

FIRST REMOVAL OF BLUE EAGLE MADE AT GARY

Restaurant man Refuses to Explain When all his Employees Accuse

Denial of Violation Made; Case is Forerunner of Others, Warning

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The NRA blue eagle was ordered taken from Theodore G. Rahutis, Gary, Indiana, restaurateur, tonight by Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator in his first action of this kind.

Rahutis was charged with violating minimum wage and hour provisions of his president's re-employment agreement and with refusing to explain his actions to the local NRA board. Johnson ordered him to surrender any NRA insignia in his possession to the postmaster at Gary and to cease using it in advertising.

In Gary Rahutis denied he had violated the code, and asserted his establishment had been operating on a basis more favorable to employees than required.

"We have been employing our help not more than 56 hours a week," he said "and paying $44 per month. We provide three meals a day without deducting from employees' pay and make no charges for uniforms. Besides that we require that our employees work only 9 hours a day, 5 days a week and give one day a week off."

Johnson said the action against Rahutis was but a forerunner of others against flagrant violators of the president's re-employment agreement.

The recovery administration said that all Rahutis' employees had complained he was requiring them to work longer than provided by the president's re-employment agreement and was paying less than the minimum wages required. It was charged one employee was forced to work 21 hours in two days at 14 cents an hour.

ALLEGED ASSAULT CARTED TO POLICE

ward police headquarters, "hoping I'd get pinched for speeding and they'd catch the man."

He drove so fast Dawson did not dare jump off during the wild ride down Commercial and Liberty streets to Court, from there to High and back north to the city hall. A score of onlookers were attracted to city hall by Uebelmann's screaming tires as he raced around nearby corners.

City police about an hour earlier had been called to the apartment house where Dawson was, to quiet a wild party, they said.

After Uebelmann was given first aid at Salem General hospital, he was able to return to his residence, 1550 Madison street.

County Court to 'Be on Hand When Bids are Opened'

Marion county court members plan to attend a meeting of the federal bureau of public roads in Portland at 10 o'clock this morning at which time bids will be received on 2.9 miles of grading work on the North Santiam highway.

The grading is to be done just northwest of the North and South junction, six miles this side of the summit. The federal government has provided $120,000 for this job of grading which will leave only 11 miles of the North Santiam highway ungraded when this job is finished.

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—A defense motion to quash an indictment charging C. H. Brown with slandering of a bank was sustained here today by Circuit Judge H. D. Noyton and the case against him was dismissed.

The charge was brought by the state after an article purportedly written by Brown was published in the Pacific Record Herald, a newspaper of Earl H. Fehl, during the height of the Jackson county political turmoil last winter. The article dealt with a transfer of funds from a local bank.

$22,000, Major Braden cited. The program, should it be carried on here, will have as a nucleus the developmental activity now being carried on at the Leslie Junior high school and that already done at Olinger field. Suggestions were made yesterday that Englewood school grounds and Kay park, adjoining, be developed further from the civic and school recreational standpoint; and that the northwest section of the town have a gathering center of this kind, probably at Richmond school grounds.

CHANGE IN POLICE PAYMENT IS ASKED

PORTLAND, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The groundwork for a change in the fixed monthly payment of $10,180.70 to the state police department was understood to have been laid by members of the state police commission at their meeting here today.

Fist Fight Fatal To Portland Man

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Tom Bell, 60, Portland longshoreman, died in a hospital here tonight from a fractured skull received, police said, in a fist fight. Jack Reese, 49, was being held in the city jail for questioning in connection with the death. He was arrested on an assault and battery warrant sworn out by officers said, by Mrs. Clara Bell, widow of the longshoreman.

The Mary Boland-Charlie Ruggles comedy, "Mamma Loves Papa," opens today at the Elsinore theatre.
Charlie and Mary, who have been featured together in three previous pictures, are starred together for the first time in this film. The story tells of the misadventures of a papa who's afraid of his job and of a mama who thinks he's the greatest man on earth. And just as sure as mama is riding in the clouds, papa puts his foot into trouble and loses his job. A series of circumstances combine to make him bump into success, and mama thinks he's greater than ever.

AIRMAN WIRES HE IS KIDNAP VICTIM

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A telegram informing navy yard officials that he had been kidnaped in this city Friday night and released in Chicago Monday after being robbed was received at the yard tonight from Harold V. Westphal, missing airplane pilot.

The telegram said all of Westphal's money had been taken and asked officials of the navy yard to wire instructions.

Lieutenant Commander W. J. Larson said he had ordered Westphal to report to the navy recruiting office in Chicago. Commander Larson said he also had asked the Great Lakes naval station to investigate the case.

Westphal disappeared Friday night after leaving the United Service Men's club, and a few hours later his wife notified police.

A note, purported to have been written by him, and saying he had been kidnaped, was picked up on a road near Chicago yesterday.

Commander Larson said he believed Westphal had about $125 with him, and that he had not received his pay check when he disappeared.

Door prizes last night were won by the following: Statesman prize, Justice Harry Belt; prize by Oregon School of Beauty, Mrs. Clayton Foreman; prize by DuBois' Barber shop, Mrs. Oliver Huston; prize by Warner Brothers Elsinore theatre, Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard.

