BOSTON, Oct. 24. (A)-(U. S. Dept. Agr.)-Although very little wool is being sold in the market here, quotations are showing practically no change from selling prices of the past several weeks. Small lots move occasionally as buyers come into the market to piece-out stocks on hand. Holders of domestic wools are not making much effort to push sales but rather are inclined to await developments in the goods market. Quotations cabled from primary markets in Australia indicate markets there firmer to

Clover Seed Harvest Complete; Crop Poor

slightly higher than last week.

SILVERTON, Oct. 24. - The clover seed in the Silverton farming community has practically all been harvested at this time. Reports are that the crop is very poor and the quality none to good this year. Very nearly the entire first crop was cut for hay because of the shortage of that product. Weather conditions were not ideal for harvesting the second crop of clover.
