

SENTIMENT FAVORS ANOTHER BUCKEROO

Annual Quilt Display Slated;
Eastern Star Entertains Families

MOLALLA, Oct. 19.—Business men of Molalla attended the regular meeting of the Buckeroo association Tuesday night at the high school at the special invitation of the association. Everyone present spoke in favor of the continuation of the buckeroo. The meeting had been called by the association to find out the sentiment of the community about whether plans should be made for future shows.

Quilt Display 17th
The Ladies Aid annual display of old and new quilts will be November 17 this year, according to Mrs. Otis Foglesong, president of the aid. In charge of the show, which will be in the church basement, will be Mrs. Glen Harvey, Mrs. Hubert Engle, Mrs. Ralph Sawtell and Mrs. Ralph Holman. Mrs. Floyd Campion will have charge of booths and entertainment. The dinner committee has not yet been appointed.

Theresa Gallie was elected secretary, and Virginia Shaver, treasurer, for the freshman class at the high school late last week.

Thirty Eastern Stars and members of their families enjoyed a potluck dinner, the second this fall, at the lodge hall Tuesday night, preceding the regular chapter meeting. Mrs. John Ridings, worthy matron of the order, is still convalescing and will not be able to take over her duties for another month.

Airlie Youths Get Final Practices on Eve of Competition

ABERLE, Oct. 19.—County Agent Beck took the Airlie 4-H club to the college at Corvallis Tuesday to judge cattle. The boys are to go to the Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland as they have won first place in the judging contest. The team is: Jack Wierent, Harry Bess and Jacob Plaub. J. F. Wierent is their leader.

The forest service men showed pictures on forestry at the schoolhouse Tuesday night to a large crowd. The high school girls conducted a candy sale to buy gym suits.

Paper Idea Planned For Aid Program

SILVERTON, Oct. 19.—An animated newspaper is the form of novel entertainment planned by the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church for Friday night. The setting will be that of a newspaper office and the program will open with Granddad's quartet singing "Working on the Paper," written by Fred Baker, director of the Methodist orchestra. The printer's devil is to be impersonated by Dr. R. F. Stewart. Fred Baker will be in charge of editorials. The story page will be cared for by Mrs. Mary Townley and Mrs. S. J. Comstock. Mrs. F. E. Sylvester and Mrs. F. A. Moore will be the reporters on the locals.

This newspaper will also have a poet's corner under the direction of Mrs. H. J. Winter; an exchange in charge of I. B. Olfred; sports column, Harold Davis, who is coach at the Silverton high school; children's page by Mrs. E. Givens; society page, Mrs. Harold Davis; radio, Eleanor Jane Ballantyne, who is employed on the Silverton Appeal-Tribune; comic section, Orma Dah, Helen Hall and Helen McCullough; advertisements, Mrs. Fred Baker, Miss Catharine Cuddy and Mrs. Stewart.

McCuisten Family Moves to Timber; Edlands Entertain

MONITOR, Oct. 19.—Dave Swanson moved the George McCuisten family to Timber Saturday. They leased their farm to Mr. Jacobson of The Dalles.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor and son, Russel, Mr. and Mrs. Will Taylor and daughter, Lois, of Portland, and Ruth and Mildred Coleman were guests of the John Linehardt family over the week end.

Raymond Dimick left Tuesday for Goose Prairie, Wash., where he is employed on a fox farm. Dinner guests recently at the Ingrid Edland home were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Battleson and family of Canby, Mrs. Henry Ronglein and children of Hartland, N. D., Mrs. Ada Baumgartner of Portland, and Mrs. Olaf Edland and daughter, Lucille, of Monitor.

"THE KEYHOLE" IS PAPER RICKREALL, Oct. 19.—The name of the high school paper has been chosen: "The Keyhole," and the first issue will be published at an early date, according to Frank Hamilton, editor.
