

YEAR'S LABORS ARE OUTLINED

For Members Civic Club at Molalla; Students to Get Hot Lunches

MOLALLA, Oct. 16.—An outline for the year's work, including study clubs, programs of meetings, meeting places, benefits to raise money for the support of the two main projects of the Civic club—the library and the city park—were presented by Mrs. Glenn Kirkwood, president of the Molalla Civic club, at the first fall meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. G. Miller, Mrs. Leo Shaver assisted Mrs. Miller as hostess.

The study club will be organized under the direction of Mrs. Orla Buxton, chairman, Mrs. George Overjorde and Mrs. George Blachford. The first meeting will be at Mrs. Overjorde's, October 20 at 2 P. M., the subject to be studied will be Oregon flowers and birds.

The schedule of meeting places for this year as announced was: November, Mrs. Glenn Kirkwood; December, Mrs. F. M. Henriksen; January, Mrs. C. L. Ireland; February, Mrs. J. O. Stearns; March, Mrs. Frank Dickson; April, Mrs. William Masterton; May, Mrs. W. W. Everhart; and June, Mrs. George Case.

The program consisted of a talk by Audrey Henriksen on New Mexico, where she has lived. At the next meeting, Mrs. S. A. Knapp will describe her trip to the world's fair.

Physical Exams Today

MOLALLA, Oct. 16.—Molalla first grade pupils will be given physical and dental examinations Tuesday, according to arrangements made by Mrs. William Moore, chairman of the health committee of the P. T. A. The county health doctor and Dr. Jason Robertson, local dentist, will give the examinations to children whose parents desire the examinations.

Serve Hot Food Soon

MOLALLA, Oct. 16.—Hot lunches will be served grammar school pupils just as soon as a hot water tank is installed in the school basement, Mrs. Oliver Buxton, chairman of the hot lunch committee, announced at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon in the grade school. Lunches will be free, but donations of vegetables and milk from parents of children eating at the school will be welcomed, she said.

Among business matters decided at the meeting were the changing of the meeting date from the second Friday of each month to the first Friday to avoid two meetings in succession, since the Civic club meets the second Thursday; the election of Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. J. J. Waller

Fair at Chemawa is Big Event of Grangers' Year; Many Products Exhibited

CHEMAWA, Oct. 16.—The combination bazaar fair and booster program which was held Saturday afternoon and evening at the hall under the direction of Mrs. D. B. Kiehege, lecturer, was the most outstanding success of the grange year. During the afternoon large crowds viewed the splendid exhibits. A jitzey dinner was served by the Mesdames H. W. Bowden, J. C. Ackman, W. E. Savage, C. Beckner and F. Gansard.

During the evening the following program was enjoyed: community singing, piano duet by Mrs. D. B. Kiehege and Miss Irma Keefe; recitation by Eileen Holden, vocal solo by Glenn Savage, reading by Catherine Bailey, greetings by the master, Lester Evans, reading by Mrs. S. H. Van Trump, history of the grange by Mrs. Clara Girod and an address by S. H. Van Trump. Responses were made by James T. Ryan and Seymour Jones.

Specials are Shown

Special exhibits included one from the Iridia school consisting of chemistry and biology specimens, farm products, sewing and cooking, and shop projects under the direction of Mrs. M. L. Smith, assisted by Miss Clara Strauch, Donna May LaFonso, Myrtle Dupree, Frieda Swann, Ed Mason, H. Judson, M. L. Smith, Carl Turner and Fred Ratsburg. Bernice Clairmont demonstrated bathing a baby; Pearl Boyd demonstrated finger and Mrs. Oliver Buxton to alternate at the state convention of a study club and the decision to encourage associate membership in the association among people who do not feel they can pay the dues.

School Calendar Out

MOLALLA, Oct. 16.—The schedule of events for the school year as announced by the principal of the high school, Glenn Kirkwood, is:

November 10, Girls' league night; December 15, junior play; February 2, student body play; February 22, mother and daughter banquet; March 23, operetta, and April 27, senior play.

