

PLAY, BRIDGE TO BE BENEFIT

Events Sponsored by Civic Club; Student Vacancies are Filled

MOLALLA, Oct. 12. — A play to be put on November 24 and a bridge party for the last of October in the Odd Fellow's hall, were decided upon as the two money-making schemes to be sponsored by the Molalla civic club this fall, when the finance committee and the play committee met Monday afternoon at the F. M. Henriksen home.

Present were Mrs. Glenn Kirkwood, president of the civic club; Mrs. Ralph Holman and Mrs. F. M. Henriksen, of the finance committee, and Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. William Masterton and Mrs. C. L. Ireland of the play committee. Mrs. Don Hartung was not able to be present. It was decided that each member of the club would be responsible for one table at the card party.

Students Elect Secretary. MOLALLA, Oct. 12. — Genevieve Jackson was elected secretary of the student body of the high school, taking the place of Ruth Erickson, who did not return to school this year. Another office, that of yell king, was left vacant this year when Milton Schmidt did not return. Courtland Rife, a freshman, was elected to that position. Freshman class officers elected recently are Richard Wallace, president, and June Dahl, vice-president.

Leaving for Islands. MOLALLA, Oct. 12. — Charles Hedges, superintendent of the CCC camp south of Molalla, will leave the last of month for Philippine islands. He has spent several years in the islands as an engineer for a lumber company. His successor at the camp has not been chosen.

Enjoy Cold Swims. MOLALLA, Oct. 12. — Boy Scouts Sunday took a three-mile hike to Ward's place on the Molalla river, where some braved the icy river and went swimming, while others passed tests in fire building, tracking and cooking.
