BILYEUS RETURNING TO WINTER IN SCIO

SCIO, Oct. 11.—Lester Bilyeu and family are expected in Scio sometime during the present month with a view of spending the winter here again. The last two winters have been spent in this part of the valley. Mr. Bilyeu, a son of George Bilyeu of Scio, was born and reared in the Scio neighborhood but has been ranching in the vicinity of Great Falls Mont., for several years.

William Farrow of Columbus, Neb., accompanied by his son, Walter, returned the forepart of the week to their Nebraska home after visiting for a few days at the home of F. Lukenbach in Scio. The Farrowes are father and brother, respectively, of Mrs. Lukenbach, whose serious illness brought the Nebraska relatives here. They visited the patient in a Salem hospital and found her condition discouraging.

F. A. Van Sickle of Salem, operator of show houses at Salem Heights and Gervais, has put on two pictures at Scio recently, using the ZCBJ hall in this city for the purpose.

At the election of Albany post of Veterans of Foreign Wars, Bert Alphin was elected commander, succeeding Mylo Barto of Scio, who has served during the past year in that capacity. Mrs. Annie D. Barto of Scio, was elected president of the auxiliary to succeed Mrs. Mae Tolson, formerly of Scio, the retiring head of the unit.

ATTEND SURPRISE SHOWER
HUBBARD, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Walter Reed attended a surprise shower for which Mrs. Delbert

Casualty After Strike Riot

One of the victims of the strike riot at the Spang-Chalfant steel mill in Ambridge, Pa., shown being carried to hospital by armed deputies following the clash between strike pickets and steel mill workers in which one man was shot and several injured with stones and clubs.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Oct. 11.—The Parent-Teachers' association will hold their first meeting in the new schoolhouse at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. This will be a social get-together for parents and teachers and all interested are invited. A brief program will be presented. Mrs. Karl P. Mobley is president.

West Salem Boy Scouts who will appear at the board of review Thursday are Winston Gossler, Alvin Richardson, Harry Wiedmaier and probably several others. Marvin O'Brian and Buck Herold are new scouts here and Earle and Wilson Maynard are transferred to a Salem troop.

The S. L. McClintocks, who operated the Maple tree fruit and vegetable stand just at the West Salem end of the bridge, have sold out and Wilbur Lewises will operate it from now on. Chris Burritt of Hoquiam, a weekend guest at the home of Mrs. Bertha K. Englehorn, returned home Monday accompanied by Mrs. Burritt.

Budget is Lowered
At the special called meeting of the city council, held Monday evening to draw up the budget for next year, that was done and no other business was considered. The budget is somewhat lower than last year and will be brought up before the free-holders' meeting on the evening of October 20 at an adjourned free-holders' meeting.

Pupils of the fourth grade are preparing a health play called "Good Habits and Bad Habits," which they will present to pupils of their building soon.

Welch was the inspiration at her home. The afternoon was spent informally and after opening the many lovely and dainty gifts, refreshments were served. Mrs. J. W. Cooper attended the regular monthly farm bureau meeting at the Oak Lawn hall Tuesday night. A varied program was presented and refreshments were served.

Birthday Social Given by Youths Of Church is Hit

TURNER, Oct. 11.—One of the best arranged and most enjoyed of the fall events of the young people's society of the Turner Christian church, was a birthday social given in the church parlors, Friday night. Each guest contributed a cent for each year of his or her age, the sum totaling $7. Tables were decorated to represent the four seasons of the year.

Musical numbers were given by Frank Searle and daughter, Adell of Dallas, Melvin and Richard Holt, Russel Denyer and Vernal Denham. Readings were given by Dr. H. L. Epley of Salem, Mrs. Joe Holt and Miss Emma Parr.

SATERN JOINS WIFE
SILVERTON, Oct. 11.—Ole Satern left Monday morning to be gone about two weeks. Mr. Satern will join his wife in Montana where she went to visit a brother two weeks ago. When he left here he had not definitely decided as to whether or not he would go on to Chicago to take in the world's fair. Mr. Satern is one of the pioneer hop growers in the Silverton community.

MANY PRIZES WON BY AMITY F. F. A.

Work Carried on During Summer Shows up in Fall Competitions

AMITY, Oct. 11.—Throughout the summer the F. F. A. boys were very active in their work. At the state fair the Amity chapter won $12 more prize money than any other school entered. Those winning in this division were: Fred May, Robert Reed, Adolfe Nelson, Marvin Williams, Forest Loop, Ralph and Floyd Kozelmann.

Douglas, Arthur Stoutenburg and Vernon Stephens. The first show attended was at Hillsboro. Irvin Douglas being high point man in the entire contest. The next show was at Graham. The state fair contest was held in September when the judging team received second. This team was a father and son team, composed of the three boys listed above and the following dads: C. F. Stephens, M. Williams and H. Stephens.

The most interesting contest was at the Clackamas county fair, as the team brought home a size large banner for the first place. The F. F. A. also has on display a large group of ribbons which have been won at the fairs this fall.

Girls Out for Sports
About 25 enthusiastic girls are now endeavoring to make a place on the volleyball team. Under the direction of Miss Burgess, they are making rapid progress in learning rules and are now getting down to the pleasure of "playing the game."

A few of last year's graduates are back again. Eleanor Massey, Gwendolyn Davidson, Alice Schaeffer and Franklin McCarty are taking post-graduate work. Irma Mitchell and Beth Christensen are attending Linfield college. Two of the class, Barbara Rogers and Jake Tompkins, are going to Oregon State college. Helen Parvin is at Behrke-Walker business college.

FIRE AT GAS STATION

JEFFERSON, Oct. 11.—The fire department was called out Monday morning to the Sheppard service station in the north part of town. The stove pipe was too close to the wall of the living room, and the wall caught on fire. It burned a small hole in the wall and the room was badly smoked, otherwise no serious damage was done. Wesley Barnes and family have moved into town and are occupying the T. O. Kenner house east of the Southern Pacific depot.

MARION TO NAME CLUB'S OFFICERS

MARION, Oct. 11.—The first meeting of the season for the Marion community club will be held Tuesday night, October 16, when there will be election of officers and a program sponsored by Miss Rose Hutton.

The meeting of the Farmers' Union local Friday night was not so well attended due to the harvest. A letter from National President John Simpson on the NRA was read by Selmar Lee.

The prune dryer on the Frederick Lafkey place burned last week. However, as there was only a few more days of drying and the dried prunes were in the warehouse they were saved without great loss.

James Colgan is building a new silo on his well equipped dairy farm south of Marion.

The students from Marion attending high schools in adjoining districts are quite equally divided between Jefferson, Stayton, Turner and Aumsville.

MERCHANTS believe in keeping their store doors wide open to customers. The telephone, too, is a customer's "doorway" of importance. It should swing open readily. The store should have enough main lines and enough extensions to receive business by telephone easily and without delay.
