here November 10 to 12, to extend a sign across Liberty street near the church where the meeting will be held.
First and second readings of the city budget ordinance were heard. The budget comes up for final decision October 30.
The council heard the first and second reading of an ordinance providing for the refunding of a $49,000 issue of 20-year bonds, previously refunded. The ordinance went to the ways and means committee for consideration.
Revision of Dr. O. A. Olson's 82-page fire prevention ordinance, eliminating the fire code and creating a fire prevention bureau, was on the agenda before the council's action. The amended ordinance would put the fire chief and fire committee in charge of the bureau, who would select a bureau chief. As many inspectors as the chief might designate and the building inspector, ex-officio, would comprise the bureau staff.
The aldermen passed a resolution submitting by Alderman Hughes directing the fire committee to prescribe and enforce drills for firemen.
A layman's inspection of the Little North Fork of the Santiam river revealed the river suitable for a water supply to within a few miles of the Amalgamated mine, Mayor Douglas McKay reported. McKay, Alderman Hughes and Batty Cooper, sanitary inspector, and City Engineer Hugh Rogers, recently viewed the river to a point 57 miles from Salem.

NEW MEN LEADERS FOR HIGHER BOARD

state board by the people, and of demanding "full and unequivocal loyalty" to the chancellor who is the board's chief executive officer, was announced by President Nelson as his first official act. He read a prepared statement which was considered highly significant in view of the turmoil that attended the September board meetings, most of which spiraled about the head of Chancellor W. J. Kerr.
At the conclusion of the election the board, on motion of B. F. Irvine, adopted the statement of the new chairman as its official policy. Irvine declared it to be "an historical educational document." President Nelson appointed McLeod and Marks to vacancies on the rules and by-laws committee and Mrs. Pierce to the buildings and grounds committee.

GRAIN EMBARGO IN N. DAKOTA ORDERED

The proclamation, which will be filed formally with the secretary of state tomorrow, said the producers of North Dakota hold a large amount of wheat "which in quantity and weight is the finest wheat this state has ever produced," and "is a prime wheat that is in great demand throughout the United States for the making of superior flour."
The "new deal" has not reached the farmer, said Governor Langer, who ordered a ban in the hope higher prices would result, but added "it is hardly possible that the embargo alone can raise the world grain markets."

T. McDaniel, was forced to unlock the vault.
McDaniel took nearly half an hour to open the vault. During the wait one of the intruders asked for a dollar watch, and when handed one by Scott, he paid the patron a dollar with the remark, "This is good money."
After exacting a promise of five minutes' silence on threat of locking everyone in the vault, the robbers left and drove off in their car. McDaniel said the assailants overlooked a sum of money equal to the amount they seized.

Oscar Naue Has Hip Fractured

STAYTON, Oct. 16.—Oscar Naue, aged about 48, received a dislocated hip and possible hip fracture in a peculiar accident at his place near Mehama Sunday.
Naue went out to open a gate for a large truck and trailer when in some manner the gate swung shut, throwing him under the heavy trailer, which ran over one hip. It was necessary to call an ambulance from Salem to bring the injured man to the Stayton hospital. He is a brother of Mrs. E. Stewart, who is here from Eugene visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Humphreys.

Wife Subject of Gossip is Plaintiff

Alleging that his wife became the subject of "great and merited gossip," that she drank to excess and was cruel and inhuman in her treatment of her husband, the latter, Sam C. Looney, yesterday filed suit for divorce in circuit court here. He asks the custody of their small child. He asserts that his wife took little care of the child and proved a poor mother.

mittee of 23 members. Under the federal relief regulations $5,000,000 of the $3,000,000 shall be raised by the state.
Another sub-committee, headed by Ray Gill, presented a so-called 13-point program as to how to raise the money.
The governor conferred with Fred Kiddle, president of the state senate, and Earl Snell, speaker of the house of representatives, regarding the date of the special session. The state constitutions limits a special session to 29 days, regardless of the willingness of the legislators to waive compensation at the rate of $3 a day.
Other important legislation that will come before the special session will provide for liquor control following repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution, amendment of the state constitution, and the transmission of power in connection with the Bonneville dam.