COOK IS EXAMINER OF APPLYING BANKS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Walter J. Cummings, chairman of the board of federal deposit insurance corporation, said tonight that state banks "have shown remarkable speed in applying for membership."

At the same time he appointed 47 national bank examiners as supervising examiners to ascertain if the banks are eligible to become members of the corporation.

Federal reserve members banks automatically become members when the new deposit insurance provision of the Glass-Steagall act becomes effective on January 1. Deposits will be insured in full on accounts up to $2,500.

An additional 799 examiners have been selected to aid the supervisors in investigating the banks. It is intended they shall be familiar with conditions in the states to which they are assigned.

The appointments include A. J. Cook, Salem, Oregon.

Hendricks - III With Influenza

Robert J. Hendricks, editor emeritus of The Statesman and columnist for this newspaper, has been confined to his home with a combined attack of influenza and poison oak for the past two days.

Although not feeling well he was at his desk in The Statesman building Saturday. Monday, in spite of his physician's objections, he wrote "Bits for Breakfast" for Tuesday morning's paper because of his interest in completion of the fund for fencing the old Lee mission site. Yesterday he was reported quite ill.

Annual Meeting Follows Dinner At Y.M. Tonight

Members of the Salem Y. M. C. A. will meet at the Y. building tonight at 6:15 for dinner and their annual business meeting, main feature of which will be the election of eight directors.

Fred Lockley, former member of the Salem Y. and now prominent Portland newspaperman, will deliver the principal address of the evening on the program arranged to honor Sir George Williams, founder of the association, and old-time members of the local Y.

Orchestral and vocal music and speeches from representatives of the organization's various activities will also have a place on the program.

FRIDAY DANCE WILL HONOR DRUM CORPS

As time of arrival of the champion Salem drum corps is still indefinite, plans for a formal greeting from Legionnaires and other citizens will be centered on the dance which the reception committee last night decided would be held at Crystal Gardens starting at 8:30 o'clock Friday night.

The dance will be preceded by a parade of the corps in the new uniforms, the Legion auxiliary champion trio and quartet, and other Legionnaires starting at 8 o'clock and coursing main downtown streets.

Gabrielson said last night that the corps probably would arrive at the Southern Pacific station here at 6:05 a. m. Thursday, since the drummers and buglers were expected to take a day's layover to view Los Angeles, preventing their arrival here at 7:20 p. m. Wednesday.

Allan C. Carson, ex-commander of Capital post, yesterday urged the corps to return Wednesday night, in answer to a telegram from Liberty, Kas.

To give the public an opportunity to see the corps' white and gold uniforms and hear the numbers, with which the auxiliary trio and quartet captured the national championships at Corvallis, the reception committee stated it had set only a small admission charge for the dance. Profits will go to relieve local businessmen as far as possible of their payment for the new uniforms.

Both Floors at Crystal Gardens will be opened for the dance, which will offer both modern and old-time tunes.

their deaths on the ill-fated ship were: M. Smith, Chicago, and a man named Schendorff, originally listed as Kendall, who boarded the plane at Cleveland.

CHESTERTON, Ind., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Seven persons were killed five miles southeast of here tonight when a giant United Air Lines transport plane enroute from New York to Chicago, crashed in flames on the James Smiley farm.

Bodies of the victims were charred beyond recognition. Witnesses said apparently the crash was preceded by an explosion in mid air.

The crash occurred shortly after 9 p. m., when the plane overdue, was battling winds into Chicago.

Miss Esther Stroup, school teacher living at the Smiley farm, said the family at the farm house heard the drone of the plane overhead, then suddenly the sound of an explosion. A "brilliant flash" appeared in the darkness and they saw the plane in flames.

Miss Stroup said she and members of the family were in bed when they were alerted as such. Eighteen other states filed similar returns, Van Winkle said.

The Oregon return made it plain that there was no serious objection to a determination upon the merits of the controversy and that the Oregon officials had no desire to interpose needless obstacles to such a result.

Van Winkle pointed out, however, that there were considerations of consequence which weighed heavily against granting the petition and against a determination of the issues on the basis of the complaint.

"The effect of the bill of complaint would be to invade the sovereignty of the state of Oregon and its internal affairs and to restrain the court's enforcement of state laws which are criminal in effect," Van Winkle's return read.

The question of jurisdiction also was raised by Van Winkle.

Read the "Ads" but don't ignore medical opinion

if you want to —keep bowels regular and comfortable
—make constipated spells rare as colds
—avoid danger of bowel strain

A doctor will tell you that the careless choice of laxatives is a common cause of chronic constipation. Any hospital offers evidence of the harm done by harsh laxatives that drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and even affect the liver and kidneys.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Can Constipation be Corrected?

"Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say thousands who have followed the sensible medical advice: 1. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose that you find suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without assistance.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time. Why not try it? Some pill or tablet may be more convenient to carry. But there is no "convenience" in any cathartic that's taken so frequently, you must carry it wherever you go!

What is the "Right" Laxative? In buying any laxative, read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains one doubtful drug, don't take it. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescriptional

Why Doctors give a liquid laxative

The habitual use of irritating salts, or powerful drugs in the highly concentrated form of pills and tablets is risky. The properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without discomfort or injury. You need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. The public can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore.
