Caughell, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. Wolcott Buren and hostess, Mrs. Rex Adolph.

Aurora—Mrs. B. W. Stoner entertained the bridge club and a number of additional friends Friday. Mrs. P. O. Ottaway received a special honor by the presentation of a corsage and guest prize which she disclosed to her associates that they were assisting in the celebration of a birthday anniversary. Card honors were won by Mrs. John Kraus and Mrs. B. F. Giesy. Mrs. M. F. Swigart of Eugene was an out-of-town guest.

Liberty—The Women's club will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harold Lane. All members are asked to be present as delegates to the county and district federation meets will be named. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Ruggles and Mrs. W. Fair. Newcomers are especially invited.

Brooks—Members of the Brooks Ladies Aid society plan to attend the sub-district Ladies Aid rally to be held Thursday at the Stayton Methodist church.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
How do youngsters learn to sew? Why just as we did, of course, way back in the days when we used to make new outfits for our very best doll—only it's twice as much fun and easier for the present generation of little mothers. This cunning little wardrobe contains hat, coat, frock, panties and pajamas, and one of the instructor charts that tells with words and pictures exactly how to put it together!

Pattern 1552 is available for 15, 22 and 24 inch dolls. See instructor chart for yardage.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (color preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and city number. Be sure to state size.

The smartest fall and winter styles, the newest fabric, hints on harmonizing colors and jewelry, how to knit a smart sweater, gifts for the holiday, last minute fashion flashes—these are among the fascinating items in the new Fall and Winter edition of the Anne Adams Fashion Book. This book will help you save money. Order your copy today! Price of catalog, fifteen cents. Catalog and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Impressive Mass at Mt. Angel Monday Unites Justine Drescher and A. J. Harris

Labish Center—At an impressive nuptial mass performed at 8:15 o'clock Monday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel, Miss Justine Drescher became the bride of August J. Harris of this place. Rev. Father Mollenbier of Portland, an uncle of the bride, conducted the marriage rites in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Drescher of Mt. Angel and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Harris of this place. The young couple will make their home here. They will be at home to their many friends at the new home constructed by Mr. Harris this summer on the Harris place at the north side of the lake.

Willard Aker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Aker, was recently honored with a birthday supper given at the Aker home by his mother.

Woodburn—Mrs. J. Dallas Sidwell of Portland gave an interesting and instructive speech to members of the Federated Women of the Woodburn Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at the meeting held at the Third street home of Mrs. A. E. Austin. Mrs. Sidwell is the Americanization chairman for the Portland district of the Parent-Teachers association and secretary for the Portland Americanization council. She has been working among the foreign-born for nine years.

Miss Joyce Woodfin played several of her own piano compositions. Miss Pauline Livesay read scripture passages and Mrs. P. M. Hammond led the prayer. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. Paul Pemberton pouring.

Hostesses were, besides Mrs. Austin, Mrs. E. A. Lytle, Mrs. Frank Sattelmier, Mrs. A. E. Leary, Mrs. Ellis Soules.

Mt. Angel—At a very pretty wedding in St. Mary's church at 8:15 Tuesday morning Marie Sprauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sprauer, became the bride of Huber Easter. Rev. Father Berchthold officiated. The sanctuary was beautiful with autumn leaves, ferns, dahlias and trailing vines. The bride, all in white and carrying white carnation and pink rosebuds, was attended by her sister, Caroline Sprauer, maid of honor, and Louise Sprauer, a cousin, bridesmaid. The bridesmaid was dressed in green and the maid of honor wore orchid and both carried bouquets of salmon colored gladioli. Lester Blum was best man.

The wedding dinner was served at the Marion hotel at 12:30 and at 2:30 a reception was held at the home of the bride. In the evening a wedding dance was given in the hall at Monitor.

Liberty—A wedding of much interest here took place in Vancouver Saturday when Miss Marjory Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Salem became the bride of Mr. Isaac Schmidt, son of Mrs. Katherine Schmidt of Liberty.

Both are well known here, the bride having made her home here for some time and attended school here. After their wedding trip the young couple will live here, where their new home has just been completed.

Aurora—To say goodbye to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stephens and their daughter Marjorie, who are leaving Aurora to make their home in Portland, a 6:30 supper was served Saturday night in their honor at the A. L. Strickland home. An evening of bridge followed with card honors going to Mrs. U. Ellers, Mrs. E. G. Robinson, Mrs. Stephens and Mr. J. W. Caddler. Mrs. Stephens was presented with a gift.

Sublimity—Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Louise Hafner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hafner and Clifford Stuhr. Walnetta Hafner, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Edward Burkhardt, cousin of the bride, was best man. The bride was dressed in white and the bridesmaid in light green.

An invitation dance and shower for Mr. and Mrs. Stuhr was held Tuesday night.

Silverton—Mrs. F. J. Roubal entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. William Ellenberg of Cleveland, Ohio, who leaves for her home Thursday. Mrs. Ellenberg came to Silverton during the summer and has been visiting at the home of her daughter since. On her return trip she plans to spend several days at the Century of Progress at Chicago.

Covers at luncheon were placed for Mrs. Ellenberg, Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. A. Grinde, Mrs. F. A. Moore, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Mrs. C. J. Hall, Mrs. Edson Comstock and Mrs. Roubal.