The schedule of meetings for the different organizations has been worked out on the following plan: The classes meet the first Wednesday of each month during the activity period. The student body meets the second Wednesday of each month. The Girls' league and the Orange M meet the third Wednesday and the Future Farmers and the Home Economics club the fourth Wednesday. The Commercial club will meet the first Wednesday during the first period and the language clubs will meet the second Wednesday during the third period.

DIVORCES GIVEN 2 COUPLES IN DALLAS

Special Venire Called for Jury Service; Will Report Today

DALLAS, Oct. 16.—The case of Graves vs. Southern Pacific company was declared a non-suit in circuit court here Saturday morning and the case was dismissed. The trial of this case started Friday afternoon.

Two divorces were granted by Judge Arlie G. Walker Saturday when the defendants failed to appear. Kenneth P. Martin was granted a divorce from Alta Martin, the defendant to have custody of three minor children and the plaintiff to pay the defendant a reasonable sum for the support of the children. The other divorce was granted Mary D. Lund from Fred D. Lund, the plaintiff receiving custody of two minor children and a reasonable amount for their support.

New Venire Called

A third special venire was called Saturday and ordered to report at 1:30 Tuesday. The second special venire of this term reported Monday morning. The new venire was composed of 12 men and three women: James Best, farmer, Salem route 2; Alfred Domoshofsky, farmer, Dallas route 3; Odville Gillespie, farmer, Rickreall; Emil Helleskes, farmer, Sheridan route 1; Robert Hayes, housewife, Dallas; Stella Henry, housewife, Salem route 1; Frank N. Hobson, farmer, Dallas route 3; William M. Logan, farmer, Salem route 1; F. S. Mahood, farmer, Amity route 2; W. E. Marks, farmer, Sheridan route 1; Mildred Morris, housewife, Sheridan route 1; Henry J. Nizer, farmer, Salem route 1; Claude Sawtelle, farmer, Sheridan route 1; Ray R. Tull, farmer, Dallas route 1; Earl W. Watt, laborer, Falls City.

Dakota Weather Tries Plan of Compensation

MONMOUTH, Oct. 16.—Mrs. J. C. Whitty of Minot, N. D., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. M. Partridge, in Monmouth for the past three weeks, departed today for her home. She is on the final lap of a vacation trip. Mrs. Whitty says the Dakotas are in the midst of a delightful autumn, in which Indian summer is playing its true-to-life drama. October, 1932, however, was a phenomenon for a terrific snow storm held up railroad trains and stalled automobiles between Minot and Jamestown for days.

hoids and Mrs. S. Jones, 2 Mrs. W. E. Savage.

The late hours of the evening were spent in dancing with music furnished by the Indian Boys orchestra. The next regular meeting will be on the 26th at the hall.

Farmers' Union News

DALLAS.—The quarterly meeting of the Polk county Farmers' Union will be held at Mt. Pisgah hall in North Dallas Wednesday, October 18. Regular business will be taken up at 10 o'clock, and potluck dinner will be served at noon by women of Elkins local. Dr. W. A. Schoenfeld of Oregon State college will talk on the NRA and AAA. Senator Sam Brown will talk on farm problems. The afternoon session will be open and visitors are welcome.

GREENWOOD.—At the last regular meeting of the Greenwood Farmers' Union local, the matter of getting up a load of wheat to take to a flour mill in Llan county for exchange for 40 pounds of flour to the bushel was carried over to the next meeting. Delegates elected to the county union meeting at Mt. Pisgah hall in North Dallas, Wednesday, October 18, were E. F. Brown, T. J. Primus, Warren Allen, Hugh Rogers, Frank Farmer and Byron Ruddle. R. W. Hogg is president of the local. Robert Pence, the secretary, is convalescing from an appendix operation.

Eastern Star Has Session to Honor Highest Officers

TURNER, Oct. 16.—The Eastern Star met Wednesday night and after the business session all were invited to the dining room which was decorated with reminders of autumn. The lunch was in honor of the acting worthy matron, Miss Hazel Bones, given by the inspiration of Miss Hildred and Harlan Bones. Out-of-town honor guests were Grand Worthy Patron Rex W. Davis and wife, Grand Representative Mrs. Milton L. Myers, also Mrs. Ralph Thompson of Salem.