MEMBERSHIP PLAN TALKED BY LEGION

A cumulative type of membership program will be carried on by the membership committee of Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, Vice-commander King S. Bartlett, chairman, announced at last night's post meeting. The post has 85 members paid up for 1934, 78 more than at this time last year.
Each man on Bartlett's committee is to bring three men to the opening meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night at the chamber of commerce. These men will serve for a month or until they have brought in at least two dues payments. A new group of membership workers will be named monthly. Names of those bringing in two or more dues payments will be read at post sessions. Legion officers are to bring in at least five dues payments each.
A "charismatic day" will be the big membership day with places to pay dues at the Dugout and elsewhere about town," Bartlett said. Members of Bartlett's committee include R. H. Bennett, Carl Gabrielson, Leon M. Brown, Herman Brown, R. H. "Rufe" White, and William Blyden.

Methodists Plan Event to Honor Dr. Louis Magin

The Methodist churches of Salem are giving a reception Friday night at 8 o'clock at the First Methodist church to Dr. Louis Magin, superintendent of the Salem district, and his family. They have come to Salem to live and live their young people, who are attending Willamette university, have the advantages of living at home.
All friends of the four churches are invited to attend and a help makes the Magins feel welcome.

Craig is Held for Grand Jury Probe

Harry Craig, arrested in Portland Sunday for larceny last night at a slot machine in the Silver Eagle tavern, waited preliminary hearing in justice court yesterday and was bound to the grand jury. He is in jail, in lieu of $500 bail. Jack Campbell, who stood preliminary hearing on the charge, is also awaiting the pleasure of the grand jury.

Bearcats Allowed Old-Time Dancing

Faculty officials at Willamette university have authorized students to dance old-fashioned square dances at a hall on campus party to be given by the student body next week. The former ban on other dancing continues. The Halloween party will supplant the annual skating held on these evenings. Ruth Schroeder, vice-president of the student body, will have charge of the party.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. (AP)—Wildcat McMan, 154, Portland, defeated Don Hill, 154, Bakersfield, Calif., in the main event of tonight's wrestling card here, taking two falls out of three.
McCann took the first fall in 18 minutes with a full nelson, lost the second to Hill in 12 minutes on an airplane spin, then won the deciding fall with a body slam in 10 minutes.
Bullfrog Jackson, 150, Klamath Falls, won the semi-final from Sandy McShane, 151, Pasadena, two falls out of three.
Robin Reed, 147, Reedsport, took two straight falls from Henry Moore, 147, Everett, Wash. to win the opener.

2000 MEN WORKING SOON, BONNEVILLE

Approximately 2000 men will be employed on the Bonneville dam project by January 1, while between 3000 and 4000 men, the maximum number that will be employed at one time, will be at work early next spring, Colonel T. M. Robins, divisional engineer of the United States army engineering corps, with headquarters at San Francisco, told Senator McNary here Monday.
Colonel Robins, accompanied by Major C. P. Williams, district engineer of Portland, was here Monday conferring with Senator McNary and Representative Martin relative to the dam project.
"The actual number of men who will receive employment on the Bonneville dam has been greatly exaggerated," Robins said. He declared that the largest number of men would be employed indirectly in preparing the materials necessary for construction operations. Robins said the entire project, with its kindred benefits, would release more than $30,000,000 in the state.
The engineers said that the peak of employment on the dam should be reached next summer, and that the work probably would continue for four years. Robins expressed satisfaction with results of test pits and drill holes at the dam site, and declared that specifications for excavation work would be completed within the next few days. He said all engineering data was being checked at his San Francisco office. Robins estimated the cost of the excavation operations at $1,000,000.
"As soon as the first excavation work is carried out erection of the foundations will begin," Robins stated. He indicated that construction of the ship locks on the Oregon side would get under way soon.
Visiting engineers and Representative Martin were guests of Senator McNary at a noon luncheon at the Marion hotel.

