

PROHIBITION TO BE MADE ISSUE AGAIN

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19 (AP)—A renewed drive toward the reinstatement of prohibition in the event the 18th amendment is repealed will be the program of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance union for the coming year delegates to the annual convention here today decided. A total of 127 delegates representing 23 counties in the state voted.

Mrs. Ada Jolley was reelected president of the state union. The only new officer elected was Mrs. Etta White of Portland, chosen to succeed Mrs. M. Frances Swope and corresponding secretary. Mrs. Swope retired as an officer of the union after more than 20 years of service.

Other officers, all reelected, were Mrs. Rachel Ellis of Madras, vice president; Mrs. Alice Thomas of Portland, treasurer, and Mrs. D. G. Clark of Portland, recording secretary.

The state union indicated it will attempt to see that the state law requiring scientific temperance instruction be given on the schools be strictly carried out. The union will support a bill in the state legislature endorsing federal control of motion pictures, and will urge the entrance of the United States into the world court.

Envoy Goes Mildly Scotch

While balking at donning kilts, the national costume, Judge Robert Bingham, U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain, nevertheless makes a concession to his Scottish host, Hugh Campbell (left), noted singer, by wearing an inverness cape as he hunts grouse on the moors at Stracathra, Scotland. Mrs. Bingham is at right.

SCHACHT FUNERAL SLATED SATURDAY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19 (AP)—Martin Schacht, 49, Portland engineer and architect, and former Pacific coast manager of the Foundation company of New York died here last night after five years' illness. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon.

From 1927 to 1929 while he was associated with the Foundation company, he directed construction of several large projects among them the Big Meadows dam at Keddie, Calif., the Columbia Steel company plant at Portland, the San Mateo-Hayward bridge across San Francisco bay, and the Goodrich Rubber company plant in Los Angeles.

Schacht was a member of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club and the Arlington club of Portland; the Family club in San Francisco; the Burlingame Country club, Burlingame, Calif., and the Jonathan club in Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held here Saturday afternoon.

Japan Protests Nazi Treatment Of Yellow Race

TOKYO, Oct. 19. (AP)—Japan has protested to Germany against Nazi racial discrimination as anti-Japanese, a foreign office spokesman revealed today.

He added that the Japanese government and the people of Japan are "highly indignant at Germany's branding us inferior."

Attacker

Rudolf Dertil, the 22-year-old Vienna ex-soldier, who recently made an attempt to assassinate Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss of Austria, inflicting two wounds on the statesman. Dertil, said to be an Austrian Nazi, fired at the Chancellor while pretending to present a petition.

Referring to "the well known sensitiveness of the Japanese on racial matters," the spokesman pointed out that even in the United States the Japanese are not subjected to the same treatment as negroes. Germany, he said, has linked them in the same category.

MRS. HOOVER AIDS GIRL SCOUT RALLY

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19. (AP)—Dressed in the severely tailored but becoming sage green uniform of the Girl Scouts, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, former first lady of the land, greeted several hundred Girl Scouts and their leaders here this afternoon.

The meeting was the highlight of a busy day's stay in this city as the guest of the Portland Girl Scout council. After responding with the deftness of a veteran to numerous scout salutes, Mrs. Hoover addressed her "sister scouts."

Waving aside the loudspeaker that had been arranged on the platform, Mrs. Hoover gathered her audience close about her, then spoke informally on the ideals of scouting and related to her historical highlights of the recent national convention in Milwaukee, Wis., from which she is returning home to Palo Alto after being elected a member of the national board of directors.

County's Board Of Education To Draw Up Budget

An additional task confronts the county board of education which handles the funds for non-high school districts when it meets here today, it was discovered yesterday by County School Superintendent Mary L. Fuikerson. Besides hearing reports on high school tuition costs the board will find itself faced with the necessity of drawing up a

Speakers Listed For State Meet, Parent-Teachers

Among the speakers for the bi-annual convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers which will be held here next week are C. A. Howard, state superintendent of public instruction; Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, Rev. Harvey Swanson, Mrs. Inez Miller and Mrs. Hugh Bradford. The convention will open at the First Presbyterian church at 7:45 p. m. Tuesday and continue with sessions morning, afternoon and evening until Friday noon. The public is invited to all sessions.

RADIO BASIS FOR ORIENT SQUABBLE

TOKYO, Oct. 20. (AP)—(Friday)—The foreign office stated today that it reports of Nanking's cancellation of the Sino-Japanese wireless agreement of 1918 and the Sino-American wireless agreement of 1921 proved correct, Japan must vigorously protest to the Nanking government.

