

JOE DODGE WEDS ELSIE SCHROEDER

PIONEER, Oct. 24.—The country home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schroeder at Salt Creek northwest of Dallas was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday night at 8 o'clock when their daughter Elsie Rose Schroeder became the bride of Joe Dodge. The wedding ceremony was performed by K. E. Burke of the Dallas Christian church in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

Eleanor Rutledge played Lohengrin's wedding march. The best man was Francis Willard Sharpe. The bride's sister, Velma Catherine Schroeder, was her attendant. Mrs. Anna Dashiell sang "Because" by d'Hardelet, Eleanor Rutledge accompanying at the piano. Proceeding the wedding march Mrs. Raleigh Middleton sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Lolly Reider.

The bride was attractively gowned in a dress of white crepe and carried a conventional bouquet of snapdragons and sweet peas.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held. Those assisting in serving refreshments were Mrs. Bernard Schroeder, Mrs. Harold Schroeder, Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, Edna and Ella Lange and Lois Canfield.

Following the wedding trip to the eastern part of the state Mr. and Mrs. Dodge will be at home on a farm north of Rickreall.

Einsteins Princetonians Now

Professor Albert Einstein, German scientist (right), pictured as he conferred with his future colleague, Professor Eisenhart, soon after his arrival at Princeton University, where he is to lecture for six months. Below, Frau Einstein (right), accompanied by her secretary, Eileen Dukas, inspects her new quarters.

PARENT TEACHERS HOLD INITIAL MEET

RICKREALL, Oct. 23.—The Greenwood Parent-Teacher association held its first meeting of the year Thursday night. The program, given to a large audience, was: A story in Chinese, Margaret Kellogg, solo, Bob Nelson, Margaret Kellogg, solo, Bob Nelson, accompanied by Lillian Ballard; clippings by Mary Alice Ruffison; music by harmonica band composed of the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades; presentation of writing awards and club awards by Joseph Willis.

Awards went to: Florence Lantz, Kenneth Steele, Carl Brown, Richard Kaser, Lorraine Jenkins, Dale Wilson, Zelma Allen, Josephine Brown. Boys' cooking club, Carl Brown, Harold Brown, Kenneth Steele, Marvin Kaser, Richard Kaser, Donald Beverly, Wade Watson. Boys' handicraft, Charles Brown, Dale Wilson, Dean Smith, Marvin Jenkins, James Brown, Johnnie Brown. Sewing division, Frances Lantz, Florence Lantz, Lorraine, Jenkins, Zelma Allen, Vera Mae Brown.

A lecture was given by Mr. McCullough with pictures in color of the Century of Progress fair.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Oct. 24.—The silver tea which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Guy C. Newgent, Friday, will be given this Thursday, having been postponed because of the funeral of the late William T. Grier.

It was definitely decided Monday that the highway going through West Salem will be paved from the bridge to the city limits toward Rickreall and will be a 40 foot road. It was for a time thought that it might be only 28 feet wide, but was finally agreed that the 40 foot span was needed and it will be narrowed outside of the city limits.

The Epworth league is planning a benefit box social for the evening of October 27, with Miss Ada Clark and Helen Gosser in charge.

Guests at the John Donaldson home are Mrs. Donaldson's two sisters, Mrs. Alice Sullivan and Mrs. Virgie Smith of Twin Falls, Idaho. The guests intended to take their mother back with them, but upon their arrival they found the mother, Mrs. Theodore Greene, ill. They will remain for a fortnight's stay, returning with Mrs. Greene if she is able.

Mrs. Mable Ruge Unruh who has been in a Salem hospital for some time, is recuperating from a major operation at the Fred Gibson home. Mrs. Gibson is her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Hill and two children are making a 10-day visit with their parents and sisters at Ferdinand, Idaho.

The Jennings family, who reside in the Bushnell residence on Third street, have purchased the unfinished residence and two lots in block 4 in Kingwood Heights situated between Altmont and Cascade drives, and will complete the home and live there.

House guests at the J. E. Douglas home are his mother, Mrs. R. F. Douglas, who came with the father and two brothers, Roy and Chester Douglas, to be near while the Salem man underwent a foot amputation. They came from Lewiston, Idaho, and the men left the last of the week. Mr. Douglas is doing nicely.