TRIO GETS OFFERS OF CONCERT TOURS

Songs which won for the Salem Legion auxiliary trio and quartet national honors at Chicago this month featured an unusually large chamber of commerce luncheon gathering Monday. At the luncheon Lena Belle Tartar, who has directed the singers, indicated that Salem might gain still greater advertising from the victories, for already two definite offers of concert appearances have been received.
The trio made an additional hit with the home supporters when as a fifth number they sang "Trail 'Em to Salem."
Members of the trio are Mrs. Mildred Wyatt, Mrs. Grace Zosel and Mrs. Bernice Bowa. These, with Mrs. Arlene Brown, form the quartet. In the absence of the regular accompanist, Miss Edith Findley, Mrs. Kenneth Dalton accompanied the groups yesterday.

More Road Funds Favored, Baldock Finds on Journey

R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, returned here Monday from Milwaukee, Wis., where he attended the annual convention of the National Highway Commissioners' association. Baldock said the convention went on record favoring appropriation of additional federal funds for highway construction in the various states.
En route home Baldock spent two days at Chicago where he conferred with officials of the national accident prevention council.

tion that American cooperation alone would make possible a disarmament agreement.
Berlin — Foreign Minister von Neurath told correspondents of many world newspapers, in effect, "there must not be a second disarmament of Germany" and blamed England and France for the world's "angle."
London — Governmental circles avoided strong comment but Great Britain continued to hope that fears on the continent would pass.
Vienna — University students conducted pro-German demonstrations and the remark was heard in official circles that Germany's action typified the emotions of nations defeated in the war.
Paris — Premier Daladier tried through his foreign minister to keep the United States and Great Britain lined up with France in any proposed arms solution and expected to mention the situation when he brings a comprehensive financial program before the chamber of deputies Tuesday.

EXCITEMENT REIGNS ABOUT BRUSH CREEK

BRUSH CREEK, Oct. 16. — A man without shoes, walking at the side of the road between the Andrew Haere place and the Klopfeinstein sorghum factory, was picked up Saturday night between 8 and 9 o'clock by S. A. Pitney, constable. The man, when questioned said he was "just walking," and that he lived with some people in the Bethany district. Mr. Pitney took him to the place, and the people there reported that it was his home. His name was not revealed.
Someone had reported the wanderer to Mr. Pitney by telephone and he had motored out to investigate. Apparently the man was not intoxicated and other than that he was walking without his shoes, was apparently all right, Mr. Pitney said.
Pitney also said that this was but one of eight telephone calls he has had from here within the past 10 nights. Two other times he found transients in the neighborhood and these he told to "move on." The other five times, he reported, he was unable to find the cause of the disturbances.

JOB OFFICE WON'T OPEN TILL FRIDAY

Opening of the federal reemployment office for registration of all unemployed men in the county was yesterday postponed until Friday. E. T. Barnes, manager of the office which is to be located at 250 Court street, said the delay was occasioned by lack of needed supplies and also by the fact that the office could not be made fully ready until that date.
Friday, men whose names start with "A" or "B" will be registered.
While the registration is on and during the days the readjustment of the office in the progress, employers and workers will be served as well as possible, using card files on workers now available in the office.
Reregistration will be rushed as fast as possible.

Salem Girl Nearly Gets Call on Shot

STAYTON, Oct. 16.—Don't remove your shotgun shells in the living room—it might be hard on the furniture, so Dr. G. F. Korinek discovered Sunday night. He had been out hunting pheasants, and at home he was removing the remaining shells, when in some manner the hammer came down on one. The shell went through the cushion of an overstuffed chair, came out the side and most of the shot was embedded in the mop board, but not before it had severed the cord on a floor lamp and damaged the lamp post.
In the room with him at the time were his brother, Dr. W. A. Korinek and wife of Portland and Miss Caroline Nerod of Salem, the latter sitting barely two feet from where the bullets entered the chair.