The lodge voted to accept the invitation of Rev. N. S. Hawk, pastor of the M. E. church, to attend church service Sunday morning. The lodge served a basket dinner after the service at their hall and invited their friends to meet with them.

YOUNG VIOLINIST HURT

MONMOUTH, Oct. 16.—Elsie Bunn Miller, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Miller, fell on the training school campus Monday, fracturing her right wrist. This will work a special hardship on the young lady who is a youthful violinist of no small ability.

FRESH ARE INITIATED

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 16.—Initiation exercises were held for the freshman class in the high school auditorium Friday night, with the sophomores in charge. Refreshments were served after the stunts were over. Miss Gladys Mack is advisor for the two classes.

COMMITTEES TOLD FOR CLUB SESSIONS

WALDO HILLS, Oct. 16.—Neither the rain nor the fact that the date was Friday the 13th could keep people from the opening meeting of the Waldo Hills community club. The meeting was presided over by Theodore Riches elected at the June meeting.

He announced the following committees: refreshments, Mrs. Fred D. Knight; dance, Mrs. J. M. Doerfler, W. F. Krenz, Robert Riches; social, Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Mrs. D. F. Hillman, Ferdinand Rue; play, Mrs. Edson Comstock; Mrs. J. W. Goodknecht, Frank Bowers; reception, Mrs. Albert Mader, Fred Knight, Frank Bowers.

After the business meeting a snappy program was presented by the Vandy Villians sent by the Salem chamber of commerce. The program took the form of a broadcast from station BVD with Hobart Smith as the general announcer. The personnel of the Villians was Mrs. Mabel Low, Miss Doris Battles, Austin Lee, Bud Melin and Hobart Smith.

It's Coming! IT WILL BE HERE SOON!

Wait!

THE GREATEST FEAT OF ENGINEERING AND DESIGNING IN THE PAST DECADE!

THE NEW 1934

NASH SIXES and EIGHTS

Watch For Announcement Of First Showing!

James H. Maden Co., Inc.

NEW LOCATION 350 N. High St. NEW LOCATION

BUSICK'S

MARION STREET Super Market

NOT A CHAIN STORE

Hundreds of people are coming to this Market, not only because they don't wish to patronize a Wall Street trust, but because they actually do save real money at this store. Not that they or we have anything against the chains as such, but it's to their advantage to help build this community, especially so when a saving of their own money can be made at the same time.

Below we list a few items representative of the savings you may expect at all times at this store:

FRESH FRUIT and VEGETABLES
Oregon Burbank POTATOES 10 pounds 15c
NETTED GEM Nice Clean Well-Graded Washington No. 2 Grade	POTATOES 10 Pound sacks 49c
DANISH SQUASH Nice Size, Well Matured	No. 1 Fancy SWEET POTATOES Nice Even Size
6 for 10c Dozen 17c	4 lbs. 11c
PRIME BEEF GOVERNMENT INSPECTED
This meat is Swifts Prime Steer Beef and should not be confused (because of our low price) with the many cheaper grades offered for sale.
Try one of these tender, juicy steaks — three to choose from	Sirloin Steak . . } Round Steak . . } Rib Steak } lb. 10c
POT ROAST lb. 8c	BOILING BEEF lb. 6c
Hamburger It's Prime Beef Ground 2 Lbs. 15c	Swifts Empire BACON 1/4 or whole Piece, lb. 15c

Nature's Gift to LUCKY SMOKERS

The Cream of the Crop

It's not by accident that Luckies draw so easily, burn so evenly. For each and every Lucky is fully packed—filled to the brim with sweet, ripe, mellow Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Round, firm—no loose ends. That's why Luckies are so smooth.

“it's toasted”
FOR THROAT PROTECTION—FOR BETTER TASTE

ALWAYS the finest tobaccos
ALWAYS the finest workmanship
ALWAYS Luckies please!