DAIRY PRODUCTS COMPANY IS SUED

DALLAS, Oct. 24.—Three complaints were filed in the clerk's office here Monday. F. B. Studnick filed a complaint against the Independence Dairy Products company in which he seeks to collect $1173.34 with interest. The First Mortgage Security company of Corvallis filed a complaint against W. C. Goodman for the amount of $435 and interest.

Aida M. Burns filed a complaint against Edward J. Himes, et al, in which she seeks to collect on an assigned mortgage. She asks a judgment for $1500 with interest, $150 attorney fees, and foreclosure of the mortgage and sale of the property to satisfy her claim.

A marriage license was issued to R. Joe Dodge, 21, laborer, and Elsie Rose Schroeder, 18, at home, both of Dallas.

GRANGERS' COLUMN

VICTOR POINT, Oct. 24.—Union Hill grange met Friday night for its regular business session. Program was arranged by the home economics committee, and included: Opening song; reading, Mrs. Ida Steinberger; vocal solos, Mrs. W. F. Krenz and Mrs. W. M. Tate with pantomime by Little Marjorie Tate; recitation, James Darby; play, directed by Mrs. Geneva Hubbard, with the cast: Mrs. Myra Fischer, Mrs. Vera Scott, Mrs. Elsie Tate, Mrs. Guy Butler, Mrs. W. F. Krenz, Mrs. Jennie Humphreys, Miss Eleanor Paddock, Miss Thelma Humphreys, Miss Mary Butler and Miss Alice Jaquet.

An all-day meeting of the Home Economics club was announced for November 8, with the men invited to assist in cleaning hall and grounds. Interesting legislative topics were discussed by Mrs. Elsie Tate, Mrs. Vera Scott and J. O. Darby. Announcement was made by O. W. Humphreys of the agricultural committee that the Valley Farmers Cooperative Oil company was ready for service to farm communities.

The next meeting will be November 17, with dinner at 7 o'clock sharp. Election of officers for 1934 will be held.

BOLINGS, WILSONS FETED AT BETHEL

BETHEL, Oct. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. C. Boling and family, who are moving from this district to a farm which they have purchased near Florence, were honor guests at a large party given by their neighbors at the school Monday night. The party was also given as a welcome in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson of the Popcorn district who have bought the Boling farm.

Simpson Hamrick, Jr., new president of the Community club, presided at the informal program; community singing with Mrs. A. L. Schulz at the piano; piano solo, Miss Evelyn Boles; presentation by Rev. S. Hamrick of a gift to the Boling family with a word of appreciation and farewell, and welcoming the newcomers. Mrs. Boling and Mr. Wilson spoke in response.

Mr. and Mrs. Boling, with Elsinor, Clarence and Betty, and Miss Margaret Dixon of Hillsboro, were dinner guests at the J. R. Carruthers' home Saturday night. On Sunday night the Boling family was honored at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bahnsen. Betty Boling was given a surprise party by her school mates at the school at the close of the afternoon session on Friday.

Farmers' Union News

TALBOT, Oct. 24.—The regular meeting of the Sidney-Talbot Farmers' union will be held Friday night at the Talbot schoolhouse. The program will be given by the chamber of commerce of Salem.

WILLIAM SHEWEY RITES AT DALLAS

AIRLIE, Oct. 24.—Word was received here Saturday of the death of William Shewey, who for years lived here but recently made his home with a daughter in Dallas. Mr. Shewey was janitor at the school here for over 15 years. Funeral services were held in Dallas Monday, with interment in the Dallas cemetery.

Re-Enlist in C. C. C. Ralph Choffin and John Crowley came home from the C. C. C. camp for a week end. Both boys have entered the service for a second six months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tartar and children went to Philomath to visit with her mother, Mrs. Reynolds, and her sister, Gladys, who has been ill for the past two months.

and have no children. The plaintiff asks a judgment granting the divorce, $50 attorney fees, and any further relief the court sees fit.

