

SALEM ELEVEN DRUBS ALBANY

Nicholson Scores Twice on Successive Scrimmage Plays, Long Runs

way for another score when he returned a punt 25 yards to Albany's 35. Two plays later he crashed through the middle of the Albany team to the three-yard line and Salstrom scored from there on a ten-yard run. Nicholson bucked over for the extra point.

A Salem punt to the Albany nine-yard stripe brought the next score, a safety, when Albany's kicker tumbled behind the goal line, recovered and was downed there.

Nicholson's rapid fire scoring spree in the third period completed the tallying, but the fireworks were not over. Nicholson was sent to the showers and to prove their contention that he was a "one-man team," Albany immediately perked up and threatened for the first time. With Robertson driving through the line and passes working smoothly, Albany advanced to Salem's 21, a 15-yard penalty took the ball to the five, but then Wintermute intercepted a pass and the threat was dead.

Outstanding performers in Salem's line were Coons and Drager, though all of their mates played exceptional ball and held the visitors to one first down in the first half. Budlong and Norman were prominent in Albany's forward wall.

The last quarter was enlivened principally by a squabble between the rival rooting sections over bandsmen's caps, with hundreds of boys streaming from one end of the field to the other and massing for what might have turned into a free-for-all, but seemed to lack the necessary "overt act." The trouble, as nearly as could be learned, was started by former students, not those now in school.

HOWARD URGES AID FROM ENTIRE STATE

association reported that the organization had made rapid strides during the past year and that much good had been accomplished.

Four reports were received and discussed. These included: "Methods of Study," by Clyde H. Beard, Roseburg; "Outside Music Credits," by Fred D. Wolf, Salem; "Character Education," by W. E. Snyder, Monroe, and "Honor Societies," by Harry B. Johnson, Eugene.

The conference dinner was held last night with John C. Johnson serving as toastmaster. The conference will continue in session until tonight.

Howard said the attendance at this year's conference was larger than ever before, and that the subjects discussed were of vital interest to both the educators and school patrons.

Runaway U. S. Princess Pursuing Film Fame?

The report that Janet Snowden, Newport, E. I., oil heiress who married Prince Sirignano Don Francesco Caravita, Italian nobleman, only to leave him and start annulment proceedings in less than a week, is in Hollywood, incognito, has caused the gossips to wonder if she is bent on an invasion of the film. She would not be the first society beauty to crash movietown, for many have had similar ideas, although few made the grade. Among those who did make good are Adrienne Ames, daughter of a prominent New York family; Elissa Landi, who may claim kinship with Hungarian royalty, and Tallulah Bankhead, daughter of the U. S. Senator from Alabama. However, Miss Bankhead first won fame in England on the legitimate stage.

BLONDES POISON TO FOOTBALL COACHES

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 20. (AP)—Blondes—and brunettes also, for that matter—are poison to aspiring football coaches. Michael Pecarovich, Gonzaga university mentor, told a class of high school coaches here today.

"The idea that girls are an inspiration for a football player to do bigger and better things," said Pecarovich, "is a hoax. Keep your players away from them as you would away from poison."

"I can tell right away when a player starts getting interested in some girl, because he arrives for practice at the last minute, and his mind is not on his work."

"If you see the attacking team throw a pass which sails through the air right into the arms of a waiting player, to be carried for a long gain, don't think the trouble is with the defense plan. It's because someone on the defense is thinking of some blonde up in the stands."

University Fire Damage Guessed At Near Million

ST. JOSEPH, N. B., Oct. 20. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin almost wiped out St. Joseph's university tonight, causing damage hurriedly estimated at $1,000,000. The 300 students were in the chapel when the fire started in the main building and all fled out quietly.

The main building and the "old university" unit were leveled. Only the new chapel, skating rink and gymnasium survived. The fire spread to nearby residences, destroying three.

The institution is under the jurisdiction of the Holy Cross order.

W. C. T. U. Backs Education Plan Against Liquor

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 20. (AP)—Legalization of the liquor traffic was condemned in a resolution by delegates to the annual convention of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance union in their closing session here today. The delegates by resolution also condemned what they described as immoral motion pictures.

The state union decided to carry on an aggressive campaign for the total abstinence from alcoholic liquor through an educational program, extending from schools and churches to secular and business organizations.

MANY INJURED IN SILK STRIKE RIOT

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 21 (Saturday). (AP)—Following a day and night of strike disorders in which 17 were injured, the Institute of Silk Dyers and Printers voted early today to open Monday all silk dyeing shops affiliated with the organization.

Riots and pitched battles between police and strikers with bullets whistling and stones flying figured in the disturbances of the past 24 hours. Twenty-four pickets were arrested in the clashes.

One man was seriously hurt last night in the melee which broke out in a meeting of the left wing National Textile Workers Union hall. Four others were hurt and six arrested.

The other injuries and arrests resulted from disturbances earlier in the day which came as the climax of a seven-week-old controversy between striking workmen and manufacturers.

Jews and Marx Doctrine Blamed For Withdrawal

BERLIN, Oct. 20. (AP)—Two reasons were offered tonight for Germany's resignation from the league of nations. That the league was a "forum for Jews and Marxists," and that it had refused to admit Germany from the beginning.

The semi-official Wolff news agency in a statement said the league lost the right to represent the civilized world "because it had become an anti-fascist mass meeting and a platform for Jewish and Marxist oratory."

Litvinoff Will be Sent to Washington for Parley With Roosevelt

"President Roosevelt's step comes at a moment of a very serious and complicated international situation in which the cause of peace is being assailed in many parts of the world."

(Copyright, 1933, by the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 20. (AP)—With the announcement of the forthcoming Roosevelt-Litvinoff recognition conversations, it was learned authoritatively tonight that several Wall street banks are preparing to ease credit immediately for increased soviet sales by discounting acceptance of the Amtorg Trading corporation.

In addition to discounts—something that Wall street has shied away from since the soviet repudiation of debts—it was learned the banks stand ready to make loans direct to Amtorg, the Russian trading agency.

It was also felt certain in informed quarters here that the Washington conversations between the president and the soviet commissar for foreign affairs will lead to a heavy extension of federal credit.

FORMER SILVERTON FOLKS ARE VISITED

BETHANY, Oct. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Ole Sater returned this week from a trip they made into Montana. The elder Mrs. Sater remained in Montana where she was joined early in October by her husband.

The two visited three families, all formerly of the Silverton community, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Larson (Sophie Goplerud), Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Larson (Louise Hattberg), and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Underdahl (Essie Sundvold). The Sateres made headquarters while in Montana with Mrs. Sater's brother, Hans Lyback, also formerly of Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater and Mr. Moe expect to return to the community within two or three weeks. They have been spending their time visiting relatives at Albert Lea, Minn., and plan to stop in Nebraska en route to Oregon.
