and it has caused much interest among the people, especially to those who have never seen such a creature. Parrish Gap school children came to town to see the porcupine.

He eats all kinds of vegetation, and likes to gnaw on wood. Mr. Koker says he is gentle and can pet him; he is w/afn .e is teased, well, there's no petting then. Koker hasn't decided what he will o with his pet.

It is a mystery how the animal got into town, unless some tourist may have turned it loose.

Grange's Booster Show At Silverton Hills Gets Wide Variety of Entries

SILVERTON HILLS, Oct. 9.—One of the most successful affairs ever held in this community was that of the Silverton Hills grange fair held Saturday afternoon and night. Mrs. E. A. Beuagil and her committee had worked for weeks in preparing the arrangements. Decorations were marvelous and hundreds thronged the large grange hall all afternoon and evening. The stage on the upper floor was made into a garden scene of unusual beauty.

Joe Marty, local honey fancier, had a marvelous collection of honey which the public was permitted to sample. The antique display brought out many old papers, magazines, a violin and other oddities and rarities from the community. Deserving of more than usual attention was the art display of free hand drawing made by Charles Janik in Chechoslovakia. Mr. Janik now makes his home in the Silverton Hills. A miniature orchestra with both persons and instruments made from vegetables by the pupils of Mt. View district under the direction of Miss Geraldine Fry, furnished considerable amusement.

Dancing was enjoyed at night and a program was given during the afternoon. Refreshment stands were continued throughout the fair hours.

Awards made were: Schools—First, Mountain View, Geraldine Fry, teacher; second, Davis, Eunice Maulding; third, Porter, Maybelle Tovey.

Baked Goods Awards Sunshine cake—First, Kate Porter; cocoanut cake—first, Vala Elliot, age 12; second, Lucile Tschantz, age 9. Fruit cake, Pearl Porter. Doughnuts, first, Rose Alexander. Drop cookies, first, Bernice Tschantz. Chocolate pie, Charles Mulkey. Lemon pie, Forest Wilson. White bread, first, Josie Mires; second, Sarah Maulding. Whole wheat rolls, first, Elmo Mulkey.

Fancy Work Department Winnings of Mrs. Berta Bartell: first, crocheted chair mat; first, rug; first on embroidered dining room set; first on scarf; first, knitted table cloth; first, lamp shade, Mrs. Cora Wilcox; first, second and third on paintings; second, music holder; first, quilt; second, croquet rug; first, braided rug; first, black velvet purse made from old hat; first, tankard, Mrs. Emma Elliot; second, wedding ring quilt, Mrs. Grace Mulkey; third, black cat, Eldon Mulkey; first, culinary set made from saws, Mrs. E. S. Porter; third, embroidered set; first, vanity set; first, towel.

Mrs. Don Ross, third, crocheted centerpiece, Mrs. Nellie Thomas, second, centerpiece; first and second, table runner; first, yoyo spread; second, buffet set; third, painted towel. Versa Beuagil; second, woven scarf; first, card table cover, Mrs. Edith Beuagil; first, huck cushion top; second, sheets and pillow cases; third, quilt. Rose Van Gorder; third, wedding ring quilt; second, rug.

Mrs. John Van Gorder, first and third, embroidered quilt; second, crocheted table runner; first, chair back, Mrs. Helen Knauf; first, embroidered pillow slips; second, embroidered set. Mrs. John Tschantz; first, wedding ring quilt; second, embroidered spread. Mrs. John Porter, first, sunbonnet baby quilt, basket quilt, cutwork quilt, low slips; second, Greelan star quilt, Mrs. Virgil Tschantz; third, sunbonnet baby quilt, Agnes Duvall, second, sunbonnet baby quilt; third, huck cushion top, Eupha Mires, first, palama bag; second, pillowcase; first, second, towel set. (Charles Mulkey; first, horsehide coat, Mrs. Martin Peterson, first, crocheted yoke and sleeve set; first and second, crocheted dollie, Minnie Hartley, first, embroidered pillow.

Canned Goods Placing Beans, first, Mrs. E. S. Porter; second, Mrs. Ed Nelson; third, Mrs. E. O. Nelson; second, Fern Alexander; third, Mrs. E. A. Beuagil. Peas, first, Mrs. E. S. Porter; second, Mrs. E. A. Beuagil; third, Fern Alexander. Carrots, first, Vala Elliot; second, Cora B. Wilcox; first, second, Cora B. Wilcox. Green beans, first, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Jelly, first, Helen Knauf; second, Cora B. Wilcox; third, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Ground cherry preserves, first, Mrs. E. A. Beuagil; second and third, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Preserves, first, Fern Alexander; second, Mrs. M. J. Peterson; third, Mrs. E. A. Beuagil.

Tomatoes, first, Mrs. E. O. Nelson; second, Mrs. D. Parsons; third, Mrs. C. Mulkey; second and third, Mrs. E. O. Nelson. Beet pickles, first, Mrs. L. O. Hadley; second, Fern Alexander. Mince meat, first, Mrs. M. J. Peterson. Pickles, first, Cora B. Wilcox; second and third, Fern Alexander. Peaches, first, C. Mulkey; second, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Pears, first, Nelson; third, Mrs. E. S. Porter. Apples, first, Mrs. E. S. Porter; second, Mrs. E. O. Nelson; third, Mrs. E. A. Beuagil. Prunes, first, Mrs. E. O. Nelson. Strawberries, first, Mrs. John Maulding. Cherries, first, Mrs. E. O. Nelson; second, Mrs. John Tschantz. Raspberries, first, L. O. Hadley; second, Cora B. Wilcox.