BISHOP ENTERTAINS

HAZEL GREEN, Oct. 24.—Rev. J. W. Wortman and Mrs. Wortman and children were guests at luncheon given to the pastors of the Oregon Conference and their wives by Bishop Warner at Alberta Street church, Portland. Bishop Warner is leaving early this week for Adult Conference at Dayton, Ohio.

WOLVES FIND Stayton Men Lost on Hill

MEHAMA, Oct. 24.—It is reported that while hunting in the mountains around Camp 26 of Hammond Lumber company, Alf and Roscoe Poole of Stayton, were followed by a band of timber wolves. The men were lost three days and it was necessary to build up a huge bonfire at night to keep the ring of eyes from closing in.

With the closing down of Camp 26 of Hammond Lumber company several families moved to their homes in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cothran, Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Phillips moved down Saturday.

Wolves Find Stayton Men Lost on Hill

MEHAMA, Oct. 24.—It is reported that while hunting in the mountains around Camp 26 of Hammond Lumber company, Alf and Roscoe Poole of Stayton, were followed by a band of timber wolves. The men were lost three days and it was necessary to build up a huge bonfire at night to keep the ring of eyes from closing in.

With the closing down of Camp 26 of Hammond Lumber company several families moved to their homes in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cothran, Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Phillips moved down Saturday.

SMITH-HUGHES BOYS HAVE SHOW EXHIBIT

SILVERTON, Oct. 24.—Silverton Smith-Hughes agricultural students attending the Pacific International Livestock exposition, the Northwest vocational stock judging contest, the N. W. section F. F. A. banquet and as guests of the night horse show and rodeo Saturday were Tom Miller, Clyde Parsons, Herbert Jones, Ernest Erickson, Raymond Furness, Earl Johnson, Robert Lorraine, Ernest Omaly, and their instructor, Warren Crabtree.

Silverton's Smith-Hughes display board of eight enlarged photographs of project livestock and poultry work and an enlarged framed picture of James Neal were placed in the J. C. Penney hall to remain during the show.

Johnstons Reach 30th Anniversary In Wedded Travels

LYONS, Oct. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Johnston celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Friday. Their son, Paul Johnston, and family of Lyle, Wash., arrived for the occasion. They left Sunday as Paul had to attend the Washington Teachers' institute Monday.

Students of the Fox Valley school Friday made plans to hold a Halloween party Friday night of this week.

Fred Neal, Elmer Perkins and Lawrence Trask left Saturday for southern Oregon on a hunting trip. They expect to visit the Gold Hill country.

Impersonator Will Appear Thursday At Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND, Oct. 24.—The entertainment to be given by G. L. Hall of McMinnville, will be held at the McMinville Evangelical church Thursday night instead of Friday night as previously announced. Mr. Hall is an impersonator and impersonator of James Whitcomb Riley's poems. A silver offering will be taken.

The silo filling was completed in the district Saturday when the silo on the Will Umbanhour place was filled. Corn husking will now keep Island farmers busy.

Avin Rockhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rockhill, returned home Monday after a visit in southern California. He enjoyed a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bid Harvey in Pasadena.

Vocation Instructors Attend Valley Session

SILVERTON, Oct. 24.—William Gatt and Warren Crabtree will attend the first meeting of the fall of the Williams Vocational Instructors' association at Albany Wednesday night. The program will be put on by the Salem group. Last year the association held its first meeting of the season at Silverton.

Masonic Bodies Will Attend M. E. Church

TURNER, Oct. 23.—The Mason and Eastern Star lodges have arranged to attend in a body the 11 o'clock service of the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning, October 29, after which they invite any of their friends who wish to join them in a basket lunch at their hall.

Ray Webb of Webb Brothers' garage is having a new home built on his new property in the northern part of town.

NEW KEIZER RESIDENT KEIZER, Oct. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Savage are parents of an eight-pound boy, born this morning at the Bungalow maternity home. This is the first grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE DALLAS, Oct. 24.

Arline Williams filed a suit for divorce against Daniel Price Williams here Monday in which she charged cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married at Compton, Cal., August 22, 1925.

POLLY AND HER PALS

MICKEY MOUSE

Anything to Please a Lady?