These contracts have been a source of a long drawn out and still unsettled Japanese-American diplomatic controversy. Japan has maintained that the monopolistic pledges of the 1918 agreement invalidated the later Sino-American agreements. A foreign office spokesman declared that Japan still maintained the legality of the 1918 agreement, including the monopolistic principle, although the later Sino-American radio contracts, actually operating, made the principle a dead letter.

Kluxers' Floats Not Admitted to Recovery Parade

DENVER, Oct. 19. (AP)—On the eve of Denver's NRA parade protests were lodged with the parade committee today against the inclusion in the procession of two Ku Klux Klan floats.

The protests were made by representatives of Jewish and Catholic organizations.

As a result, Mrs. George Lerg, head of the arrangements committee, declared tonight that the Ku Klux Klan floats will not appear in the line of march tomorrow. "I do not regard the Ku Klux Klan as a patriotic or fraternal organization," Mrs. Lerg said. "Therefore, its floats will not be in the parade."

GERMANY SEVERS LEAGUE RELATION

BERLIN, Oct. 19. (AP)—The German government officially notified the general secretary of the league of nations tonight of its withdrawal from that body.

Thereby Germany carried out a decision announced last Saturday. Reports had intimated she might remain.

Only a few hours before the communication was sent to Geneva, the officially inspired Diplomatich Politische Korrespondenz asserted that "it will be easy to find a basis of an understanding for regulating the equality question" if other powers define their disarmament intentions.

Simultaneously Chancellor Adolf Hitler demanded his government be accorded equal rights, said Germany wanted only peace and maintained that the reich was occupied with heavy domestic burdens.

Mrs. Costello To Get More of Aimee's Gospel

BOSTON, Oct. 19. (AP)—The association of Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton and Mrs. Jessie B. Costello will continue, the new convert to the "four square gospel" said tonight in announcing she would accompany the evangelist back to Los Angeles to attend bible school in the Angelus temple there.

Mrs. Costello recently was acquitted of slaying her fire captain husband, and her trial in Salem attracted widespread attention, as did her conversion this week by "Sister Aimee" during the latter's series of revival meetings at the Boston arena.

School District Warrant Debt is Held Stationary

An $3800 payment on tuition of Polk county pupils attending Salem schools during the past year has enabled the Salem district to keep its warrant indebtedness nearly stationary, this month despite issuance of two payrolls, it was reported at the school clerk's office yesterday. The sum was used in calling warrants numbered 4494 to 4570 inclusive.

The district's warrant indebtedness yesterday amounted to $156,828.28 as against $156,250.55 on October 15.

Fuller Varnish Factory Burns; Tank Explodes

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19. (AP)—Fed by thousands of gallons of shellac and chemicals, fire, following a series of explosions destroyed the varnish building of the W. P. Fuller Paint company here today.

Some 30 employes in the building and vicinity escaped without injury as the explosions tore away the side of the building. A tank of paint remover exploded first but the cause was not determined, firemen said. Damage was tentatively estimated, pending a complete check at $225,000.

Nichols to Plead To Recklessness Count Here Today

Arraigned in justice court yesterday on a charge of reckless driving as a result of the accident at the Jenny Lind Tavern on the Pacific highway north of Salem early yesterday, Roy M. Nichols of Portland asked for 24 hours in which to enter plea and posted $25 bail. State police said

Pyramiding Hog Tax Opposed by Farm Secretary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19. (AP)—A determination to protect American consumers from pyramiding of the hog processing tax to increase the price of pork they purchase was attributed in authoritative quarters today to Secretary Wallace.

Officials assisting the secretary of agriculture in working out details of the half-billion-dollar program for aiding swine and corn producers said he had arranged for comprehensive cost studies of the effect of the tax on the consumer.

Auto Kelly Used Making Getaway Found in Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 19. (AP)—The 16-cylinder automobile in which George (machine gun) Kelly and his wife, Kathryn, fled after the Urechel kidnaping was found today in Chicago.

Kelly had left it in a public garage when he fled on toward Memphis, where he and his wife were captured. With the machine he left a deed transferring its ownership to Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Shannon, his wife's parents.

Malvin Purvis, head of the United States bureau of investigation, said the Shannons, both sentenced to jail, would be allowed to direct the disposal of the car.

Goose No Wolf!

"Who's afraid of the big, bad Gooses?" is the way these two little, one-day-old pigs might sing the popular refrain. For their name is Goose Goslin, of the Washington Senators, who is back on his farm in Salem, N. J., after the Winter Series. He'll spend the Winter farming and duck-hunting.
