BOOSTER PROGRAM SLATED SATURDAY

CHEMAWA, Oct. 10. — The chairman of committees to sponsor the Chemawa grange fair met this week at the home of H. W. Bowden to make arrangements for the event, to be held Saturday, October 14. This fair is being held as the regular booster program, but the grangers ask all nearby communities to join in an exhibit of home grown produce, canned fruit, handcrafts, baking and dairy products. A cafeteria supper will be served by the Home Economics club, from 5:30 until 7 p. m.

Exhibits should be brought as early in the day as possible in order that the booths may be arranged and exhibits judged. In the afternoon the ribbons will be in place, and in the evening a good program has been provided, with a speaker. After the program the donated exhibits will be auctioned, after which all may join in an old-fashioned dance.

The following committees have been appointed by Master Lester Evans: Textiles and art, Mrs. Holden; baking, Mrs. Hansen; pets, Mrs. Savage; canned fruit and vegetables, Mrs. Oldenburg; flowers, Mrs. Claggett; vegetables, Mr. Girod; dairy products, Mr. Savage; fruit, Mr. Bowden; concessions, Mr. Claggett; entertainment, Mrs. Kleihege; judging, Master Evans; publicity, Mrs. Francisco.

The regular grange meeting scheduled for Thursday night of this week has been postponed.

Rickreall Grange Sends Delegation For Booster Night

RICKREALL, Oct. 10. — A large group of members of the local grange here and a few guests visited the Brush College booster meeting Friday night, where a potluck dinner was served, after which an open meeting was held with a splendid program with Glen Adams as chairman.

Those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rowell, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kellogg, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dempsey, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Lantz and Frances and Florence, Mrs Mary Adams, Mrs. Mary Burch, Mrs. Forest Pence and Betty; Mrs. Arthur Beaver, Miss Elizabeth Rowell, Miss La Verne Kellogg, Claude Larkin. Mr. Larkin is master of the Rickreall grange.

Cabbage Heads Join In Picketing on AAA

DAYTON, Oct. 10.—An early Jersey Wakefield cabbage planted July 8 in the home garden of Adelbert Smith on his Willamette river bottom farm has five perfectly developed heads weighing approximately one pound each. It grew in a patch of 1000 normal plants.

FLOYD MILLER VISITS

RICKEY, Oct. 10. — Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Miller have as their guest for a month their son Floyd, a member of the United States air scouting marines, who has been stationed at Honolulu.

President's Pitch Brings Senators Victory

Though a native New Yorker President Roosevelt seems to be the Washington Senators' good-luck patron. He witnessed their first victory of the season and also their first win in the world series. Here is the Chief Executive tossing out the ball to start the game in the capital in which the Senators beat the Giants 4 to 0.

VARIETY FALL JOBS BEGUN AT SHELBURN

SHELBURN, Oct. 10. — W. A. Ewing has a crew of men employed clearing a tract of land on his farm here.

George C. Miller is delivering his date prunes to Thomas station, where he is having them dried at the Struchnier drier. Other prune growers in this section have finished harvesting their crop. Loss was light.

J. I. Shelton has returned from Dunsmuir, Cal., where he was looking over city property with a view of exchanging his farm near here for city property at that place.

Shelburn friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Arnold are invited to attend their golden wedding celebration on October 11, from 2 to 5 p. m.

F. G. Perry has moved to the farm recently occupied by the J. A. Gardner family. The Gardners have moved east of Salem.

Rally Day Observed By Evangelical Group

AIRLIE, Oct. 10.—Sunday was rally day at the Lewisville Evangelical church and was well attended. An excellent program was given in the morning with a basket dinner at noon. In the afternoon Rev. Paul Petticord of Corvallis gave the sermon. Rev. Stockard and family of Dallas and his sister, Miss Stockard, a missionary home on furlough from Guatemala, also assisted.

PRUNE HARVEST ENDING

LIBERTY, Oct. 10. — Prune picking will be entirely over here by the middle of the week, and driers soon after, depending on how much outside fruit is brought here for drying. Several truckloads were brought to Lane's drier from the Roseburg vicinity, where driers were unable to handle the bumper crop of fine prunes.

DISPLAYING BANNERS

BROOKS, Oct. 10.—The junior and senior average attendance was won by the Brooks Sunday school group at the Sunday school convention held recently at the Pratum Mennonite church. Salem Japanese won the average attendance banner and Labish Center the growth banner.

LIBERTY GRANGERS PLAN FALL DISPLAY

LIBERTY, Oct. 10. — The grange booster night will be held along with the harvest festival, Saturday, October 14. This will be the first fair held here in years by any organization and promises an interesting display.

Not only will exhibits cover fruit, nuts and vegetable lines, but fancy work, handicraft and canned goods will be shown. There will be a bazaar and concessions in regular fair style.