Vegetables and Fruits Cauliflower, E. A. Nelson. Carrots, first, Otto Bartell; second, L. O. Hadley; third, Don Ross. Stock carrots, first, Mrs. D. A. Parsons; second, Orval Tschantz; third, Otto Bartell. Pumpkin, first, Alfred Loe; second, Ira Loran. Stock pumpkin, first, Al-

SURPRISE GRANGE ENTERTAINS CLUBS

TURNER, Oct. 9.—The Marion County Agricultural and Economic Grange club met with Surprise Grange Wednesday. Among the topics for discussion was the relief proposition for the needy families of the county. B. F. Simpson, who is a member of the county's wheat production committee, spoke on the wheat. Mrs. Humphreys of Union, and Mrs. M. Magee of Riekey, had charge of the economics session.

Mrs. Hester Crume was chairman of the luncheon arrangements, serving a chicken dinner. A joint program included: Readings, Mrs. Magee; solo, Roswald Wright of Ankeny; talks by Mrs. Bump of North Howell, and Mrs. Van Cleve of Monitor, Mrs. Ellen Lambert of Stayton, and Mrs. Magee of Riekey.

The January meeting will be entertained by Monitor grange.

MILES AGAIN HEADS FALLS CITY MEETS

MOLLA, Oct. 9.—The Rev. Harold Miles of Molalla, who has been business manager of the Falls City Institute for the past seven years, was reelected to that position Friday at a meeting of the commission in the First Methodist church in Portland.

Other officers elected were: Death, Rev. Leroy Walker, Hillsboro; assistant business manager, Rev. Wayne Wright, Canby; publicity manager, Rev. O. J. Gill, Portland; registrar, F. N. Haroun, and chairman of the commission, Dr. M. A. Marcy.

The financial report made by Rev. Miles showed the institute to be in better financial condition than it has been for the past seven years. The date for next summer's session at the institute was set for August 4 to 11. Opal Foglesong also attended the meeting from Molalla.

I. O. O. F. MEETING SLATED SATURDAY

STAYTON, Oct. 9.—Stayton has been selected for the I. O. O. F. county convention, which will be held Saturday, October 14, and the local lodge is making extensive preparations for the event. A splendid program has been arranged.

J. W. Anderson, from Nebraska, has purchased the 127-acre place in Linn county known as the Philip Peitrok farm and has moved on the place. He expects to erect a new dwelling immediately.

Jacob Spaniol and son have been installing a furnace in the drier at the C. P. Neibert place on the West Stayton road. Mr. Neibert has several acres in walnuts, filberts and almonds, and expects this year to gather about three tons of the former. The walnut crop will be short this year.

The CHALLENGE OF THE FORD V-8

Keep this chart for your own comparison—Check car that shows up best

PERFORMANCE	FORD V-8	CAR "A"	CAR "B"
Speed in high and second gears.
Acceleration—all gears.
Hill climbing ability.
Riding qualities over all types of roads.
SIZE
Body dimensions.
Wheelbase hub to hub.
ECONOMY
Gasoline and oil economy.
Replacement parts prices.
Engine overhaul costs.
Service labor charges.
Delivered prices, new car with equipment.
Freight, delivery and finance charges on new car.
Annual itemized break-down of monthly installment payments.
DESIGN
Ford V-8 engine, aluminum cylinder heads, crankshaft, ignition system, carburetor, etc.
Total number roller and ball bearings.
Braking surface area (Ford has 186 square inches).
Torque tube drive and Ford rear axle design.
Shock absorbers (Ford has self-adjusting, double-acting hydraulic).
QUALITY
Compare from front bumper to rear bumper.
Rustless steel, anti-rust treated fenders, welded steel-spoke one-piece wheels, safety glass, All-Steel bodies, interior trim, etc.

GET THE FACTS BEFORE YOU GET THE CAR!

Many claims for performance, size, economy, design and quality are being made for cars in the low-price field. But you can't run a car on claims.

As a prospective buyer of a Ford, or any other car, you have a right to know the facts. Then you can decide for yourself which car gives you the most for the money. The Ford V-8 challenges any car in the low-price field to beat it on these important points of on total dollar-for-dollar value.

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS

LOOK FOR ROCKET BEST OIL CO. Distributors

Always SO ROUND and FIRM SO FULLY PACKED NO LOOSE ENDS

Always THE FINEST TOBACCOS

Always THE FINEST WORKMANSHIP

These days, smokers pay more attention to their cigarettes. Naturally they're talking about the way Luckies are made. Always so round, so firm and fully packed.

Brimful of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—with out loose ends. That's why Luckies draw easily, burn evenly and are so mild—so smooth.

Copyright, 1933, The American Tobacco Company.

“it's toasted” FOR THROAT PROTECTION—FOR BETTER TASTE

Always LUCKIES PLEASE