By CLIFF STERRETT

By CLIFF STERRETT

By WALT DISNEY

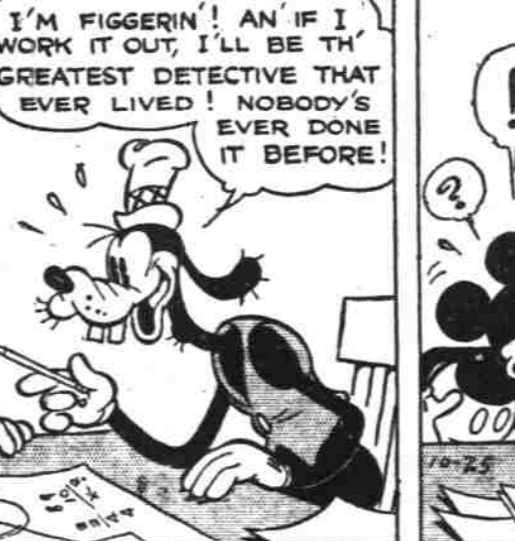

By WALT DISNEY

By WALT DISNEY

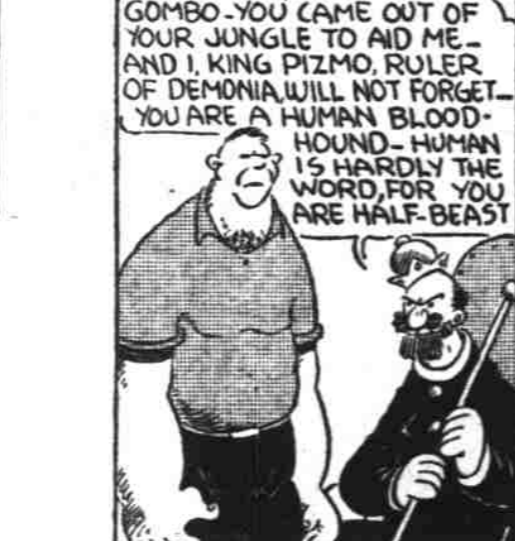

By WALT DISNEY

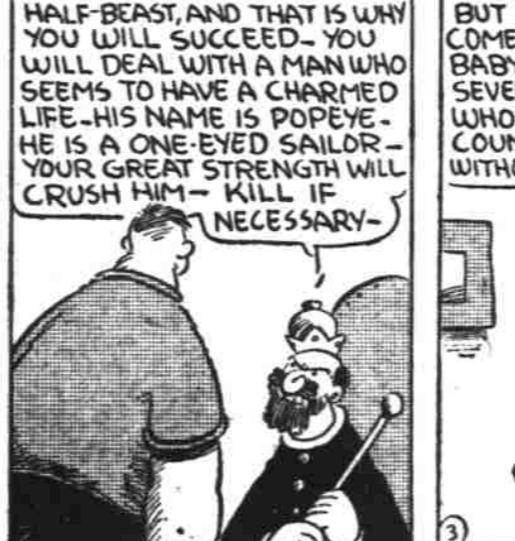

By WALT DISNEY

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"Unexpected Guests"

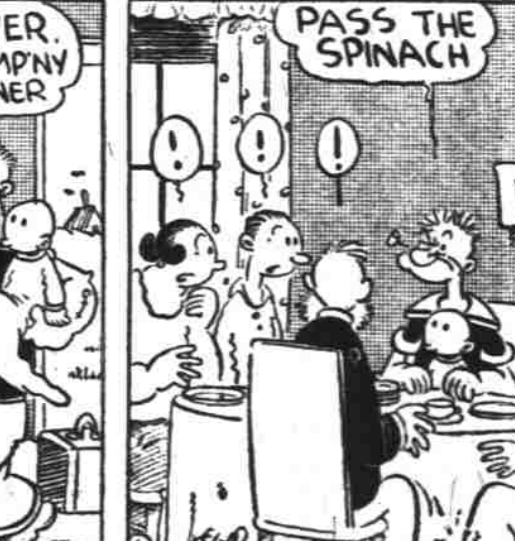

By SEGAR

By SEGAR

By SEGAR

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Me and My Shadow

By DARREL McCLURE

By DARREL McCLURE

By DARREL McCLURE

TOOTS AND CASPER

"Raining" Troubles

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By JIMMY MURPHY