A variety will be offered in the evening's program, which will include as guest speaker, Willam Ellis whose topic will be "NRA and Its Relation to Agriculture." The Rebekah orchestra of Salem is scheduled to play; Jerry Sayler of Portland will lead community singing, and a variety of readings, music and stunts are listed. Everyone is invited. There is no charge.

Prune Harvest is At an End; Farm Activity Picks Up

PLEASANT VIEW, Oct. 10. — Prune harvest is over and some have disposed of their crop at a fair price, considering the condition of the fruit, which was badly damaged, owing to the heavy rainfall.

Everybody is taking advantage of the good weather. Farmers are busy with their fall seeding. Some are getting out wood and there is quite a lot of remodeling on buildings and fences.

J. F. Neal and Alvro Neal of Parkridge were callers here Thursday. They report that there are many deer hunters out there, but they are not meeting with very good success.

Boy Victim of "Tame" Bear

A kindly action in giving an apple to a tame bear resulted in death for young Grant Taylor (right), of Brookhaven, L. I. The bear lunged for the apple offered by the lad, the chain holding it snapped and the animal caught and mangled the boy. At left, Fred Raynor (with gun) is shown with the body of the bear after he had shot it. The owner of the animal, Gardner Murdock, is held on a technical homicide charge.

MARION FISHER HURT

VICTOR POINT, Oct. 10.—Marion Fischer narrowly escaped serious injury Friday, when his team hitched to a loaded wood wagon became suddenly frightened and ran away. Fischer was thrown under the wagon and it ran over him, badly bruising his back and shoulders, but luckily breaking no bones. The team ran about a quarter of a mile to the barn without losing the load and stopped of their own accord at the watering trough.

FEDERATED WOMEN MEET AT RICKREALL

RICKREALL, Oct. 10. — The institute of Polk county women's federated clubs Saturday was a decided success, and owing to a beautiful day a good crowd was present. Opening exercises included: Invocation, Mrs. McCallum, Salem, and the flag salute.

The program was: "Value of the Federated Club to the County," Mrs. Elsie Stultz, Perrydale Good - Will club; "New Ideas for Club Work or Programs," Mrs. Prather, Buena Vista club; "Depression - Education," Mrs. Zona Allen, Sweet Briar club; "Our State Library and How to Use It," Mrs. Helen Mackentosh, Salem; "Missionary Work in South America," Mrs. Hugh McCallum, Salem.

At 1 o'clock round table discussion was presided over by Sadie Orr Dunbar, national secretary; musical number, Ballston Sew and Social club; NRA address by Mrs. Hannah Martin, Salem.

Church School Heads For Quarter Chosen

RICKREALL, Oct. 10. — The community Sunday school here began work Sunday and officer appointments were made for the quarter: Superintendent, Mrs. Mary Adams; secretary, Robert Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Dempsey; oganist, Miss Mildred Baker; chorister, Miss Edith Hazeltine. A contest, to run until November 12, was started. Catherine Lowry and Betty Pence are leaders.

Cross - Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

1—drink flavored with aromatic herbs
6—early American president
11—plunder
12—legislative body
14—bone
15—steal game
17—object of worship
18—ancient Italian goddess of harvests
20—flat-bottomed boats
22—highest tone in Guido's scale
23—places
25—circular bands on a cask
27—upon
28—snares
30—make believe
32—conceal
34—rear appendage
35—merged
38—direct elsewhere
41—Chinese measure
42—one of the U. S.
44—pit for fodder
45—insect
47—locations
49—at present
50—tolerate
52—find fault
54—Hebrew letter
55—salt marsh
57—eradicated
59—insurgent
60—historian who flourished at the time of Augustus

VERTICAL

1—impure quartz
2—above
3—edge of a wound
4—city on the Aegean Sea
5—fruit
6—weed of the southeastern U. S.
7—prefix: down
8—bird of the cuckoo family
9—manufactured
10—slender branch developing a bud
11—perch for fowls
13—African antelope
16—place of confinement
19—part of a barrel
21—weapon with a long shaft
24—wasted
26—enclosures for swine
29—embraces the opinions of one faction
31—pertaining to mischievous sprites
33—pertaining to the vocabulary of a language
35—talks foolishly
36—consisting of lines
37—facts
39—runs off with a lover
40—propelled with oars
43—number
46—narrative
48—former title of respect
51—prominent ridge in cloth
53—lick up
56—compass point
58—therefore

Herewith is the solution to yesterday's Puzzle.

Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Home Defense

By CLIFF STERRETT

MICKEY MOUSE

Me and My Shadow

By WALT DISNEY

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"Happy Days Are Here Again"

By SEGAR

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Fetting Down to Earth—Enware

By DARREL McCLURE

TOOTS AND CASPER

A Voice That Wins

By JIMMY MURPHY