

PLAN FOR MEMORIAL HOME IS OUTLINED

Pastors Committee Chosen; Will be Used for Aged Ministers

TURNER, Oct. 18.—The Turner memorial home was originally given in deeds of trust to Eugene Bible university, as trustee, and was recently assigned to the trusteeship of Dr. H. G. Epley by the circuit court, said court having accepted the application of the bible university to be relieved from the trust. The present trustees appointed Rev. E. J. Cluttsop superintendent and he has arranged for W. F. Parr to farm the 100 acres south of Turner which is part of the trust.

Since Mr. Parr began operations a small house has been erected in which the Parr family will live, and the Turner memorial home through Mr. Parr has seeded 10 acres on the south end to oats and vetch.

Pastors on Committee
All the full time resident pastors of Marion county Christian churches have agreed to become a committee on credentials and auditing. They will examine applications of all who are seeking admittance to the home and will audit the financial affairs of the home and report their findings to the annual state convention of the Christian churches, held at Turner.

The present members of this committee are Rev. Guy Drill, pastor of the First Christian church of Salem; Rev. B. F. Shoemaker, pastor of the Christian church of Scotts Mills; Rev. W. H. Lyman, pastor of the Christian church at Stayton; Rev. Frances Winder, pastor of the Mill City Christian church; Rev. W. O. Livingston, pastor of the Silverton Christian church; Rev. Hugh McCallum, pastor of the Court Street Christian church Salem.

The Turner memorial home is not to be confused in any respect with the home to be built for the needy, according to the will of the late Mrs. Cornelia A. Davis. Plans are to operate the Turner memorial home for the aged and needy Christian church ministers and their wives. The first to be accepted in the home are Rev. and Mrs. Judson Brown of Richland. Rev. Brown has been an active minister for over 50 years and has but recently retired. It is hoped that after a year or two a large part of the support of the home will be realized from the Turner memorial home farm. In the meantime only a limited number will be accommodated and their support will come from interested friends.

C. C. C. Boys Fail To Negotiate Turn; 2 Injured Slightly

LYONS, Oct. 18.—A roadster driven by some CCC boys turned over at the Engdahl corner in Lyons late Sunday night. There were six boys riding in the car, two of whom were hurt but not seriously. They were taken to Stayton for medical treatment which consisted of gas burns and one had his neck wrenched. The car was burned beyond repairing. The sharp curve has no warning sign and strangers have met with several accidents at that corner.

GETS TEACHING JOB
SCOTTS MILLS, Oct. 18.—Miss Beatrice Amundson returned home Sunday from Klamath Falls where she accompanied Miss Edna Pitts of Salem, who had accepted a position in the Klamath Falls high school as economics teacher. Mr. and Mrs. H. Goodman and family, who have been living on the Robinson place, moved Saturday to Garibaldi.

POTTS TO PORTLAND
TALBOT, Oct. 18.—G. W. Potts, state president of the Farmers union and his wife left this morning for Portland. Mr. Potts will attend union meetings in that locality the rest of the week and Mrs. Potts will visit her sister in Portland.

VISIT IDAHO RELATIVES
LYONS, Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen, accompanied by C. B. Barry, left the first of this week on a trip to Idaho to visit relatives.

Globe-Hopper

Miss Margery Brown, New York aviator and writer, who plans a trip around the world during which she will use a plane whenever she finds one available. Because she is less than 5 feet tall, she must carry a set of rubber extensions on her travels so that her feet can reach the controls.

GRANGERS' COLUMN

LIBERTY, Oct. 18.—The Red Hills grange annual booster night and fair, held Saturday, was a great success. William P. Ellis, head of the NRA in Salem, was the main speaker, and short talks were given by F. E. Wilson, master; C. A. Ratcliff, Mrs. W. R.

Dallas, Harold Pruitt, Jerry Saylor who also sang. The Salem Red Hills orchestra furnished music and Jacqueline Judd and Dorothy Beckley gave readings.

Mrs. W. R. Dallas was general chairman for the fair. Jay Morris of Salem Heights judged flowers, giving Mrs. Stacey first, Mrs. Oscar Dancer, second, and Mrs. Charles Ruggles, third.

Mrs. Laura Holder, Liberty, judged "depression" sewing, with Mrs. George Heckart winning first. Mrs. Dallas, second, and Mrs. Stacey, third. The Home Ec club exhibited many aprons. In antiques, of great interest was the christening dress which has been in the T. D. Trick, Rosedale, family for 75 years. Special mention went to Chinese linen shown by Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff, Morning-side. In the quilt display, the oldest one, 150 years, was shown by Mrs. Reed Chambers, Salem, and second oldest by Mrs. John Daach.

F. G. Judd showed the largest variety of farm fruits and vegetables, with next largest showing by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hrubetz. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams. Tallest kale was grown by F. Hrubetz; best chard by O. B. Beckley; tallest corn by Charles Ruggles, Guy Williams and Roy Coffey; vegetable oddities were shown by William Zosel and the Coffeys. Japanese millet grown by F. L. Scott got special mention and C. H. Taylor had best display of all kinds of corn.

VICTOR POINT, Oct. 18.—The social meeting of Union Hill grange was enjoyed by about 50 members and guests Saturday night with "500" and dancing in charge of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krens and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd

Fox. Clair Morley received high score and Millard Shelton low. Supper at a late hour was served by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. H. Peters.

The regular meeting of the grange Friday night will be preceded by potluck supper, served by Mr. and Mrs. John Steinberger and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peters. The program will be presented by the home economics club.

SUBMITTY, Oct. 18.—Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock will be a recital given by the music pupils of Sister Mercedes.

One-Mill Tax Voted To Buy Kester Land

HUBBARD, Oct. 18.—By a unanimous vote, the taxpayers of Hubbard school district who were present decided to buy enough of the Lena Kester property to square up the school grounds. The budget this year was reduced $3,000, and $3500 and as there will be no surplus money to pay for the property and a division fence, a one mill tax was voted to pay for it.