COUNTY OFFICIALS MEETING DATE SET

Judges, Commissioners Will Assemble in Portland November 13, 14, 15
Plans for the 28th annual meeting of county officials to convene November 13, 14 and 15 in Portland were announced here Monday by James E. Smith, Marion county commissioner and its secretary and treasurer of the state association of county judges and commissioners.
For two days the county court officials will have their own meeting. The third day, Wednesday, November 15, they will meet with the state highway commission, also to gather in Portland.
The program for Monday, November 13, includes an address by Governor Julius L. Meier, one by Leslie M. Scott, chairman of the state highway commission, and one by W. H. Lynch, district engineer for the bureau of public roads of the federal government.
The following day John Carkin, state tax commissioner, will address a meeting on "Taxation," Sheriff Martin J. Pratt, of Multnomah county will speak on tax collection, C. J. Buck of the forest service will speak on "C. C. C. Camps and Forest Roads" and Raymond B. Wilcox will speak on state relief work.
The annual banquet of the commissioners and judges will be held Tuesday night, November 14, at the Portland hotel.

4 MOTOR CRASHES OCCUR AT DALLAS

Cars Smashed but No One Hurt in Variety Week-End Accidents
DALLAS, Oct. 16.—Four auto accidents occurred over the week-end but luckily the participants were not injured. A car driven by Arthur Henry Davis struck and demolished a light rig driven by Kate Stump on the Dallas-Falls City road about 6 p. m. Saturday. The Davis car had pulled to the edge of the road to pass another car and struck the back of the rig before it was noticed. The car was smashed badly around the front end and the rig was practically demolished.
A car driven by Harold Bevens turned over Sunday night on the King's valley road when it struck loose gravel. Bevens was accompanied by his father and brother but none of them was hurt beyond being shaken up. Damage consisted of smashed fenders and dents along the side and top.
Three cars were involved in an accident at the corner of Main and Court streets here Monday morning. Milo Nelson, driving down Main street, turned onto Court street and in doing so struck parked cars belonging to Claud Hyde and Charles Gregory. The Hyde car was knocked up on the sidewalk and was damaged to the extent of a sprung frame, damaged fenders and rear end. The Gregory car was struck in the rear end and the fenders were damaged. The frame was also sprung. The front end of Nelson's car was damaged around the radiator and fenders.
The fourth accident occurred at the corner of Church and Mill streets when a light pick-up truck driven by Harold Rich, struck the back end of a sedan driven by John Wick. The car driven by Wick had apparently just stopped in the middle of the street when Rich turned the corner and could not avoid hitting the sedan. Wick's car suffered a smashed rear fender and the truck was smashed around the left front wheel and fender.

LYDIA MEHL BRIDE OF B. SCHROEDER

DALLAS, Oct. 16.—One of the pretty weddings of the fall season occurred Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the new Dallas Christian church when Lydia Mehl became the bride of Bernard Schroeder. The bridal party entered the church auditorium to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played on the organ by Will Caldwell. Arthur Schroeder was best man. The bride's maids were Rachel Nelson and Velma Schroeder and the maid of honor, Dorothy Elliott.
The wedding ceremony was conducted by the pastor of the church, K. E. Burke. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Anna Dasbell sang "At Dawning" by Cadman. At the conclusion of the wedding vows Mrs. K. E. Burke sang "Beulah" by d'Arlefort. Doris Newcomb, daughter of the groom, presided at the piano for the two songs and Mrs. Robert Fisher played the violin obligato.
The bride was lovely in a gown of eggshell satin made princess style. Her veil was held in place by a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a large bouquet of pink rose buds.
Ushers for the occasion were the bride's brother, Sam Mehl, and Erwin Lang. The wedding took place in the presence of a large company of members and friends of the Dallas Christian church and the Salt Creek Baptist church.
Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schroeder, at Salt Creek. Assisting in the serving at the reception were Edna Lang, Helen and Vesta Schroeder.
