Informal Affairs Honor Three Monday

An affair complimenting three members of Salem's popular young set was held at the home of Miss Eloise Wright Monday night. Miss Thora Boesen was joint hostess.

Guests of honor were Mrs. Helen Hamilton, Mrs. Helen Pettijohn Lamb and Miss Gaynelle Beckett. A kitchen shower for Miss Beckett, bride-elect of Frank Alfred, was a feature of the evening. Bridge was in play and refreshments were served.

Present were the guests of honor, Miss Dorothy Eastridge, Miss Eloise White, Miss Deena Hart, Miss Carolyn Parker, Miss Alvin Love, Miss Lois Wilkes and hostesses, Miss Wright and Miss Boesen.

Mrs. Lamb was hostess to Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Boesen at dinner preceding the party. Covers were placed for the guests of honor, hostess and Mrs. Winifred Pettijohn.

Mrs. Hamilton left late Monday night for Baker, Oregon, where she will be in charge of federal and state relief work in Baker county. She is a graduate of Willamette university.

Miss Dona Henderson Honor Guest

A group of the very young set gathered Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Loyal W. Henderson to compliment her daughter, Miss Dona, on the occasion of her sixth birthday.

The Halloween motif was used and games were played during the afternoon. A special feature of the refreshment hour was the candle-light birthday cake, a gift to the honor guest by M. C. Mattson. Orange tapers in black holders were placed on either side of the cake. Mrs. Mervin Fidler assisted the hostess.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Make your friends believe there is no limit to your wardrobe! Here's how—with this jumper frock! Make it in sheer wool or wooly cotton for daytime wear and interchange crisp cotton and silk blouses—or sweaters! Practical as can be! Then for afternoon wear, choose satin or crepe silk in the rich winter tones, combine with satin gaiters—and voilà—irresistible chic!

Pattern 1631 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 40. Size 16 takes 1 5/8 yards 54 inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards 36 inch contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Rebekah Orchestra is Popular

The Salem Rebekah mandolin and guitar orchestra is anticipating an eventful winter with a full schedule of entertainments.
This musical organization has 16 uniformed members who present a popular program of marches, waltzes and novelty numbers. The instrumentation includes the Hawaiian steel guitar, Spanish guitar, ukulele and mandolin.
The club was organized last December with the entire group being composed of beginning students who had never played these instruments.
The last few months have seen such a growing popularity that it has been impossible to accept all the dates. Invitations have been received to play at Corvallis, Eugene, Newburg, Silverton and several places in Salem.
Last week the club gave three 30 minute programs at Perrydale, Central Howell and Liberty. They recently played at the West Stayton Fair, McCleary Grange, Talbot Farmers Union and Champees park.
The membership includes: Priscilla Meisinger, director and instructor; Myrtle McClay, Elsie Townsend, Bonnie Edwards; Hazel McElroy, Lulu McClay, Edith McElroy, Verda Olmstead; Flora Turnbull, Sarah Tennis, Albert Garrett, George Meisinger, Edna McElhaney, Jessie Beatty, Harry Badaeu and Louis Priem.
